There are lawyers who worked in the fields and the mills and all of the places that you know about, and I happen to be one of them. I taught school for $26 a month and I boarded myself and I had sixty pupils, and you say these people are working for nothing. I want to tell you I worked for a dollar a day along the railroad and boarded myself, and these people are getting five, six, seven, eight, nine, twenty dollars a day, and you say they are so badly abused.

I served in the first session that was held in this building, in the year 1889, when everything was all apart and the other building was burned down. I served here, and think of how many changes have taken place. And yet, with that number of years in public life, here is one of those bad Republicans, the son of a Civil War veteran, the son of a man who stood guard over Lincoln's body, a descendant of people who came here before 1800 on all sides. That is the kind of man who is dishonest, without having been heard on this bill.

This young man knows I was not altogether pleased with the manner with which I was eliminated from the chairmanship of the workmen's compensation committee, and I was put on the committee on labor and industry as its vice-chairman, and I did not even know what bills were coming to us, and it was not the fault of the gentleman who presides over this committee.

Every man here, including the gentleman from Westmoreland and the gentleman from Philadelphia—I call them friends and I would not hesitate at this moment to walk across in the presence of these visitors and ask favors from Johnny, and I would not hesitate a minute to ask him for almost anything within his power, except politics, but when it comes to politics we are all dishonest, and when it comes to politics he makes general statements that I can not stand for, and there are a number of other things I can not stand for.

I am not altogether pleased with some of the things that take place political or otherwise, but I have been here during the time that George Earle was here with all his power, and this young man was not heard so very much then, and I saw the things that took place and what they did at that time. I will not begin to tell you the number of things that I have seen here all during that time.

This is what I am serving notice on this Senate: I serve notice that you will conduct this Senate from now on until the end of this session in a legal and in a proper manner, and that I shall call upon the President, who knows his way and is a very efficient Presiding Officer, and he is not afraid, and he will tell you what to do, to enforce the rules of this Senate, and when you have been given the opportunity to debate, that you confine yourselves to the question, and that you will not get up every few minutes and talk politically in advance of the bills before they are discussed.

He wants to take the merits away. If there are any merits in these bills, No. 280, 361, 249, 230, 423, 426, and 427, I do not know what they are, and I am here at eight o'clock in the morning and analyze and I really feel I know how to analyze but what I want to say is these bills were arranged for by the chairman of this committee to have a hearing, and he knew it, and he went out mad because he could not have his way, and I didn't know about it, and we quarrelled, but still I say we are friends.

What I want to say to him is this, if he goes on and makes these speeches and talks on things that are not before us, I am going to move the previous question, and if Senator Holland tries it I am going to move the previous question, and if Harvey Taylor does it I am going to do it too. That is telling you something, Harvey, you are here and we are all pleased to welcome you back after what you have gone through and I ask you, in your years of experience, and I remember you from the time you were a little page boy and I was here and I served at the desk and took every motion that the State Senate passed, in the session of 1907, before the gentleman from Westmoreland paid too much attention to it, I wrote it all up and I knew what was going on.

I serve notice that it is not an easy job for these men to take the words I am saying now, and they wish to goodness I would stop, but I don't, and let me tell you they also wish to goodness that Johnny would stop sometimes.

Now, gentleman, I request the Senators from this moment on, having received due notice as they have, to conduct the business of this Senate in a legal and orderly way and discuss and debate these questions when they come up and give us time so that we know what we are doing. A single word sometimes means a great thing to be done. The reason I get up here now is to serve notice of what is going to happen. I talked about two hours or two and a half hours in 1939, when I had a duty to perform, and in 1945 I talked when I had a duty to perform. My conscience can work like Johnny's conscience can work, and from now on my conscience is going to work and from now on, unless they confine themselves to the question, unless they prove themselves that they are so much better than those of us who have sat here on this side and become the leaders here, and we are such terrible men, like these poor doctors who do not know their way around, all of us get so much knowledge, and we are in such a great way because of these men who are mining in the mines. I have taken care of twenty thousand of them and I have taken them to the hospital when they did not know what to do, I have carried twenty-seven dead ones in my hands, and I didn't have my clothes off for three days, because I was born with a conscience and these young men with all the silver tongues and all the interpretation of badness of the poor Republican boys that are standing here today listening to us and saying, as I said before, we wish you would quit.

Let me tell you, and get it through your head, that is no way of gaining influence, that is no way of getting advertising, that is no way of abusing somebody, that is no way of analyzing a bill by getting up and saying, this bill will do so and so.

I know when I get through he will be up there to talk, but you can not cut him off. Let him talk, if you want him to go on and talk a couple of hours more. I will answer, if you want me to give any answer.

I am not quite finshed. This is the first time I have started but now that I have started something I serve notice on you that if I start again I will tell some of the other things I happen to know, if you want to put it on that basis, but I do serve notice that every one of the bills, regardless of whatever position he takes, so far as I am concerned, will receive fair considraion, and if I am not for them I am against them, and I will say I have done it right here and he knows it, and I say to Johnny there is no feeling about it, only you must not do it any more. I thank you. That is all.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE CHAIR

The PRESIDENT. The Chair would like to call to the attention of the Senators on the question of personal privilege, that under the decisions of the Senate it has been ruled that questions of personal privilege are, first, those affecting the rights of the house collectively, its safety, dignity and the integrity of its proceedings, and, secondly, the right, reputation and conduct of its members individually in their representative capacity only.

In the future the Chair will, at any time there is a point of order raised recognize an objection or point of order, and the members will cconduct themselves accordingly.

Reagan,

NOT VOTING—6

Depuy,	McDonald,	Trout,	West,
Hall,	Morrison,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 191, as follows:

An Act to amend the act approved the third day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 242) entitled "An act to promote the public health and safety by providing for examination and registration of those who desire to engage in the occupation of beauty culture defining beauty culture and regulating beauty culture shops schools students apprentices teachers managers and operators conferring powers and duties upon the Department of Public Instruction providing for appeals to certain courts by applicants and licensees and providing penalties" providing for the keeping and distribution of a registry roster by the department

Section 1 The act approved the third day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 242) entitled "An act to promote the public health and safety by providing for examination and registration of those who desire to engage in the occupation of beauty culture defining beauty culture and regulating beauty culture shops schools students apprentices teachers managers and operators conferring powers and duties upon the Department of Public Instruction providing for appeals to certain courts by applicants and licensees and providing penalties" is hereby amended by adding thereto after section thirteen a new section to read as follows

Section 13.1 Registry Roster The department shall also have the power to keep a roster showing the names and address of names and the places of business of all persons licensed under this act and under prior laws and registered by the department which roster shall be published in booklet form by the department once every year no later than seventy (70) days after the date in which licenses are to be renewed Copies of the roster shall be mailed to interested persons upon request

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I simply desire to call the attention of the House to the fact that this bill is a bill to require the printing of the names of beauty parlor people in order that they may be available easily, I presume for the agents that desire to locate them and sell their products to the beauty parlor people.

Now, just why the Commonwealth should pay the bill to distribute lists of persons engaged in that particular profession for the benefit of salesmen who want to make sales to those people, I don't know how to understand it. However, if that is the way the House wants to spend the Commonwealth's money, there is nothing I can do about it except to vote "no".

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

House Bill No. 339, Printer's No. 273,

was passed over at the request of Mr. FLEMING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 358, as follows:

An Act to further amend the act approved the nineteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 1356) entitled "An act to regulate the sale and delivery of solid fuel as herein defined providing for appointment of licensed weighmasters prescribing their powers and duties authorizing substitute licensed weighmasters imposing certain duties on the Department of Internal Affairs and providing penalties" providing for transportation of solid fuel over a public highway making exceptions to necessity of a weighmaster's certificate and designating certain acts as prima facie evidence of short weight

Section 1 Sections two and subsection (1) of section three of the act approved the nineteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 1356) entitled "An act to regulate the sale and delivery of solid fuel as herein defined providing for appointment of licensed weighmasters prescribing their powers and duties authorizing substitute licensed weighmasters imposing certain duties on the Department of Internal Affairs and providing penalties" as last amended by the act approved the twenty-seventh day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-three (P. L. 684) are hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 2 [It shall be unlawful to sell solid fuels excepting by avoirdupois weight] No person shall sell transport over a public highway or deliver or start out for delivery less than two thousand (2000) pounds avoirdupois of weight to the ton of any solid fuel or a proper proportion thereof in quantities less than a ton and such solid fuel shall be duly weighed by a licensed weighmaster of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on accurate scales suitable for weighing a tare and the gross weight of the vehicle or vehicle and trailer transporting solid fuel located in this state and which has been tested and approved by an official empowered by law to test such scales A tolerance at the rate of thirty (30) pounds to two thousand pounds shall be allowed for wastage and variation in scales

Section 3 (1) No person [upon the sale or purchase of solid fuel] shall sell transport over a public highway deliver or cause to be delivered or to be started out for delivery any solid fuel in a lot or lots in amounts of exceeding one hundred (100) pounds without each lot in each separate compartment of any vehicle or vehicle and trailer being accompanied by a weighmaster's certificate for each lot issued by a licensed weighmaster of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Provided That this section shall be inapplicable to a producer of solid fuel who furnishes proof satisfactory to the Department or an Inspector of Weights and Measures that the solid fuel being transported comes from his own mine in his own property and is being transported for a purpose other than for sale or that the vehicle is accompanied by a valid certificate of transportation permitting such transportation without a weighmaster's certificate as provided for by the rules and regulations as promulgated by the Department of Internal Affairs

Section 2 Section seven of said act as amended by the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-one (P. L. 152) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 7 It shall be unlawful for any weighmaster to issue a false or incorrect weighmaster's certificate or for any person to solicit him to do so or for any person to use or issue any weighmaster's certificate except one prepared on a form issued or approved by the department or for any person to print or distribute any forms of weighmaster's certificate unless authorized so to do by the department or to use a false or incorrect weighmaster's certificate or weighmaster's certificate not bearing the signature and license number of a licensed weighmaster and the license number of the vehicle or for any weighmaster knowingly to permit any weighmaster's certificate to be issued or used which purports to bear his signature and which was not in fact signed by him at the time of weighing or which expresses a gross tare or net weight not ascertained by him or for any person to deliver solid fuel without an official weighmaster's certificate or to permit any diminution of the load or solid fuel before its delivery to the purchaser or purchasers thereof or except as otherwise provided in this act to fail neglect or refuse to deliver a correct and lawful weighmaster's certificate to the purchaser of solid fuel whose name and address appears on said weighmaster's certificate or to otherwise directly or indirectly violate any of the provisions of this act

Whenever solid fuel is sold and delivered to the purchaser named in the approved weighmaster's certificate and whenever the seller or his representative neglects fails or refuses to deliver an approved weighmaster's certificate at the time of delivery or the net weight of the solid fuel shall be determined to be less than the net amount stated on the approved weighmaster's certificate or as otherwise represented to the purchaser such determination shall constitute prima facie evidence of short weight and the seller shall be prosecuted under this provision for short weight

Whenever the gross weight of a vehicle and load the tare weight and the net weight of solid fuel has been determined in accordance with the provisions of this act and the net weight of the solid fuel shall be determined to be less than that stated in a weighmaster's certificate proof of such determination shall constitute prima facie evidence of the diminution of the load of solid fuel before delivery to the purchaser

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 507, as follows:

An Act to amend Sections eleven hundred three and eleven hundred five of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1225) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" by restricting the payment of bounties to residents of the Commonwealth reducing the penalty for presentation of illegal bounty claims and clarifying the law with reference thereto

Section 1 Section eleven hundred three of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P L 1225) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1103 Making Claim for Bounty Any [person] resident of this Commonwealth having killed in a wild state within this Commonwealth any such predator and being desirous of securing the reward or bounty provided for such killing shall produce such slain predator or the entire pelt of any animal and the entire body of any bird before any game protector or deputy game protector or any other person authorized to administer oaths within this Commonwealth and shall make affidavit on forms supplied by the commission that (a) he or some member of his immediate family or household naming such person killed the same (naming it) (b) stating the date of such killing (c) that it was killed in a wild state (d) that the place (naming it by county and township) where such animal or bird was killed was within the Commonwealth (e) that such animal or bird was not reared or held in captivity and released and (f) that such person was not responsible directly or indirectly for having such animal or bird imported into the Commonwealth or released

Each officer other than a salaried game protector shall receive a fee of twenty-five cents for each affidavit containing one claim and fifty cents for each affidavit containing more than one claim Game protectors and deputy game protectors are authorized to administer the oath required by this section Deputy game protectors shall supply seals at their own expense

The claimant for bounty shall foward such affidavit and the unmutilated [salted or cured] dried or salted skin or pelt of the animal or animals to the director at Harrisburg within four months from the date of killing and the affidavit and the entire body of any bird shall be forwarded or delivered to the director at Harrisburg within forty-eight hours after killing

In no case except for the killing of predatory birds shall a bounty be paid where the whole carcass or body or the raw [unsalted or undried skin of an animal is received by the commission] undried or unsalted skin of an animal is submitted

Section 2 Section eleven hundred five of said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1105 Unlawful Collection of Bounties Penalties It is unlawful for any person to collect or attempt to collect or to aid conspire or assist in the collection of a bounty through the presentation of a skin or a carcass or any part thereof of any animal or bird upon which no bounty is authorized in accordance with the provisions of this act or through deception of any character or to present for the purpose of collecting a bounty the skin or carcass or any part thereof of an animal or bird that has been reared or held in captivity or released or the skin or carcass or any part thereof of any animal or bird captured either dead or alive or reared or held in captivity outside of this Commonwealth or to collect or attempt to collect or to aid conspire or assist or to collect or attempt to collect or to aid conspire or assist in collecting a second bounty for the killing of any animal or bird upon which a bounty has already been paid

Any person who shall wilfully or fraudently collect or attempt to collect or aid conspire or assist in collecting any bounty to which the claimant [or any other person] is not legally entitled under the provisions of this act or shall aid abet or assist in any capacity officially or otherwise in any attempt to defraud the Commonwealth through the collection or payment of any reward or bounty shall be guilty of perjury and punishable as a misdemeanor where a false affidavit is made and in addition thereto upon conviction in a summary proceeding or upon signing an acknowledgment of the offense committed shall be sentenced to pay the Commonwealth for the use of the Game Fund a fine of [one hundred] twenty-five dollars and costs of prosecution for each such skin or bird submitted except that any person who shall make a false declaration of the date when a bird or animal was killed shall be sentenced to pay a fine of ten dollars and the costs of prosecution for each such skin or bird submitted and in default of the payment of the fine and costs so imposed shall suffer imprisonment in the jail of the county in which the affidavit is made for a period of one day for each dollar of costs and fine imposed and unpaid

Any person who shall collect a bounty to which such person is not legally entitled under the provisions of this act shall in addition to the fines herein imposed be required to refund to the commission such amounts as shall have been unlawfully collected

[All skins of animals or parts thereof or the bodies of any birds or parts thereof presented for bounty in a false claim for which no bounty is provided or otherwise contrary to the provisions of this act] The inclusion of the skin of an animal or part thereof or the body of any bird or part thereof in an attempt to collect a bounty to which the claimant is not entitled or otherwise presenting a claim contrary to the provisions of this act shall invalidate the entire claim and all skins or birds in such claim are hereby declared forfeited to the Commonwealth and shall be disposed of by the director

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 641, as follows:

An Act fixing the salary of county controllers in counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth classes and repealing parts of acts inconsistent therewith.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate one of the sponsors of this bill, Mr. Watkins, if he is here.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman does not appear to be in the Hall of the House.

Mr. FLEMING. All right, Mr. Shoemaker, then.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHOEMAKER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask Mr. Shoemaker, does this bill increase the salary of the County Controllers of counties of the second class?

Mr. SHOEMAKER. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FLEMING. By how much, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SHOEMAKER. Two thousand dollars.

Mr. FLEMING. That is all.

Mr. Speaker, I would hestitate to oppose salary raising bills when I know that people need the raises of salary but, I certainly cannot see the justice in raising the salary of the County Controller of Allegheny County and not raise the salaries of the other elective officials of the county. I would certainly be in favor of such a measure if it would be accompanied by a like salary raise of the salaries of the other elected officials. Just why we should pick out one elected official in the county and not raise the salaries of the others to me does not seem quite fair.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Shoemaker.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHOEMAKER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. I would like to inquire of the gentleman as to just how much this bill would increase the salary of our Controllers in fourth class counties?

Mr. SHOEMAKER. One thousand dollars, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. All right, that is all.

Mr. Speaker, I feel the same way about this bill as the gentleman from Allegheny. If it were a bill that would cover all the employees of the county then I could see fit to support such a bill. Our Controller now gets five thousand dollars, four thousand dollars of which is from the county and one thousand dollars from the retirement. I am certainly of the opinion that the controller should receive no more money than the Comsioners, and the commissioners get five thousand dollars, so I would ask that this bill be opposed.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. Speaker, I understand that this bill is nothing more than an adjustment measure. It does put the County Controller's salary equal with the Commissioners, and I think that is very important, since the Controller is the watch-dog of the County Commissioners, and I think for that reason alone his salary should be equal to that of the Commissioners.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I heartily concur with the remarks made by the gentleman who has just addressed the House, Mr. Watkins. County Controllers have been conspiciously underpaid, particularly in fourth class counties as compared with the other counties. The County Controller is really more important than the Registrar of Wills, and the Prothonotary, but he has never been compensated in proportion to his duties and in proportion to his responsibilities, so I think that as a corrective measure, and as the Controllers have been underpaid I think that this bill should receive the favorable consideration of the House.

Mr. FLEMING. I have no quarrel with the comments made by the speakers who spoke before me. I concur with everything that the Minority Leader says. I wonder if the sponsors would have any objection to passing over the bill today to give us an opportunity to amend it so far as it affects second class counties.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. Speaker, as regards the question asked by my friend from Pittsburgh, I hesitate to put the bill over at this time. I think if they are interested in evening up the salaries in the various counties that is all right with me; I will vote for a measure like that. In the meantime I would like to see this bill acted on.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman misunderstands me. We certainly do not want to raise the salary of the Controller in Allegheny county. On the spur of the moment, I feel that the Controller of Allegheny county is adequately paid. He at the present time gets ten thousand dollars a year, and what I was asking Mr. Watkins was that he hold over the bill in order to prepare amendments which would delete Controllers in Allegheny County. We have no quarrel at all as to the equalization that has been mentioned by Mr. Watkins and Mr. Andrews for fourth class counties.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. Speaker, I am sorry I misunderstood the gentleman from Allegheny, and I will comply with his request.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent for the Chair to withdraw its decision that the bill has been agreed to on third reading?

The Chair hears no objection and consent is granted.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

House Bill No. 641, Printer's No. 231,

was passed over at the request of Mr. WATKINS.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 657, as follows:

An Act to further amend the act approved the fifth day of August one thousand nine hundred forty-one (P. L. 803) entitled "An act providing for the creation maintenance and operation of a county employes retirement system in counties of the fifth class imposing certain charges on counties and prescribing penalties" transferring contributors from the one one-hundredtwentieth class to the one one-hundredth class

Section 1 Section five of the act approved the fifth day of August one thousand nine hundred forty-one (P. L. 803) entitled "An act providing for the creation maintenance and operation of a county employes retirement system in counties of the fifth class imposing certain charges on counties and prescribing penalties" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 5 County Employes Retirement Fund There is hereby created in each county of the fifth class in which a retirement system has been established a county employes retirement fund which shall consist of all moneys arising from appropriations made by the county and from contributions made by the members of the county employes retirement asystem and all interest earned by the investments or moneys of the fund created by this act The moneys contributed by the county shall be credited to a county annuity account and those contributed by the members shall be credited to a member's annuity reserve account and the interest earnings shall be apportioned to the member's and county annuity reserve accounts The actuary shall determine the present value of the liability on account of all county annuities payable to original members and the percentage of such liability which shall be contributed by the county each year over a period of fifteen years from the time the system is established until the accumulated reserve equals the present value of said liability All such contributions shall be credited to the county annuity reserve account The actuary shall also determine the amount which shall be contributed by the county into the fund periodically for credit to the county annuity reserve account on account of service of all new and original members subsequent to the time the retirement system is established

Each member of the retirement system shall be required to contribute to the fund such per centum of his salary as shall be computed by the actuary to be sufficient with regular interest to procure for him on superannuation retirement one [one-hundred-twentieth (1-120) of his final salary for each year of service after December thirty-first preceding the year the retirement system is established] one-hundredth (1-100) of his final salary for each year of service after the thirty-first day of December one thousand nine hundred forty-seven in all counties in which the retirement system is established by such date or after the thirty-first day of December preceding the year the retirement system is established in all counties in which the retirement system is established after the thirty-first day of December one thousand nine hundred forty-seven which contributions shall be paid into the fund through payroll deductions in such manner as the board may require All contributions by members shall be credited to the member's annuity reserve account

Every contributor in all counties in which the retirement system is established by the thirty-first day of December one thousand nine hundred forty-seven whether an original member or a new member who is in active service on the first day of January one thousand nine hundred forty-eight shall be automatically transferred from the one one-hundred-twentieth (1-120) class to the one one-hundredth (1-100) class In all such cases the per centum of salary deductions applicable to such transferred contributor in the one one-hundredth (1-100) class shall be based upon the same age of the contributor as was used in determining the per centum of salary deduction applicable while in the one one-hundred-twentieth (1-120) class

Where a contributor has been so transferred from the one one-hundred-twentieth (1-120) class to the one one-hundredth (1-100) class as above provided his county annuity upon retirement shall be calculated as follows

(a) For service prior to the time of transfer at the one one-hundred-twentieth (1-120) rate

(b) For service subsequent to the date of transfer to the date of retirement at the one one-hundredth (1-100) rate

(c) For all service prior to the time of commencing contribution as the time he contributed at the one one-hundred-twentieth (1-120) rate bears to the total time of contribution and as the time he contributed at the one one-hundredth (1-100) rate bears to the total time of contribution

Section 2 Section eleven of said act as amended by the act approved the twenty-eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-three (P. L. 777) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 11 Superannuation Retriment Allowance Any contributor who has reached superannuation retirement age may retire for superannuation by filing with the board a written statement duly signed by the contributor setting forth at what time he desires to be retired Said application shall retire said contributor at the time so specified

On retirement for superannuation a beneficiary shall receive a retirement allowance which shall consist of (a) a member's annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his accumulated deductions standing to his credit in the member's annuity reserve account and (b) a county annuity equal to one [one-hundred-twentieth (1-120)] one-hundredth (1-100) of his final salary multiplied by each year of total service except as otherwise provided in section five of this act and in addition thereto in the case of an original member one [one-hundred-twentieth (1-120)] one-hundredth (1-100) of his final salary multiplied by each year of prior service except as otherwise provided in section five of this act but the total county annuity shall never exceed fifty per centum of the final salary

Section 3 The provisions of this act shall become effective on the first day of January one thousand nine hundred forty-eight

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Section 2 The mandatory provisions of this act shall not include schools maintained or classes conducted by employers for their own employes where no fee or tuition is charged or schools owned and operated by bona fide eleemosynary or religious institutions or by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or any political subdivision thereof or junior colleges but such exempted schools or classes may choose to apply for a license hereunder and upon approval and issuance thereof shall be subject to the provisions of this act Such exempted schools or classes may voluntarily surrender their license and revert to their original status

Section 3 (a) The provisions of this act shall be administered by the State Board of Private Business Schools which in connection therewith shall have the power to make and enforce rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this act In promulgating such rules and regulations public hearings thereon shall be first held

(b) The Board shall consist of nine members of whom eight shall be appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate in manner herein provided and the ninth member shall be the Superintendent of Public Instruction or his representative ex officio The Governor shall appoint six members of the Board from a list of persons certified by the Superintendent of Public Instruction who have occupied executive or management positions in Private Business Schools in the Commonwealth for a period of at least five years and of which two such members shall be appointed from Eastern Pennsylvania two from Western Pennsylvania and two from other parts of the Commonwealth Two of the six shall be appointed for a two year term two for a four year term and two for a six year term Thereafter appointment shall be for a six year term The Governor shall appoint one member of the Board who shall be a representative of Pennsylvania Department of Secondary School Principals and one member who shall be a representative of Pennsylvania Department of District Superintendents

Section 4 (a) Effective one hundred eighty (180) days after final enactment of this act no private business school or classes shall continue in operation or shall be established within the Commonwealth unless there is first secured from the Board a license issued in such form as the Board shall direct

(b) Effective six months after passage of this act no agent shall engage in solicitation within the Commonwealth unless he shall first be licensed by the Board

(c) The Board shall prescribe rules and regulations for the licensing of agents

Section 5 Before any license is issued to a school a verified application shall be made in writing to the Board on a form prepared and furnished by the Board Such application shall require a statement showing (1) The title or name of the school or classes together with ownership and controlling officers thereof (2) The general field of instruction which will be offered and the purposes of such instruction (3) The place or places where such instruction will be given (4) A specific listing of the equipment available for instruction in each field (5) The qualifications of instructors and supervisors (6) Financial resources available to equip and to maintain the school or classes (7) Such additional information as the Board may deem necessary to enable it to determine the adequacy of the program of instruction and matters pertaining thereto

Section 6 (a) Each original application shall be accompanied by a license fee of fifty dollars ($50) and each application for the renewal of a license shall be accompanied by a license fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) No fee shall be charged for a supplementary application for the approval of additional fields of courses of instruction

(b) All license fees shall be paid into the General Fund in the State Treasury through the Department of Revenue No license fees shall be refunded in the event any license is refused or revoked or for any other reason

Section 7 The Board shall maintain a list of schools and agents licensed under the provisions of this act which shall be available for the information of the public

Section 8 No private business school or class shall be granted a license or shall be permitted to continue to operate under a granted license unless

(1) It shall permit the Board and its supervisors to inspect the school or classes and shall make available to the Board at any time when requested to do so full information pertaining to any or all items of information contained in the application form which currently is provided by the Board to applicants for a license

(2) It shall prominently display the current approved lincense where it may be inspected by students visitors and designated officials of the Board

(3) The advertising and solicitation shall be free from misrepresentations or fraud and shall conform with the rules and regulations of the Board governing such advertising Provided that before any license shall be denied or revoked an opportunity shall be given to the school or class to correct such misrepresentation or fraud and no discipline shall be imposed unless such school or class shall refuse to correct the situation In the event that such school or class disagree with the decision of the Board on such issue it may appeal within thirty (30) days to the common pleas court as provided hereafter and no disciplinary action shall be taken by virtue of such appeal

(4) The premises equipment and conditions of the school or classes shall be adequate safe and sanitary in accordance with standards of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania applicable to such premises and equipment

Section 9 (a) Before the license of any licensee or any registration or any certification is suspended or revoked by the Board a written copy of the complaint made shall be furnished to the licensee registrant or person against whom the same is directed and an opportunity be afforded him to be heard before the Board personally and by counsel At least ten (10) days' written notice of the time and place of such hearing shall be given the licensee registrant or person by registered mail addressed to the post office address as shown on the annual registration or other record or information in possession of the Board

(b) Any person aggrieved by the action of the Board in suspending or revoking a license registration or certification or by any other action of the Board which is alleged to be improper unreasonable or unlawful may appeal from such action of the Board in writing to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County

(c) Appeals from suspensions and revocations of licenses registrations and certifications must be taken within thirty (30) days after such suspension or revocation of which action immediate notice shall be given by the Board to the licensee registrant or person by registered mail addressed as above provided In the case of appeals from other actions of the Board the appeal may be taken at any time by the person aggrieved by such action Such appeal shall automatically act as supersedeas

(d) Appeals shall be taken by serving upon the Board written notice of such appeal together with reasons for such appeal Such service shall be made by filing the said notice of appeal in the office of the Board

(e) Within thirty (30) days after the service of such notice of appeal the Board shall file with the prothonotary of the said court of common pleas a transcript of the record of the procedings Notice of the filing of said transcript with the term and number to which filed shall be forthwith given by the Board to the appellant and as well to the party or parties if any upon whose complaint the proceedings before the Board were instituted The cost of the said transcript at twenty-five cents (25c) per folio and one dollar ($1) for the certification shall be entered as part of the record costs in the cause to be paid as the court may direct

(f) The court upon application by the Board or the appellant shall fix a time and place for hearing at which time or at any adjournment thereof the appeal shall be heard de novo by the judge or judges of the court The appellant shall be entitled to a trial by jury if demanded The court shall affirm the decision of the Board unless it shall find the same is in violation of the constitutional rights of the appellant or is not in accordance with the law or was made upon unlawful procedure or that any finding of fact made by the Board and necessary to support its adjudication is not supported by substantial evidence If the adjudication of the Board is not affirmed the court may set aside or modify it in whole or in part or may remand the proceeding to the Board for further disposition in accordance with the order of court

(g) Either party may appeal from the decision of the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County to the Superior Court Such appeals shall be taken and prosecuted in the same manner and with like effect as is provided by law in other cases of appeal to the Superior Court and the records certified to the Superior Court shall contain all that was before the court of common pleas The decree of the Superior Court shall be final and conclusive

Section 10 Any person who shall operate without being licensed as required by this act or exempted therefrom as provided in this act or shall knowingly give any false or forged evidence of a material kind to the Board in order to obtain a license shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than fifty and not more than five hundred dollars or to undergo imprisonment not more than one year or both If the violation shall be by a corporation partnership or association the officers of such corporation or members of such partnership or association with guilty knowledge of the fact shall also be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished as hereinbefore provided

Section 11 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Appropriations for the purpose of further study.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 792, as follows:

An Act to further amend section two thousand one hundred one and two thousand one hundred seven of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" by further providing for the meetings of teachers of public schools under the jurisdiction of the county superintendent authorizing instructional courses for such teachers upon approval of the county board of school directors and increasing the amount of expenses for teachers' meetings or instructional courses to be paid by the county treasurer

Section 1 Section two thousand one hundred one of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" as added by the approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 1152) and as last amended by the act approved the eighteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 1204) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 2101 Each county superintendent shall call the teachers of the public schools under his jurisdiction to assemble for two days or their equivalent each year or for such additional days or parts thereof as may be recommended by the county superintendent and approved by the county board of school directors at such time and place as he may deem most convenient for the purpose of receiving instruction in the science and art of teaching each superintendent may also invite members of the teaching and supervisory staffs of other districts and of institutions of learning within the county to attend such meeting or meetings

Section 2 Section two thousand one hundred seven of said act as added by the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 1152) is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 2107 Upon receipt from a county superintendent of duplicate vouchers and a statement of expenses incurred in the conduct of a teachers' meeting or instructional course as herein provided which has been sworn or affirmed to by the county superintendent [and] approved by the county board of school directors and the auditors of such meeting the county treasurer of the county in which the school districts under the jurisdiction of such county superintendent or the greater or greatest part thereof in area shall be located shall pay out of the county treasury to such county superintendent the amount of such expenses which shall not exceed [two] four hundred dollars [($200.00)] ($400.00)

Section 3 The provisions of this act are severable and if any of its provisions shall be held unconstitutional the decision of the court shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions of this act It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provisions not been included herein

Section 4 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LOVETT. I would like, Mr. Speaker, to have the sponsor explain the bill and what it does.

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, this bill provides for any service furnished by public school teachers of Pennsylvania. It provides for additional instruction with more pay to instructors in those cases where the instruction is more expensive, for such programs as visual education and any other specialized training. It increases the amount of money that the County Treasurer can give for such instruction upon the approval of the County Board of School Directors and the County Superintendent, and in general it is for better Institutes in order to give the children of Pennsylvania better instruction through their teachers.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Adams, Mr. Worley, if he was discussing House Bill 792?

Mr. WORLEY. I was, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. If the gentleman was discussing House Bill 792 he read so many things in the bill that are not there; I really think it would be advisable if we held the bill over until he studies the bill and knows more about it. All this bill does is to increase the amount that is allowed for the County Institute from two hundred dollars to four hundred dollars, and the gentleman doesn't state whether the meetings of the Institute are to be held on daylight savings time or standard time.

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, this bill provides for additional days or parts thereof that may be recommended by the County Superintendent and approved by the County Board of School Directors for any service training or special educational programs for the teachers so that the students will receive better instruction.

I don't care whether it is on daylight or standard time, so long as it is for the benefit of the children of Pennsylvania.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 832, as follows:

A Supplement to the act approved the twenty-fifth day of April one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 299) entitled "An act providing for the establishment in counties of the second class of the lot and block plan for the registration of land titles for the accumulation of county tax liens and for the enumeration of the parcels of real estate to be assessed for county city borough township school and institution district taxation providing for the incurring of indebtedness for the installation thereof and imposing duties upon the county controller and the deed registrar in each of such counties" providing for the use in counties of the second class of the lot and block descriptive number in the making of assessments in the preparation of tax bills and tax receipts in the filing of liens for delinquent taxes and in the sale of real estate for taxes and imposing duties upon certain county officials in second class counties and upon treasurers tax collectors and solicitors of cities boroughs towns townships and school districts in said counties

Section 1 In each county of the second class where the commissioners of said county have heretofore under the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement established the Lot and Block system in the office of the county controller and where the county controller has certified to the commissioners that said system has been completely installed in either the whole of the county or completely installed in one or more municipal subdivisions thereof then the commissioners of said county shall proceed to put said system into effect in the manner hereinafter set forth

Section 2 Immediately upon the receipt of the certification of completion from the county controller the commissioners shall present their petition to the Court of Common Pleas of the county setting forth the establishment of such Lot and Block system the fact of its completion either in the county as a whole or within one or more municipal subdivisions and a brief statement describing the method of operation of the Lot and Block system so established If the court shall determine that the said system has been established in accordance with existing law and has been completed it shall make an order placing the same in effect as of the first Monday of January next succeeding such order

Section 3 The effect of the order of the Court of Common Pleas shall be as follows

(a) The district assessors appointed by the Board of Property Assessment Appeals and Review whose assessments are being made within the municipal subdivisions that have had the Lot and Block system completed therein shall immediately proceed to correct their original books of assessment by adding thereto the Lot and Block system descriptive numbers

(b) The Board of Property Assessment Appeals and Review shall as to assessments already in its hands which assessments are within municipal subdivisions covered by said order or orders of court correct such assessments by adding thereto the Lot and Block system descriptive numbers

(c) The recorder of deeds shall not receive for recording any deed mortgage or other instrument that shall refer to a specific parcel of real estate unless said deed mortage or other instrument shall bear the certification by the custodian of the Lot and Block system that the Lot and Block system descriptive numbers incorporated in the description of the real estate described therein are correct

(d) The treasurer or tax collector of each city borough town township or school district where the Lot and Block system has been completed under the order of court referred to in section two of this supplement shall place upon each tax bill sent out and upon each tax receipt issued upon payment the Lot and Block system descriptive numbers

(e) The county controller in the case of the county and the treasurer tax collector or solicitor as the case may be in each city borough town township or school district within which the Lot and Block system has been completed shall at the time of filing liens for unpaid taxes with the prothonotary set forth on such liens the individual Lot and Block system descriptive numbers and the prothonotary shall not receive and file such liens unless the said descriptive numbers are contained thereon

(f) For the purposes of the sale of real estate for delinquent taxes either by the sheriff of the county or by the commissioners and treasurer of the county or by the treasurer of any city the Lot and Block system descriptive numbers are hereby declared to be sufficient description for the advertising preceding such sale for the oral description read at such sale prior to receiving bids and for the purposes of the description to be inserted in any tax deed to be given to the purchaser at such sale

Section 4 All acts or parts not consistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 5 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 873, entitled:

An Act to repeal the act approved the twenty-eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-three (P. L. 784), entitled "An act prescribing temporary emergency war provisions with respect to the administration of certain provisions of the school laws of this Commonwealth; relating to days for school to be in session; closing schools and suspending classes; temporary assignment and reassignment of teachers; extension of transportation facilities; payment of tuition in lieu of transportation; and granting temporary farm and conservation employment certificates for certain pupils, under certain conditions; providing for full state subsidies when employing teachers holding special wartime certificates; authorizing boards of school directors (or boards of public education), subject to the approval of the district or county superintendent, to put such provisions into operation."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I wonder if I might ask the sponsor of the bill to explain what this bill does.

Mr. STOCKHAM. Mr. Speaker, this bill is a repealer, repealing the temporary war conditions for teachers' certificates.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, we understand from all of the cities that teachers are very scarce in Pennsylvania. We have a lot of people teaching now without certificates. I just wonder what we are going to do about it—about filling vacancies when you discontinue these certificates.

Mr. STOCKHAM. I believe, Mr. Speaker, that this was a war measure. It is intended to restore the competency requirements in the schools of the Commonwealth and its purpose it to clarify the discrepancies wherever they may be.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, do I understand the gentleman to say that providing you pass this bill all teachers now working under these temporary certificates will be dismissed?

Mr. STOCKHAM. I believe that this bill repeals the act that created the emergency, and consequently that would follow.

Mr. LOVETT. Does the gentleman think, Mr. Speaker, that the emergency is now over due to the fact that we have a scarcity of teachers in Pennsylvania?

Mr. STOCKHAM. Mr. Speaker, it is as of June 1948, that the suspension takes place.

Mr. LOVETT. May I ask the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, if we will have another special session of the Legislature between now and June 1948?

Mr. STOCKHAM. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Westmoreland whether he expects another session before 1949?

Mr. LOVETT. I expect one, Mr. Speaker, but I don't know whether I am going to get it.

Mr. Speaker, I feel that due to the fact that the emergency is still here and we do not have sufficient teachers that we should not pass this bill at this time. I ask that the bill go over in its order so that we may be able to give it some consideration, and find out whether or not I am correct when I say that the emergency is still here in regard to teachers. I ask that the bill go over in order.

Mr. STOCKHAM. Mr. Speaker, there is no reason that I can see for this bill's going over. It clarifys the situation and is effective as of June 1948.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, if the Chairman of the Education committee is now in the House I would like to interrogate him.

The SPEAKER. Is the Chairman of the Education committee in the House?

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I understand that he is readily available. If the gentleman desires to pass this bill over temporarily for a later time to-day we will try to reach him for you.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent for the Chair to withdraw its decision that the House has agreed to the bill on third reading? The Chair hears no objection and consent is granted.

BILL PASSED OVER

The SPEAKER. This bill will be passed over temporarily and will be taken up later in the afternoon if there is no objection. The Chair hears none, and the bill is passed over.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 876, as follows:

An Act empowering all corporations incorporated under the laws of the State of Pennsylvania for purposes not for profit to change alter and amend by-laws such provisions of their charters as are purely administrative and validating such changes alterations and amendments heretofore made

Section 1 All corporations within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania incorporated for purposes not for profit under any general or special law of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania prior to the third day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-three have and shall have the right by by-laws to change alter and amend such provisions of their charters as are purely administrative in their nature any limitations contained in the charters of such corporations to the contrary notwithstanding

Section 2 All by-laws heretofore adopted making any such change alteration or amendment and the changes alterations and amendments so made are hereby ratified confirmed and made to the same extent as though the same had been previously by law

Section 3 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 887, as follows:

An Act relating to the regulation of rates for insurance which may be written by stock or mutual casualty insurance companies associations or exchanges including fidelity surety and guaranty bonds and all other forms of motor vehicle insurance and title insurance to rating and advisory organizations conferring on the Insurance Commissioner the power and duty of supervising and regulating persons associations companies and corporations and of enforcing the provisions of this act prescribing and regulating the practice and precedure before the commissioner and procedure for review by the courts giving the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County exclusive jurisdiction over certain proceedings prescribing penalties and providing for enforcement thereof and repealing inconsistent acts

Section 1 Purpose of Act The purpose of this act is to promote the public welfare by regulating insurance rates to the end that they shall not be excessive inadequate or unfairly discriminatory to enable authorized insurers to meet all requirements of the insuring public of this Commonwealth and to authorize and regulate cooperative action among insurers in rate making and in other matters within the scope of this act Nothing in this act is intended (1) to prohibit or discourage reasonable competition or (2) to prohibit or encourage uniformity in insurance rates rating systems rating plans or practices This act shall be liberally interpreted to carry into effect its purpose as herein set forth

Section 2 Scope of Act This act applies to all classes and kinds of insurance which may be written by stock or mutual casualty insurance companies associations or exchanges and including fidelity surety and guaranty bonds and all forms of motor vehicle insurance and to title insurance on risks or operations in this Commonwealth except

(a) reinsurance other than joint reinsurance to the extent stated in section eleven

(b) accident and health insurance

(c) insurance against loss of or damage to aircraft or against liability arising out of the ownership maintenance or use of aircraft

(d) workman's compensation insurance

(e) excess insurance covering loss in excess of at least ten thousand dollars ($10,000) from any one event issued to self-insurers where the rate is not made by a rating organization

If any kind of insurance subdivision or combination thereof or type of coverage subject to this act is also subject to regulation by another rate regulatory act of this Commonwealth an insurer to which both rates are otherwise applicable shall file with the Insurance Commissioner hereinafter referred to as commissioner a designation as to which rate regulatory act shall be applicable to it with respect to such kind of insurance or combination thereof or type of coverage

Section 3 Making of Rates All rates shall be made in accordance with the following provisions

(a) Due consideration shall be given to past and prospective loss experience within and outside this Commonwealth to physical hazards to safety and loss prevention factors to underwriting practice and judgment to the extent appropriate to catastrophe hazards if any to a reasonable margin for underwriting profit and contingencies to dividends savings or unabsorbed premium deposits allowed or returned by insurers to their policyholders members or subscribers to past and prospective expenses both country wide and those specially applicable to this Commonwealth and to all other relevant factors within and outside this Commonwealth

(b) The systems of expense provisions included in the rates for use by any insurer or group of insurers may differ from those of other insurers or group of insurers to reflect the requirements of the operating methods of any such insurer or group with respect to any kind of insurance or with respect to any subdivision or combination thereof for which subdivision or combination separate provisions are applicable

(c) Risks may be grouped by classifications for the establishment of rates and minimum premiums Classification rates may be modified to produce rates for individual risks in accordance with rating plans which establish standards for measuring variations in hazards or expense provisions or both Such standards may measure any differences among risks that can be demonstrated to have a probable effect upon losses or expenses

(d) Rates shall not be excessive inadequate or unfairly discriminatory between risks involving identical rate making factors

Section 4 Rate Filings

(a) Every insurer shall file with the commissioner every manual of classifications rules and rates every rating plan and every modification of any of the foregoing which it proposes to use Every such filing shall state the proposed effective date thereof and shall indicate the character and extent of the coverage contemplated When a filing is not accompanied by the information upon which the insurer supports such filing and the commissioner does not have sufficient information to determine whether such filing meets the requirements of the act he may require such insurer to furnish the information upon which it supports such filing Any filing may be supported by (1) the experience or judgment of the insurer or rating organization making the filing (2) the experience of other insurers or rating organizations or (3) any other factors which the insurer or rating organization deems relevant A filing and any supporting information shall be open to public inspection after the filing becomes effective

(b) An insurer may satisfy its obligation to make such filings by becoming a member of or a subscriber to a licensed rating organization which makes usch filings and by authorizing the commissioner to accept such filings on its behalf Provided nothing contained in this act shall be construed as requiring any insurer to become a member of or a subscriber to any rating organization

(c) The commissioner shall review such of the filings as it may be necessary to review in order to carry out the purposes of this act

(d) Subject to the exception specified in subsection (e) of this section each filing shall be on file for a waiting period of thirty (30) days before it becomes effective which period may be extended by the commissioner for an additional period not to exceed thirty (30) days upon written notice within such waiting period to the insurer or rating organization which made the filing Upon written application by such insurer or rating organization the commissioner may authorize a filing or a part thereof

which he has reviewed to become effective before the expiration of the waiting period or any extension thereof A filing shall be deemed to meet the requirements of this act and to become effective unless disapproved as hereinafter provided by the commissioner within the waiting period or any extension thereof

(e) Any special filing with respect to a contrast or policy covering a risk involving rate making factors not contemplated in previous filings shall become effective when filed and shall be deemed to meet the requirements of this act until such time as the commissioner reviews the filing and so long thereafter as the filing remains in effect

(f) Under such rules and regulations as he shall adopt the commissioner may by written order suspend or modify the requirements of filing as to any kind of insurance subdivision or combination thereof os as to classes of risks the rates for which cannot practicably be filed before they are used Such orders rules and requlations shall be made known to insurers and rating organizations affected thereby The commissioner may make such examination as he may deem advisable to ascertain whether any rates affected by such order meet the standards set forth in subsection (d) of section three

(g) Upon the written consent of the insured stating his reasons therefor filed with and approved by the commissioner a rate in excess of that provided by a filing otherwise applicable may be used on any specific risk The rate shall become effective when such consent is filed and shall be deemed to meet the requirements of this act until such time as the commissioner reviews the filing and so long thereafter as the filing remains in effect

(h) Beginning ninety (90) days after the effective date of this act no insurer shall make or issue a contract or policy except in accordance with filings or rates which are in effect for said insurer as provided in this act or in accordance with subsections (f) or (g) of this section

Section 5 Disapproval of Filings

(a) Upon the review at any time by the commissioner of a filing he shall before isuing an order of disapproval hold a hearing upon not less than ten (10) days' written notice specifying the matters to be considered at such hearing to every insurer and rating organization which made such filing and if after such hearing he finds that such filing or a part thereof does not meet the requirements of this act he shall issue an order specifying in what respect he finds that it so fails and stating when within a reasonable period thereafter such filing or a part thereof shall be deemed no longer effective if the filing or a part thereof has become effective under the provisions of section four Provided however That an insurer or rating organization shall have the right at any time to withdraw a filing or a part thereof subject to the provisions of section seven in the case of a deviation filing Copies of said order shall be sent to every insurer and rating organization Said order shall not affect any contrast or policy made or issued prior to the expiration of the period set forth in said order

(b) Any person or organization aggrieved with respect to any filing which in effect may make written application to the commissioner for a hearing thereon Provided however That the insurer or rating organization that made the filing shall not be authorized toproceed under this subsection Such application shall specify the grounds to be relied upon by the applicant If the commissioner shall find that the application is made in good faith that the applicant would be so aggrieved if his grounds are established and that such grounds otherwise justify holding such a hearing he shall within thirty (30) days after receipt of such application hold a hearing upon not less than ten (10) days' written notice to the applicant and to every insurer and rating organization which made such filing

If after such hearing the commissioner finds that the filing or a part thereof does not meet the requirements of this act he shall issue an order specifying in what respects he finds that such filing or a part thereof fails to meet the requirements of this act and stating when within a reasonable period thereafter such filing or a part thereof shall be deemed no longer effective Copies of said order shall be sent to the applicant and to every such insurer and rating organization Said order shall not affect any contrast or policy made or issued prior to the expiration of the period set forth in said order

(c) No filing nor any modification thereof shall be disaproved if the rates in connection therewith meet the requirements of this act

Section 6 Rating Organizations

(a) A corporation an unincorporated association a partnership or an individual whether located within or outside this Commonwealth may make application to the commissioner for license as a rating organization for such kinds of insurance or subdivisions thereof as are specified in its application and shall file therewith (1) a copy of its constitution its articles of agreement or association or its certificate of incorporation and of its by-laws rules and regulations governing the conduct of its business (2) a list of its members and subscribers (3) the name and address of this Commonwealth upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or precess affecting such rating organization may be served and (4) a statement of its qualifications as a rating organization If the commissioner finds that the applicant is competent trustworthy and otherwise qualified to act as a rating organization and that its constitution articles of agreement or association or certificate of incorporation and its by-laws and regulations governing the conduct of its business conform to the requirements of law he shall issue a license specifying the kinds of insurance or subdivisions thereof for which the applicant is authorized to act as a rating organization Every such application shall be granted or denied in whole or in part by the commissioner within sixty (60) days of the date of its filing with him Licenses issued pursuant to this section shall remain in effect for three (3) years unless sooner suspended or revoked by the commissioner The fee for said license shall be twenty-five dollars ($25) Licenses issued pursuant to this section may be suspended or revoked by the commissioner after hearing upon notice in the event the rating organization ceases to meet the requirements of this subsection Every rating organization shall notify the commissioner promptly of every change in (1) its constitution its articles of agreement or association or its certificate of incorporation and its by-laws rules and regulations governing the conduct of its business (2) its list of members and subscribers and (3) the name and address of the resident of this Commonwealth designated by it upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or process affecting such rating organization may be served

(b) Subject to rules and regulations which have been approved by the commissioner as reasonable each rating organization shall permit any insurer not a member to be a subscriber to its rating services for any kind of insurance or subdivision thereof for which it is authorized to act as a rating organization Notice of proposed changes in such rules and regulations shall be given to subscribers Each rating organization shall furnish its rating services without discrimination to its members and subscribers The reasonableness of any rule or regulation in its application to subscribers or the refusal of any rating organization to admit an insurer as a subscriber shall at the request of any subscriber or any such insurer be reviewed by the commissioner at a hearing held upon at least ten days' written notice to such rating organization and to such subscriber or insurer If the commissioner finds that such rule or regulation is unreasonable in its application to subscribers he shall order that such rule or regulation shall not be aplicable to subscribers If the rating organization fails to grant or reject an insurer's application for subscribership within thirty (40) days after it was made the insurer may request a review by the commissioner as if the application had been rejected If the commissioner finds that the insurer has been refused admittance to the rating organization as a subscriber without justification he shall order the rating organization to admit the insurer as a subscriber If he finds that the action of the rating organization was justified he shall make an order affirming its action

(c) No rating organization shall adopt any rule the effect of which would be to prohibit or regulate the payment of dividends savings or unabsorbed premium deposits allowed or returned by insurers to their policyholders members or subscribers

(d) No rating organization shall refuse to rate in accordance with this act or to file any proposed change in or addition to its filings relating to the character and extent of coverage provided that such organization may make such filing on behalf of the proponent thereof only

(e) Cooperation among rating organizations or among rating organizations and insurers and concert of action among insurers under the same general management and control in rate making or in other matters within the scope of this act is hereby authorized provided the filings resulting therefrom are subject to all the provisions of this act which are applicable to filings generally The commissioner may review such activities and practices and if after a hearing he finds that any such activity or practice is unfair or unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this act he may issue a written order specifying in what respects such activity or practice is unfair or unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this act and requiring the discontinuance of such activity or practice

Section 7 Deviations Every member of or subscriber to a rating organization shall adhere to the filings made on its behalf by such organization except that any such insurer may file with the commissioner a uniform percentage decrease or increase to be applied to the premiums produced by the rating system so filed for a kind of insurance or for a class of insurance which is found by the commissioner to be a proper rating unit for the application of such uniform percentage decrease or increase or for a subdivision of a kind of insurance (1) comprised of a group of manual classifications which is treated as a separate unit for rate making purposes or (2) for which separate expense provisions are included in the filings of the rating organization Such deviation filing shall specify the basis for the modification and shall be accompanied by the data upon which the applicant relies A copy of the filing and data shall be sent simultaneously to such rating organization Any such deviation filing shall be on file for a waiting period of thirty (30) days before it becomes effective and shall be subject to the provisions of section five Each deviation shall be effective for a period of not less than one (1) year from the date such deviation is filed unless terminated sooner with the approval of the commissioner or in accordance with the provisions of section five

Section 8 Appeal by Minority Any member of or subscriber to a rating organization may appeal to the commissioner from the action or decision of such rating organization in the promulgation of rates or with regard to any proposed change in or addition to the filings of such rating organization and the commissioner shall after a hearing held upon not less than ten (10) days' written notice to the appellant and to such rating organization issue an order approving or disapproving the action or decision of such rating organization Provided however That if the appeal is from the action of the rating organization with regard to a rate on a proposed change in or addition to its filings he shall approve the rate applied by the rating organization or such rate as may be suggested by the appellant if either rate be in accordance with this act

If such appeal is based upon the failure of the rating organization to make a filing on behalf of such member or subscriber which is based on a system of expense provisions which differs in accordance with the right granted in subsection (b) of section three from the system of expense provisions included in a filing made by the rating organization the commissioner shall if he grants the appeal order the rating organization to make the requested filing for use by the appellant In deciding such appeal the commissioner shall apply the standards set forth in section three

Section 9 Information to be Furnished Insureds Hearings and Appeals of Insureds Every rating organization and every insurer which makes its own rates shall within a reasonable time after receiving written request therefor and upon payment of such reasonable charge as it may make furnish to any insured affected by a rate made by it or to the authorized representative of such insured all pertinent information as to such rate

Every rating organization and every insurer which makes its own rates shall provide within this Commonwealth reasonable means whereby any person aggrieved by the application of its rating system may be heard in person or by his authorized representative on his written request to review the manner in which such rating system has been applied in connection with the insurance afforded him If the rating organization or insurer fails to grant or reject such request within thirty (30) days after it is made the applicant may proceed in the same manner as if his application had been rejected Any party affected by the action of such rating organizations or such insurer on such request may within thirty (30) days after written notice of such action appeal to the commissioner who after a hearing held upon not less than ten days' written notice of the appellant and to such rating organization or insurer may affirm or reverse such action

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 888, as follows:

An Act relating to the regulation of rates for insurance which may be written by stock or mutual fire marine or fire and marine insurance companies associations or exchanges to rating and advisory organizations to reports by rating organizations and insurers to the Pennsylvania State Police conferring on the Insurance Commissioner the power and duty of supervising and regulating persons associations companies and corporations and of enforcing the provisions of this act prescribing and regulating the practice and procedure before the commissioner and procedure for review by the courts giving the court of common pleas of Dauphin County exclusive jurisdiction over certain proceedings prescribing penalties and providing for enforcement thereof and repealing inconsistent acts

Section 1 Purpose of Act The purpose of this act is to promote the public welfare by regulating insurance rates to the end that they shall not be excessive inadequate or unfairly discriminatory to enable authorized insurers to meet all requirements of the insuring public of this Commonwealth and to authorize and regulate cooperative action among insurers in rate making and in other matters within the scope of this act Nothing in this act is intended (1) to prohibit or discourage reasonable competition or (2) to prohibit or encourage uniformity in insurance rates rating systems rating plans or practices This act shall be liberally interpreted to carry into effect its purposes as herein set forth

Section 2 Scope of Act This act applies to all classes and kinds of nsurance whch may be wrtten by stock or mutual fire marine or fire and marine insurance companies associations or exchanges on risks located in this Commonwealth Inland marine insurance shall be deemed to include insurance now or hereafter defined by statute or by interpretation thereof or if not so defined or interpreted by ruling of the Insurance Commissioner hereinafter referred to as commissioner or as established by general custom of the business as inland marine insurance

This act shall apply

(a) To reinsurance other than joint reinsurance to the extent stated in section eleven

(b) To insurance of vessels or craft their cargoes marine builders' risk marine protection and indemnity or other risks commonly insured under marine as distinguished from inland marine insurance policies

(c) To insurance of hulls of aircraft including their accessories and equipment or against liability arising out of the ownership maintenance or use of aircraft

(d) To motor vehicle insurance not to insurance against liability arising out of the ownership maintenance or use of motor vehicles

(e) To perpetual policies of insurance issued in consideration of an initial deposit of moneys with the insurer to be held by it during the time such policies are in force and to be returned to the insureds in whole or in part upon cancellation of the policies

(f) To insurance written on an assessment basis by a mutual insurance company However insurance written on an assessment basis may be subjected to the provisions of this act by the company filing with the insurance commissioner an agreement subjecting such insurance to the provisions of this act

If any kind of insurance subdivision or combination thereof or type of coverage subject to this act is also subject to regulation by another rate regulatory act of this Commonwealth an insurer to which both acts are otherwise applicable shall file with the commissioner a designation as to which rate regulatory act shall be applicable to it with respect to such kind of insurance subdivision or combination thereof or type of coverage

Section 3 Making of Rates (a) Rates shall be made in accordance with the following provisions

(1) Manual minimum class rates rating schedules or rating plans shall be made and adopted except in the case of specific inland marine rates on risks specially rated and except in the case of special rates on other than inland marine risks where manual minimum class rates rating schedules or rating plans are not readily adaptable

(2) Rates shall not be excessive inadequate or unfairly discriminatory between risks involving essentially the same rate making factors

(3) Due consideration shall be given to past and prospective loss experience within and outside this Commonwealth to physcal hazards to safety and loss prevention factors to underwriting practice and judgment to the extent appropriate to the conflagration and catastrophe hazards to a reasonable margin for underwriting profit and contingencies to dividends savings or unabsorbed premium deposits allowed or returned by insurers to their policyholders members or subscribers to past and prospective expenses both countrywide and those specially applicable to this Commonwealth and to all other relevant factors within and outside this Commonwealth and in the case of fire insurance rates consideration shall be given to the experience of the fire insurance business during a period of not less than the most recent five year period for which such experience is available

(b) Rates made in accordance with this section may be used subject to the provisions of this act

Section 4 Rate Filings (a) Every insurer shall file with the commissioner except as to inland marine risks whch by general custom of the business are not written according to manual rates or rating plans every manual minimum class rate rating schedule or rating plan every other rating rule and every modificaton of any of the foregoing which it proposes to use and shall file every special rate on other than inland marine risks as mentioned in section three (a) (1) which it uses Every such filing shall state the proposed effective date thereof and shall indicate the character and extent of the coverage contemplated When a filing is not accompanied by the information upon which the insurer supports such filing and the commissioner does not have sufficient information to determine whether such filing meets the requirements of the act he may require such insurer to furnish the information upon which it supports such filing Any filing may be supported by (1) the experience or judgment of the insurer or rating organization making the filing (2) the experience of other insurers or rating organizations or (3) any other factors which the insurer or rating organization deems relevant A filing and any supporting information shall be open to public inspection after the filing becomes effective Specific inland marine rates on risks specially rated made by a rating organization shall be filed with the commissioner

(b) An insurer may satisfy its obligation to make such filings by becoming a member of or a subscriber to a licensed rating organization which makes such filings and by authorizing the commissoner to accept such filings on its behalf Provided That nothing contained in this act shall be construed as requiring any insurer to become a member of or a subscriber to any rating organization

(c) The commissioner shall review such of the filings as it may be necessary to review in order to carry out the purposes of this act

(d) Subject to the exceptions specified in subsections (e) and (f) of this section each filing shall be on file for a waiting period of thirty days before it becomes effective which period may be extended by the commissioner for an additional period not to exceed thirty days upon written notice within such waiting period to the insurer or rating organization which made the filing Upon wrtten application by such insurer or rating organization the commissioner may authorize a filing or a part thereof which he has reviewed to become effective before the expiration of the waiting period or any extension thereof A filing shall be deemed to meet the requirements of this act and to become effective unless disapproved as hereinafter provided by the commissioner within the waiting period or any extension thereof

(e) Specific inland marine rates on risks specially rated by a rating organization shall become effective when filed and shall be deemed to meet the requirements of this act until such time as the commissioner reviews the filing and so long thereafter as the filing remains in effect

(f) Any special rate mentioned in section three (a) (1) on a contract or policy covering other than inland marine risks shall be deemed to meet the requirements of this act until such time as the commissioner reviews the filing and so long thereafter as the filing remains in effect

(g) Under such rules and regulations as he shall adopt the commissioner may be written order suspend or modify the requirement of filing as to any kind of insurance subdivision or combination thereof or as to classes of risks the rates for which cannot practicably be filed before they are used Such orders rules and regulations shall be made known to insurers and rating organizations affected thereby The commissioner may make such examination as he may deem advisable to ascertain whether any rates affected by such order meet the standards set forth n subdivision (2) of subsection (a) of section three

(h) Upon the written consent of the insured stating his reasons therefor filed with and approved by the commissioner a rate in excess of that provided by a filing otherwise applicable may be used on any specific risk The rate shall become effective when such consent is filed and shall be deemed to meet the requirements of this act until such time as the commissioner reviews the filing and so long thereafter as the filing remains in effect

(i) Beginning ninety days after the effective date of this act no insurer shall make or issue a contract or policy except in accordance with the filings or rates which are in effect for said insurer as provided in this act or in accordance with subsections (g) or (h) of this section This subsection shall not apply to contracts or policies for inland marine risks as to which filings are not required

Section 5 Disapproval of Filings (a) Upon the review at any time by the commissioner of a filing he shall before issuing an order of disapproval hold a hearing upon not less than ten days' written notice specifying the matters to be considered at such hearing to every insurer and rating organization which made such filing and if after such hearing he finds that such filing or a part thereof does not meet the requirements of this act he shall issue an order specifying in what respects he finds that it so fails and stating when within a reasonable period thereafter such filing or a part thereof shall be deemed no longer effective if the filing or a part thereof has become effective under the provisions of section four Provided however an insurer or rating organization shall have the right at any time to withdraw a filing or a part thereof subject to the provisions of section seven in the case of a deviation filing Copies of said order shall be sent to every such insurer and rating organization Said order shall not affect any contract or policy made or ssued prior to the expira of the period set forth in said order

(b) Any person or organization aggrieved with respect to any filing which is in effect may make written application to the commission for a hearing thereon Provided

however the insurer or rating organization that made the filing shall not be authorized to proceed under this subsection Such application shall specify the grounds to be relied upon by the applicant If the commissioner shall find that the application is made in good faith that the applicant would be so aggrieved if his grounds are established and that such grounds otherwise justify holding such a hearing he shall within thirty days after receipt of such application hold a hearing upon not less than ten days' written notice to the applicant and to every insurer and rating organization which made such filing

If after such hearing the commissioner finds that the filng or a part thereof does not meet the requirements of this act he shall issue an order specifying in what respects he finds such filing or a part thereof fails to meet the requirements of this act and stating when within a reasonable period thereafter such filing or a part thereof shall be deemed no longer effective Copies of said order shall be sent to the applicant and to every such insurer and rating organization Said order shall not affect any contract or policy made or issued prior to the expiration of the period set forth in said order

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order.

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 897, as follows:

An Act to further amend the act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (P. L. 682) entitled "An act relating to insurance amending revising and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies and the regulation supervision and protection of home and and foreign insurance companies Lloyds associations reciprocal and inter-surance exchanges and fire insurance rating bureaus and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies associations and exchanges including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund providing penalties and repealing existing laws" excluding from the provisions thereof fire rating bureaus revising the provisions relating to discrimination and the penalties therefor and relating to reports by subscribers to reciprocals and inter-insurance exchanges

Section 1 Section one hundred three of the act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (P. L. 682) entitled "An act relating to insurance amending revising and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies and the regulation supervision and protection of home and foreign insurance companies Lloyds associations reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges and fire insurance rating bureaus and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies associations and exchanges including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund providing penalties and repealing existing laws" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 103 Scope of Act Except as in this act otherwise provided to provisions of this act in so far as they are applicable shall apply (a) To all domestic insurance companies incorporated under the provisions of this act (b) to all domestic insurance companies incorporated under general or special laws since the thirteenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven (c) to all domestic insurance companies heretofore incorporated which have accepted the provisions of the Constitution and the general insurance laws enacted since the thirteenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven (d) to all domestic insurance companies incorporated under any general or special law prior to the thirteenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven which by the terms of their charters or the acts under which they were incorporated hold charters subject to alteration or revocation (e) to all other domestic insurance companies incorporated by general or special law prior to the thirteenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven which accept the provisions of this act as hereinafter provided (f) to all foreign insurance companies doing business in this Commonwealth and (g) to all domestic and foreign associations and exchanges doing insurance business in this Commonwealth [and (h) to all domestic and foreign fire rating bureaus doing business in this Commonwealth]

All insurance companies to which this act applies and which have the required capital and reserve may transact any one or more of the classes of insurance authorized by section two hundred and two (202) of this act in the same manner and to the same extent as insurance companies incorporated under the provisions of this act

No insurance company heretofore created and to which this act applies shall be deprived of any right which it enjoys under its charter to engage in any business other than insurance Nothing in this act shall be construed to interfere with the charter provisions or operations of any domestic mutual fire insurance company heretofore organized under any general or special law of this Commonwealth

Section 2 Section three hundred fifty-three of said act as added by the act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 904) is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 353 Unfair [Discrimination] Unfair Discrimination Prohibited Discrimination between individuals of the same class in the amount of permiums or rates charged for any policy of life health and accident [personal liability or casualty] insurance [except fidelity or surety bonds] covered by this act and any other lines and kinds of insurance not within the scope of The Fire Marine and Inland Marine Regulatory Act and The Casualty and Surety Rate Regulatory Act or in the benefits payable thereon or in any of the terms or conditions of such policy or in any other manner whatsoever is prohibited

Any person corporation insurance company association or exchange that shall either as principal or agent issue or cause to be issued any policy or contract of insurance within this Commonwealth contrary to this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500.00)

Upon satisfactory evidence of the violation of this section by any such person corporation insurance company association or exchange the Insurance Commissioner may in his discretion pursue any one or more of the following courses of action (1) Suspend or revoke the license of such offending person corporation insurance company association or exchange (2) refuse for a period of not to exceed one year thereafter to issue a new license to such person corporation insurance company association or exchange (3) impose a penalty of not more than [one thousand] five hundred ($500) dollars for each and every act in violation of this act When the Insurance Commissioner shall take action in any of the ways above recited the person corporation insurance company association or exchange aggrieved may appeal therefrom to the court of common pleas of Dauphin County

Any adjudication of the Insurance Commissioner shall be subject to review in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Agency Law and any amendments thereto

Section 3 Section one thousand seven of said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1007 Reports by Attorney Examinations by Insurance Commissioner Such attorney shall make a report to the Insurance Commissioner for each calendar year on or before the first day of March showing the financial condition of affairs at the office where such contracts are issued and shall furnish such additional information and reports as he may require Such attorney shall not be required to furnish the names and addresses of any subscribers nor the loss ratio of any particular subscriber

The business affairs and assets of such organizations shall be subject to examination by the Insurance Commissioner

Section 4 The provisions of this act shall become effective the first day of October one thousand nine hundred forty-seven

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 908, as follows:

An Act to add four new sections to the act approved the the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (P. L. 682) entitled "An act relating to insurance amending revising and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies and the regulation supervision and protection of home and foreign insurance companies Lloys associations reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges and fire insurance rating bureaus and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies associations and exchanges including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund providing penalties and repealing existing laws" regulating ownership by domestic insurance companies of the capital stock of other insurance companies conferring powers upon the Insurance Commissioner prescribing procedure before the commissioner and on appeal and conferring powers and duties upon the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County

Section 1 The act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (P. L. 682) entitled "An act relating to insurance amending revising and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies and the regulation supervision and protection of home and foreign insurance companies Lloyds association reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges and fire insurance rating bureaus and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies associations and exchanges including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund providing penalties and repealinf existing laws" is hereby amended by adding immediately after section three hundred thirty-seven four new sections to read as follows

Section 337.1 Any domestic insurance company may retain or acquire the whole or any part of the capital stock of other insurance companies provided no insurance company shall by reason of such retention or acquisition of such capital stock conduct its business with the public in a manner which substantially lessens competition or tends to create a monopoly and provided further such retention or acquisition is consistent with the provisions of the law relating to the investment of the funds of domestic insurance companies

Section 337.2 Any person otherwise qualified may be a director of two or more insurance companies when such interlocking directorate is not used as a means of substantially lessening competition or tending to create a monopoly

Section 337.3 Whenever the Insurance Commissioner has reason to believe that there is a violation of section three hundred thirty-seven point one or section three hundred thirty-seven point two of this act he shall serve upon the insurance company or the director concerned a complaint setting forth the facts alleged to constitute such violation with which complaint there shall be given a notice in writing of a time and place of a hearing before the Insurance Commissioner to be held not less than thirty days after the service of such complaint and requiring such insurance company or director to show cause why an order should not be made by the Insurance Commissioner directing such insurance company or director to cease and desist from such violation

All hearings provided for in this section shall be conducted and the decision of the Insurance Commissioner on the issue involved shall be rendered in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Agency Law approved June fourth one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1388) or any amendment thereof relating to adjudication procedure

If upon such hearing the Insurance Commissioner finds that there has been a violation of section three hundred thirty-seven point one or section three hundred thirty-seven point two of this act he shall issue and cause to be served upon such insurance company or director an order reciting the facts found by him and setting forth the respects in which there has been a violation of section three hundred thirty-seven point one or section three hundred thirty-seven point two of this act and directing such insurance company or director to cease and desist from such violation

Any insurance company or director aggrieved by any such order issued by the Insurance Commissioner under the provisions of this act shall have a right to appeal therefrom to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County and have a judicial review of such order within the time and in the manner and with the same effect as is provided by the Administrative Agency Law or any amendment thereof and the rules of civil procedure promulgated by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania or any amendment thereof having to do with judicial review of adjudications of agencies of the Commonwealth

Section 337.4 Nothing contained in the foregoing three sections shall authorize any order judgment or decree directing any domestic insurance company to divest itself of the capital stock of another insurance company

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective the first day of October one thousand nine hundred forty-seven

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to suggest that the Chairman of the Insurance Committee have read into the record the brief which he has submitted to the House and to do it in connection with this bill.

I want to say with reference to the rating bills that the House has passed that I consider them as one of the notable achievements as far as insurance legislation in Pennsylvania is concerned, and that these bills go to an extent that I have never suspected in insuring to the insured the right that he has had difficulty in maintaining in the past. As I understand it, in the past the humble insured person, if he believed he was being discriminated against, had to try his case before an employe of the insurance company. Now that humblest person who holds insurance, as I read these bills, is entitled to appeal even up to the Commissioner of Insurance.

I want to congratulate the Chairman of the Insurance Committee upon the bills that he has so far submitted for the consideration of this House, and I wish as a matter of record he would read into the record the brief that he has submitted to us.

The SPEAKER. The Chair concurs with what the gentleman from Cambria has just stated.

Mr. KLINE. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent of the House to have the present brief which I have had prepared printed in the Legislative Journal.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Kline, asks permission for the brief which has been prepared as an explanation to the series of insurance bills being passed, to be made a part of the record and printed in the Legislative Journal. The Chair hears no objection and permission is granted.

(Brief on Insurance Bills)

The purpose of Insurance Bills, House 887, 888, 890, 895, 897, 908, and 910, is to guarantee to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the right to continue to regulate and tax insurance companies doing business in Pennsylvania.

The right of a state to regulate and tax insurance companies doing business in the state was repeatedly recognized by the Supreme Court of the United States in a long list of decisions prior to June 5, 1944. On that date, the Supreme Court of the United States, in the case of United States v. Southeastern Underwriters' Assn., 322 U. S. 533, held that the business of insurance is interstate commerce and hence, subject to regulation by Congress. The effect of this decision was to give to the Federal Government the right to regulate and tax insurance and to make immediately applicable to the insurance business, all Acts which had been previously passed by Congress regulating interstate commerce, even though at the time of their enactment, insurance was not regarded as interstate commerce and hence, not subject to the provisions of the Federal Acts regulating interstate commerce.

Following a study of this "precedent-smashing" decision, Congress on March 9, 1945, enacted Public 15, in which it declared "that the continued regulation and taxation by the several States of the business of insurance is in the public interest." Section 2 (a) of the Act specifically provided that "The business of insurance, and every person engaged therein shall be subject to the laws of the several States which relate to the regulation or taxation of such business" and Section 2 (b) of the Act provides, among other things, that after January 1, 1948, the Sherman Anti-Trust Act, the Clayton Act and the Federal Trade Commission Act "shall be applicable to the business of insurance to the extent that such business is not regulated by State law." Section 3 (a) of the Act provided that until January 1, 1948, the Sherman Act, the Clayton Act, the Federal Trade Commission Act and Robinson-Patman Anti-Discriminatory Act shall not apply to the business of insurance.

In order to guarantee to the States the right to regulate and tax insurance business done in the States, the insurance industry constituted an All-Industry Committee to recommend to the States a pattern of legislation necessary to accomplish this purpose. The suggested pattern of legislation was then studied by the Pennsylvania All-Industry Committee and the House Bills referred to were unanimously agreed upon by the Committee as constituting legislation appropriate to guarantee to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the right to regulate and tax insurance business in Pennsylvania.

It is essential that the suggested Acts be enacted at this Session of the Legislature in order to have such Acts become effective prior to January 1, 1948, within the time limit fixed by Congress for action by the States in order to continue their right to regulate and tax insurance.

The Supreme Court of the United States has already held in Prudential Insurance Co. v. Benjamin, Insurance Commissioner, 328 U. S. 408, that the State of South Carolina has the right to tax foreign life insurance companies doing business in that State as a result of the authority conferred upon States by Public 15.

H. 887 is a Bill providing for the regulation of rates for insurance which may be written by stock or mutual casualty companies, associations or exchanges and conferring upon the Insurance Commissioner the power and duty to supervise and regulate casualty rates. Under existing law, the Insurance Commissioner has no power to supervise or regulate the rates charged by casualty companies in this Commonwealth. In order to meet the requirements of Public Law 15, it is necessary that the Commissioner be given the powers conferred upon him by this proposed Act.

H. 888 The purpose of this Bill is to expand and enlarge upon the powers of the Insurance Commissioner with regard to the regulation of rates for insurance written by stock or mutual fire and marine insurance companies.

Under present law, the Insurance Commissioner has some supervisory powers over the rates charged for fire insurance but the power is limited and is not sufficient in the opinion of counsel for the industry to meet the requirements of Public Law 15.

Therefore, the present Bill expands and enlarges the supervisory and regulatory powers of the Commissioner with regard to the rates charged by fire and marine insurance companies.

H. 887 and H. 888 also are designed to validate rating organizations and concert of action among companies in the establishing of rates and both Bills provide that the rates established, either independently or in concert, shall not be excessive, inadequate or unfairly discriminatory. Both Bills impose a duty on, and give to, the Insurance Commissioner of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania adequate supervisory powers, to the end that the rates charged for insurance within the Commonwealth shall meet all of the requirements of these Bills.

H. 890 amends several sections of the Insurance Department Act of 1921 to make the provisions of this Act applicable to rating organizations which will be set up under H. 887 and H. 888.

H. 895 adds a new section to the Insurance Department Act of 1921 which will validate the payment of commissions to insurance brokers. Under the Robinson-Patman Act, a broker is prohibited from acting on behalf of both the buyer and seller. However, in the business of insurance it is a long established practice that while the broker is the agent of the buyer, he receives as compensation a commission from the seller (the insurance company). Since the Robinson-Patman Act was enacted at a time when it was thought that it did not apply to insurance, it is desirable to authorize the continuation of this well-established principle of insurance business.

H. 897 The purpose of this Bill is to amend several sections of the Insurance Company Act, excluding from the Act the sections which apply to fire rating bureaus since the rating organizations will be governed by H. 887 and H. 888. This Bill also enlarges the application of the discriminations provisions which relate to lines of insurance not subject to regulation under H. 887 and H. 888.

H. 908 The purpose of this Bill is to add four new sections to The Insurance Company Act which will validate the ownership of the capital stock of one insurance company by another insurance company and will authorize a director to be a director in two or more insurance companies. Such stock ownership has been recognized as proper under our present law; the insertion of these new sections validates an existing practice and gives the Insurance Commissioner the right to regulate the ownership and acquisition of the stock of one insurance company by another and to prevent the formation of combinations which would lead to monopoly or restraint of trade.

This Bill is intended to authorize the continuance of practices prohibited by the Clayton Act which was enacted at a time when insurance was not subject to the Clayton Act.

H. 910 The purpose of this Bill is to set up in Pennsylvania a Fair Trade Practices Act which will apply to the business of insurance. Unless this Bill is enacted, the Federal Trade Commission Act will be applicable and the Commonwealth will be deprived of its right to regulate trade practices in the insurance business. The provisions of this Act confer upon the Insurance Commissioner powers similar to those contained in the Federal Trade Commission Act insofar as they apply to the business of insurance. Many, if not all, of the provisions in this Act now appear either in The Insurance Department Act of 1921, The Insurance Company Act of 1921, or the Penal Code but it is felt that to assure the Commonwealth the right to continue to regulate the practices of the insurance business, it is advisable to enact legislation of this character.

Mr. BROWN. I do not, Mr. Speaker, intend to take any of the credit away from the Chairman of the Insurance Committee, but I do think the sponsor of this bill who had the job of inserting these many amendments should stand up and take a bow too. I would like for him to do so, because I have never witnessed so many amendments presented as fast as they were presented in connection with these bills. I think he is entitled to a bow too.

The SPEAKER. The Chair now recognizes the gentleman from Lebanon, Mr. Kurtz.

Mr. KURTZ. Mr. Speaker, I wish to thank the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, for his kind remarks.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the Chair will return to House Bill 873, Printer's No. 306, on page 18 of today's calendar, which was passed over earlier in the session this afternoon.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 873, as follows:

An Act to repeal the act approved the twenty-eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-three (P. L. 784) entitled "An act prescribing temporary emergency war provisions with respect to the administration of certain provisions of the school laws of this Commonwealth relating to days for school to be in session closing schools and suspending classes temporary assignment and reasignment of teachers extension of transportation facilities payment of tuition in lieu of transportation and granting temporary farm and conservation employment certificates for certain pupils under certain conditions providing for full state subsidies when employing teachers holding special wartime certificates authorizing boards of school directors (or boards of public education) subject to the approval of the district or county superintendent to put such provisions into operation"

Section 1 The act approved the twenty-eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-three (P. L. 784) entitled "An act prescribing temporary emergency war provisions with respect to the administration of certain provisions of the school laws of this Commonwealth relating to days for school to be in session closing schools and suspending classes temporary assignment and reassignment of teachers extension of transportation facilities payment of tuition in lieu of transportation and granting temporary farm and conservation employment certificates for certain pupils under certain conditions providing for full state subsidies when employing teachers holding special wartime certificates authorizing boards of school directors (or boards of public education) subject to the approval of the district or county superintendent to put such provisions into operation" is hereby repealed

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective on the thirtieth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-eight

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the Chairman of the Education Committee, the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Sollenberger.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Blair permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, House Bill 873 repeals what was known as the Homsher Bill, does it not?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, would the Chairman of the Education Committee explain in what manner the repeal of this act affects teachers' certification?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, I did not understand the latter part of the gentleman's question.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I was asking in what manner the repeal of this act affects the teachers' certification, temporary certificates that have been issued?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman's question I would say that it affects the teachers' certificates only where the superintendent, whether he be county or district superintendent, has requested the Department of Public Instruction to put its stamp of approval upon a teacher for war emergency only, and that came from the local boards and the county or district superintendent,—that is that request did.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I have the act here. Will the Chairman of the Education Committee accept the statute and tell me in what chapter teachers' certificates appears, the section that deals with it.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Does the gentleman mean so far as the school code is concerned, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. ANDREWS. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, off hand I don't believe I can answer that.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the reason I am asking the question is because the sponsor of the bill stated that this was a measure that was designed to, or in some way did affect the temporary certificates that were issued.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. War certificates, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman accept the statute and tell me the section?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, the bill says here under 1943, Pamphlet Laws 784, the act approved the 28th day of May, Section 1.

Mr. ANDREWS: Mr. Speaker, does not this act provide for the temporary administration of the schools, shortening the term, permitting pupils to work on the farm?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER: Does the gentleman mean the Act of 1943?

Mr. ANDREWS: Yes, Mr. Speaker, the Act of 1943 which we are repealing.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER: It does, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS: Mr. Speaker, was not the purpose of the Act of 1943 actually to secure or to make it possible for the pupils in certain counties to work on the farms instead of going to school? Does this act repeal the provisions not in keeping with the other provisions of the School Code, and I am still asking, will the repeal of this Act in any way diminish the visible supply of teachers after this act becomes effective?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER: Mr. Speaker, not until June 30th, 1948. Of course, we cannot tell after that. This act is not effective until June 30, 1948.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I am still asking under what section of the 1943 act these certificates were issued and for what reason, the repeal of this act affects the teachers' certificates.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER: Mr. Speaker, I will say in answer to the gentleman's question, that I don't know just what he wants me to answer.

I might say that the title to the act reads:

> "Prescribing temporary emergency war provisions with respect to the administration of certain provisions of the school laws of the Commonwealth; relating to days for school to be in session; closing schools and suspending classes; temporary assignment and reassignment of teachers—."

This would only mean that part of the school code that comes under that specific act, that someone referred to as the Homsher Act.

Mr. ANDREWS: Mr. Speaker, would the repeal of this act in any way diminish the visible supply of teachers after June 1st, 1948, and may I ask the gentleman, if it will diminish the supply of teachers, to point to the section of the Act of 1943 which says so.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER: Mr. Speaker, how can we tell whether it is going to diminish the supply of teachers or not. It will so far as the war time emergency certificates are concerned, but we don't know if there are enough teachers going to come in between now and then to supply the demand.

Does that answer the gentleman's question?

Mr. ANDREWS: It does not. I fail to find in this bill the faintest reference to war time emergency certificates. It deals with the administration of schools and does not deal with the emergency certificates.

Perhaps, Mr. Speaker, this matter might be delayed until the Chairman has had an opportunity to read the Act of 1943.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. I guess we will have to do that, Mr. Speaker. I have no answer for what the gentleman is asking me other than this bill.

Mr. ANDREWS: Might I suggest, Mr. Speaker, that we delay action on this bill until the Chairman of the Education Committee has had the opportunity to peruse the Act of 1943?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER: I will have to study that, Mr. Speaker. I still do not understand what Mr. Andrews is trying to say. He knows I cannot answer him. I don't know what to say. The only thing I have to go by is the general School Code.

Mr. O'CONNOR: Mr. Speaker, for the information of the Chairman of the Committee on Education and the Minority Leader I wish to state that the Act of 1943, which this bill proposes to repeal, does not deal with emergency certificates. Before 1943 emergency certificates were granted. I had quite a number of them when I was president of the board of education.

After the war it became necessary to let down the barriers a great deal more in order to get a supply of teachers. That is what Mr. Sollenberger referred to as a war time emergency certificate. By passing this act you will not in any manner affect the granting of emergency teacher's certificates as we did prior to 1943, and I think this is a good bill and should pass.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER: Now, Mr. Speaker, I understand now exactly what Mr. Andrews wanted to know, but up until now I did not. Mr. O'Connor is correct. The School Code is exactly what he said, this is a war time emergency, as far as the war time certificates are concerned which have been granted for several years, but this happens to be an emergency emergency certificate. I understand that is true.

Mr. ANDREWS: I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, I suspected that the explanation might have been a clever way of not letting the farmers out of Lancaster County and Berks County and some of these other counties know that the condition they struggled so valiantly for in 1943 was repealed. I congratulate the gentlemen upon their cleverness.

Mr. O'CONNOR: Mr. Speaker, I find it necessary to take issue with my colleague from Cambria, for whom I thought I was acting as attorney a moment ago, for the simple reason that the repeal of this act would not grant further privileges at this particular time than they now have.

I still believe that the Minority Floor Leader does not thoroughly understand what this bill does, but I renew my statement that is is a good bill.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER: Mr. Speaker, I just wanted to thank the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. O'Connor, for helping Mr. Andrews and myself out of this predicament. Neither understood the other. He is certainly our attorney and I thank him for his kindness.

Mr. LOVETT: Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Sollenberger.

The SPEAKER: Will the gentleman from Blair permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT: Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Blair tell us how many certificates, war emergency certificates—certificates upon certificates, were issued during the war.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER: Mr. Speaker, I would say from the last report I had some three or four thousand. The gentleman is speaking of Pennsylvania now, is he not?

Mr. LOVETT: That is right. I am only interested in Pennsylvania. I haven't gone over to the other states.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER: At least that many, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT: Three or four thousand, did the gentleman say?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman say in 1948 when this act becomes effective, that three or four thousand teachers will be out of positions in Pennsylvania?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER: No, Mr. Speaker, emergency certificates will still be available but war time emergencies will come to an end June 30, 1948, if this bill is enacted into law.

Mr. LOVETT: Do I understand the gentleman then to say, Mr. Speaker, that there will be no certificates affected by this bill—emergency certificates?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Emergency certificates, as we knew them, for several years may not be affected, but as to war time emergency certificates, where the teacher was brought in unprepared, just to fill in, that type of certificate will undoubtedly be declared void and will not be permitted to operate in our local school districts.

Mr. LOVETT: Mr. Speaker, how many are there of those certificates?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER: Mr. Speaker, I don't believe I can answer that. I would say there is something like 4,500 to 5,000 of them all told, and I think it is possible that there are a greater amount of war time emergencies than there are emergencies, because the Department of Public Instruction was trying to keep down the emergency certificates as much as they could until the Act of 1943 came home. Then they were definitely guided by local districts.

Mr. LOVETT: I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, as I understand this act now, after some difficulty in getting it explained, I feel that there is a possibility that we still could get all of the teachers we want under the emergency certificates. The only thing that I was interested in was, I was afraid that due to the way this House has been considering the increased pay for teachers that many more teachers would leave the profession and we would find ourselves without any teachers to teach our children. I now feel that the emergency certificates can still take care of the situation, providing we do something for the teachers with regard to their salaries, and I, therefore, do not oppose this act.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. BROWN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, in my remarks a few minutes ago I committed a grievous error, and the error is against the County of Lehigh. I do not want that error to stand.

I understand that in the preparation of the insurance bills, the co-sponsor, Mr. Stimmel, whose name I did not mention also did yoeman service, and inasmuch as we do not want to take any glory away from any of the sponsors of the bill, and also for the further reason that we do not want to put Lebanon above Lehigh, I would like the House to give a vote of thanks and appreciation to the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Stimmel.

The SPEAKER: I would request the gentleman from Lehigh to arise.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1215, as follows:

A Joint Resolution ratifying the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States relative to the terms of the President of the United States

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby resolves as follows

Section 1 The proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States providing as follows

"Section 1 No person shall be elected to the office of the President more than twice and no person who has held the office of President or acted as President for more than two years of a term to which some other person was elected President shall be elected to the office of the President more than once But this Article shall not apply to any person holding the office of President when this Article was proposed by the Congress and shall not prevent any person who may be holding the office of President or acting as President during the term within which this Article becomes operative from holding the office of President or acting as President during the remainder of such term

"Sec 2 This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years from the date of its submission to the States by the Congress" is hereby ratified by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Section 2 A certified copy of the foregoing resolution shall be forwarded to the Secretary of State of the United States in accordance with section two hundred five of the revised statutes of the United States and also to the President of the United States Senate and the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I had hoped yesterday that because this bill was at the end of the calendar that it would automatically find a place at the head of the calendar today, and it would not be necessary to discuss it after the House had been in session for some hours.

This resolution to ratify a proposed Federal amendment to the Constitution raises one of the most serious problems that this General Assembly has faced. The Constitutional Convention framed a Constitution for the purpose of enabling a number of sovereign states, a number of sovereign commonwealths to work together. The purpose of the Constitution was to form a more perfect union, and that constitution was not hammered out in the course of a day, or a month or a year. It took years to frame it, and when it was framed there were certain principles recognized. There were certain rights that were reserved to the states, and there were certain rights that were reserved to the people. Authority rests with the people; sovereignty rests with the people; it does not rest with Congress, it does not rest with legislatures. In preserving the rights of future generations, the founding fathers were careful to place as few restrictions upon the future as it was possible for them to place. They recognized the fact that they in their day had refused to be governed and controlled by the dead hands of the past, and they accepted as a cardinal principle of our democracy that it was not compatible with the spirit of democracy that they were framing unnecessarily to deny to the people and succeeding generations the right to govern themselves in accordance with their own convictions and in accordance with the needs that they faced.

Now, Mr. Speaker, we are facing perhaps one of the reactions against great men that George Washington aroused. No man was more denounced in his time than George Washington. There were many people who thought he wanted to be King. There were many members of the Constitutional Convention that believed that the President of the United States should be elected by legislatures. There was a fear in the hearts of some of those who were a part of the Constitutional Convention that the people could not be trusted. There were members of the Constitutional Convention who believed that the term of President should be limited to two years. There were members of the Constitutional Convention who believed that a President should be ineligible for reelection. I will not tire you with reading the debate in the Constitutional Convention, but the ultimate decision was that a President should be subject to reelection in accordance with the wishes of the people without any restriction so far as the Constitution is concerned.

Now, I presume that if one particular man had not happened to be elected President four times this resolution would not appear upon our calendar. I am asking in all seriousness whether you want to say to the people who live in the United States in the year 2000 perhaps, that we in our wisdom, in the year 1947 decreed that they are incapable of managing their own affairs, and that, therefore, we had to write into the Constitution a provision that the President was subject to reelection only once. There is no magic in formula two; it is no more magical than three or four. The magic lies in the fact that we have a nation of free people who in the days to come will be at least as capable of determining who they want to elect as President, how many times they want to elect him, as we are in our time.

One of the tragedies of constitutional government, a tragedy that Great Britain has escaped by having an unwritten constitution, lies in the fact that there are always those continually trying to write into the constitution provisions which serve a temporary need, but which can by no stretch of the imagination be policies that have a permanent value.

Throughout the years there has been an encroachment on the one hand by the Federal government upon the rights of the States, and an encroachment on the other hand upon the part of the government and governing bodies upon the rights of the people. So far we have had that contest pretty much in balance, but in every generation there has been that struggle between the central government and the reserved rights to the State; and the struggle between special interests, the passing political interests and the reserved rights of the people.

I am submitting to you, and I am submitting to the lawyers in this Assembly, that just as the states have certain reserved rights that the Federal government has no right to infringe upon, just so the American people have certain reserved rights that this generation has no right to infringe upon, and that this resolution impinges upon the reserved rights of the American people in future generations, and in the name of democracy, which we believe is safe and which will endure, we have no right in our time to bind the hands of those who will live tomorrow.

Mr. SORG: Mr. Speaker, this generation has a perfect right to invoke the very provisions of the Constitutional Convention to which the gentleman referred with so very much respect. This generation has a perfect right to invoke that article of the Constitution which says that under circumstances this particular document can be changed, and particularly does it have the right in this instance because it is not this generation that is doing anything that has not been recognized throughout the years. This generation, in a measure such as this, merely gives legal effect to a long standing tradition, originally established by those who were closest to that Constitutional Convention.

I want to take issue with the gentleman in his remarks where he seems to indicate that there are personalities involved in a measure such as this. This proceeding, as I see it, is not only of the present, but it has a definite philosophy and a theory behind it. The need for it exists only because it does seem to be necessary to give legal effect to those principals that we have long recognized.

The most terse statement on the subject that covers it better, I am sure, than any of us could cover it, does not come from this generation, it comes from the age of the Constitutional Convention; it comes from those who were close to that Convention. We all know of course, the original stand taken by George Washington. We knew that when he took that stand he said he was tired, but of the same era was Thomas Jefferson, and we feel that he furnishes a precedent much more to the purpose or point even than that of George Washington.

Mr. Speaker, Thomas Jefferson states his reasons for declining the offer of a number of Legislatures, or at least the urging a number of Legislatures from different States, to seek a third term. Thomas Jefferson said, and I here quote:

> "That I should lay down my charge at a proper period is as much a duty as to have borne it faithfully. If some termination to the services of the Chief Magistrate be not fixed by the Constitution, or supplied by practice, his office, nominally for years, will, in fact, become for life; and history shows how easily that degenerates into an inheritance. Believing that a representative government, responsible at short periods of election, is that which produces the greatest sum of happiness to mankind, I feel it a duty to do no act which shall essentially impair that principle, and I should unwillingly be the person who, disregarding the sound precedent set by an illustrious predecessor, could furnish the first example of prolongation beyond the second term of office * * * Truth, also, requires me to add that I am sensible to that decline which advancing years brings on; and, feeling their physical, I ought not to doubt their mental effect. Happy if I am the first to perceive and obey this admonition of nature, and to solicit a retreat from cares too great for the wearied faculties of age."

As I have said before we have no measure here arising from this generation. We have only the placing in legal effect that which has long been recognized as true, proper and advisable for many, many years in this country.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire very briefly to respond to the gentleman from Elk, the Majority Leader. The powers that be, or the American people in this generation, under the Constitution would have the right to write into this Constitution a provision that the President can only hold a term for one year. They would have the right to write into the Constitution a provision that they could only hold a term for six months. They would have the right to write into the Constitution a provision that the President should be elected by the Senate. They would have the right to write into the Constitution a provison that the President should be elected by the House of Representatives. I concede all those rights, but no personal conviction upon the part of Thomas Jefferson or anybody else has a right to bind the liberty of action unnecessarily by constitutional enactment, and the gentleman from Elk is lawyer enough to know that through the years that has been the steadfast interpretation of our Constitution by the Supreme Court, that the people of one generation have no right to bind the liberty of action of the people in future generations.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman uses two words. He confuses legal rights with moral obligations. He also uses the word "unnecessarily". Two-thirds of the Senate of the United States, two-thirds of the Members of the House of Representatives of the United States have seen fit, and have declared the necessity to give legal affect to that long continued tradition and have adopted the procedure of submitting the matter to all Legislatures in the United States. We are here now to determine just exactly that very formula, is it "necessary." With that, Mr. Speaker, I leave it entirely to the discretion of the Members of this House.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 51 as follows:

An Act providing for the observance of September fourteenth of each year as National Anthem Day

Whereas, The War of 1812 was fought by the United States of America to maintain its independence as a nation and

Whereas, The support and aid given by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania enabled the nation to emerge triumphant from the conflict and

Whereas, The leadership and valor of the Pennsylvanians in the armed forces resulted in glorious victories upon both land and sea and

Whereas, The inspiration of such conspicuous conduct must be cherished and preserved and

Whereas, The gallantry in combat of those who served is epitomized in our national anthem The Star Spangled Banner and whereas in the crystalline splendor of the national anthem are expressed the ideals that engendered and preserved our Great Nation and this Commonwealth

Section 1 The governor shall annually issue his Proclamation designating and setting apart September fourteenth as National Anthem Day and calling upon the people of the Commonwealth The public schools and other educational institutions the patriotic and veterans' organizations to observe the anniversary of the composition of the Star Spangled Banner during the Battle of Fort McHenry in the War of 1812 with appropriate exercises and otherwise to the end that the memory of the services rendered by the patriots in the armed forces of the United States in that conflict may be perpetuated as exemplified in the national anthem "The Star Spangled Banner"

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 40

Mr. DAVID P. REESE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up House Resolution No. 40, Printer's No. 324.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 10, 1947.

Whereas, The operation of the Administrative Agency Law and the Pennsylvania Register Act, in the form in which they were adopted at the legislative session of 1945, are of questionable value to the Commonwealth and the public; and if they are to be permitted to remain on the statute books, should be carefully studied and revised therefore be it.

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission be hereby requested, during the interim between the present session of the General Assembly and the regular biennial session of 1949, to study the problems of making uniform the practice and procedure before administrative agencies of the State Government and of appeals therefrom, as well as the review of regulations promulgated by such agencies; and to study the problem of publishing all regulations of State agencies in one register, and making their validity contingent on such publications; and to present its recommendations together with drafts of proposed legislation for the consideration of the General Assembly at its next regular session.

RESOLUTION

Mr. KENT offered a resolution which was laid over under the Rules.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1947. 137th of the General Assembly.

Vol. 30. HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 16, 1947. No. 40.

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, April 16, 1947

The Senate met at 2:30 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore (M. Harvey Taylor) in the Chair.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. At this time the Chair wishes to call to the rostrum Senator Walker, from Allegheny County, to preside.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (John M. Walker) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. W. MURRAY YOUNG offered the following prayer:

Almighty and everlasting God, Thou who lovest the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob, let our sacrifice of praise and prayer go up before Thee as sweet incense from off the altar of our hearts of devotion and reverence. May the High Priest of our inmost souls stand before the altar of intercession, within the Sanctum Sanctorum of our better selves, and effect our absolution from false pride, selfishness and arrogance, if of such we are guilty.

Prepare our hearts and minds for the tasks and duties of this day. May this Senatorial Body be aware of the high and holy privileges, responsibilities and compensations afforded it as these gentlemen within the body give attention to details, through careful thought, debate, and other fact-finding; to the end that just and fair decisions may be reached. Bless those of our number who may be ill; also the members of their families who have had laid upon them the weighty hand of affliction. May we be eternally grateful for every good and perfect gift which has come from Thee to us down through the years of our living. In the name of Christ, we pray. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDING OFFICER. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. TALLMAN and Mr. MALLERY, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 218, entitled:

An Act to further amend the first paragraph of section nine hundred seventy-six of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1333) entitled "An act concerning elections including general municipal special and primary elections the nomination of candidates primary and election expenses and election contests creating and defining membership of county boards of elections imposing duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth courts county boards of elections county commissioners imposing penalties for violation of the act and codifying revising and consolidating the laws relating thereto and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to elections" by further providing procedure for rejection of nomination petitions papers or certificates

And said bill having been read at length the second time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of Senate Bill 218.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FARRELL. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, if you should pass this bill, do you not think it will have a tendency to weaken the election code in the Commonwealth?

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, I would say this strengthens the election code.

Mr. BARR. Well, Mr. President, I want to ask the same question again: do you not think passage of this bill will weaken the election code?

Mr. FARRELL. No, I do not, Mr. President; I think it will strengthen the election code.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I do not think this bill should even have been allowed to go on the calendar. This seems to invite, in my opinion, fradulent petitions in this Commonwealth. In the election last year that question came up, if I remember correctly, in the early primary days, when there was a fake petition presented to the Secretary of the Commonwealth for judges at that time running for the Superior Court and the thing went by for ten days. I am not going to mention anybody's name who was back of that petition because one member of the Senate happened to be.

If this bill is allowed to go through, in my opinion, with the petitions that will be in the Secretary of the Commonwealth's office, each political party will have to have a battery of lawyers there continually.

MOTION THAT SENATE BILL 218 BE RE-COMMITTED TO COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I at this time move that Senate Bill 218 be re-committed to the Committee on Elections.

Mr. DENT. I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion.

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, in answer to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, may I say that the reason for this amendment was that under the law the county board of elections and the Secretary of the Commonwealth were charged with the duty of determining whether signatures were genuine or not and, not being handwriting experts, it was an almost impossible duty to perform and they might get into considerable trouble if they did not do it. As a practical matter, with millions of signatures, it can not be done.

There is another section of the election code where, if you think there is anything wrong with a signature, you can file a petition and test the genuineness of the signature, and that is not being changed by this bill.

This bill takes care of a situation where signatures are patently fradulent and this very amendment was drafted by Senator Rosenfeld, a Democrat from Philadelphia County, and there were no votes against it being reported from committee. The public is perfectly well protected under this bill as now amended.

Mr. RAHAUSER. The law, as I understand it to be, presumes that the signatures are genuine and it places no burden upon the county officials, the way it presently is, and the amendment proposed would take away from the election officials the due care that is required, it would destroy the necessary good faith that is required of our election officials, and it would take away from them any burden of carrying out their duty as election officials. There is no undue burden placed upon election officials the way the law now is and I can see no reason for this amendment whatsoever.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Kephart.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KEPHART. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, will the gentleman from Philadelphia tell the Senate how long the present law has been in effect?

Mr. KEPHART. I am afraid I can not answer the question, Mr. President; maybe the gentleman from Westmoreland can answer it.

Mr. DENT. If I could, Mr. President I would not ask the question. I further desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia.

Mr. KEPHART. This an amendment to the Act of 1937, I can tell the gentleman from Westmoreland that much.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, will the gentleman from Philadelphia tell the Senate how many election officials have been jailed or indicted because they have failed to live up to the present law and because it is so burdensome and cumbersome they can not abide by it? Will the gentleman from Philadelphia tell the members of the Senate how many elections officials have been indicted for not complying. I do not mind giving the answer but wait until I finish the question.

Mr. KEPHART. I was trying to find out what the question was.

Mr. DENT. Does the gentleman from Philadelphia not know what it is? I thank the gentleman, he need not answer. I will answer it myself.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Westmoreland permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DENT. I will, Mr. President, and I will give attention to the question.

Anyone knows what this bill does. It takes care of a situation such as we had last year, when we had a fraudelent petition in the matter of a state-wide election, and you are now intending to put into law something you tried to do last year that was contrary to law, when you got a faker down in Philadelphia to put up a labor ticket when he had no more to do with labor than the man in the moon, in order to try to swing from natural moorings certain votes that could be counted in the total of the general election. History has proven you did not need them and I do not see any reason to change the law now to allow fraudulency to become a major part of the election code.

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, I decline to accept the statement of the gentleman from Westmoreland and I wish to further direct his attention to the clause reading "unless any such signatures are patently fradulent," which would seem to answer his argument.

And the question recurrng.

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, I most sincerely object to this bill being committed. If the gentleman wants time to study the bill, and to tell you the truth I would like a little more time myself, I would be willing to have the bill go over in its order but I must object to recommitting the bill.

MOTION WITHDRAWN

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, with respect to my colleague from Philadelphia, Senator Farrell, I withdraw my motion to re-commit Senate Bill 218.

Mr. DENT. Mr President, I withdraw my seconding of the motion.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The motion is withdrawn.

And the question recurring.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 218, on second reading, go over in its order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore, M. Harvey Taylor, in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I rise on a point of information.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Westmoreland will state his point of information.

Mr. DENT. As I understood the numbers of the bills announced by the secretary to be considered at a public hearing before the Committee on Labor and Industry, I did not hear House Bill 35 included.

(The secretary of the Senate announced that the House Committee would announce the house bills to be taken up and the Senate is announcing only Senate bills to be considered).

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I would suggest to the Senate that House Bill 35 is one of the list of bills that affect labor very vitally and I have in my possession many requests for a hearing on House Bill 35. If we are going to have a labor hearing, I think we ought to include all the bills that are subject to the criticism or the approval of labor groups in the state. I would therefore suggest to the Chairman that he include that bill, in order that a reference to it will preclude any public demand for public hearing which would then delay the Senate in its deliberations.

Mr. BERGER. In reply to the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. President, I would say that my understanding is that the action of the committee did not include House Bill 35 on the agenda. I would not care to have any misunderstanding on that question, because that was not on the agenda.

Mr. DENT. Then, Mr. President, I want the record to contain the fact that I am here making a request, on behalf of a list of protestants, which list I will later submit to the Senate at its request, for a public hearing on House Bill 35, before any action be taken by this Senate on final passage.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until Thursday, April 17, 1947, at 11:30 o'clock, a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned at 4:40 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time until Thursday, April 17, 1947, at 11:30 o'clock, a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WEDNESDAY, April 16, 1947

The House met at 1:00 p. m.

The SPEAKER (Franklin H. Lichtenwalter) in the Chair.

PRAYER

Reverend W. Murray Young, Chaplain of the Senate, and guest chaplain for the day, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open; all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid, make us sensible of Thy power to explore the mind, and search the heart of mankind, that we may be truly humble in Thy presence. We know the depth of Thy love and the expansiveness of Thy mercy toward us all. Therefore, make us worthy servants of Thine, who daily enjoy Thy benefits.

Grant, Eternal Father, that Thy sovereign power may work in us. If we be one with Thee, then in every conflict, bitter passion, and strange struggle we are saved from evil assaults which constantly threaten us. Fill us with faith, reverence, hope, and love; strengthen and harmonize our souls by the vision of the holy Good and the holy God, which Thou art.

Do Thou be with all sick and suffering ones; comfort, soothe, and quiet them in their affliction. Reach down from Thy throne and help them bear their sorrows, that bow them down. Bring peace, happiness and prosperity to all the homes and firesides within the State and the Nation. Council the Chief Executive of our Nation, and the Chief Executive of our beloved State, and all those associated with them, as they together seek to strengthen, and further, the true American Way of Life, which is the Way of Righteousness. For Thy Name's sake we pray. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of Tuesday, April 15, 1947.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of Tuesday, April 15, when, on motion of Mr. LIVINGSTON unanimously agreed to, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. KENT. RESOLUTION No. 41.

In the House of Representatives, April 15, 1947.

Whereas, The Commonwealth has taken over and owns considerable real property located in its various political subdivisions; and

Whereas, Under the existing Constitution and laws of Pennsylvania public property used for public purposes, of which real property owned by the Commonwealth and its agencies is a class, may be, and has been, exempt by the General Assembly from taxation; and

Whereas, Such exemption results in a loss of revenue to the various political subdivisions, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to study, investigate and devise ways and means of compensating the various political subdivisions of the Commonwealth with Commonwealth funds for their loss of revenues arising from such real property being exempt from taxation; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission shall report its findings and conclusions to the next regular session of the General Assembly together with such proposed legislation as it may devise to carry out its recommendations.

Referred to Committee on Rules.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I ask if this is the bill that was amended yesterday?

The SPEAKER. If the Chair recalls correctly, this is the bill that was amended yesterday and the day before.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Which one of the sponsors?

Mr. LOVETT. Anyone; both of them.

The SPEAKER. The Chair does not see the gentleman from Bucks, and he will therefore ask the gentleman from Huntington, Mr. Neff, the co-sponsor of the bill whether he will permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. NEFF. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman mind explaining to the House just what this bill does?

Mr. NEFF. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the inquiry, I would say that this bill provides a measure of security for County and District Superintendents.

This bill provides that they shall hold office unless an election is called for quadrenially by a certain number of the board in the case of county superintendents or a percentage of the members of the board in districts where the elections are likely to be held.

Mr. LOVETT. In other words would the gentleman say that this particular bill would pretty well secure the superintendents in office?

Mr. NEFF. I would not say so, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Would the gentleman say that this bill does to some extent help to secure these men in office?

Mr. NEFF. I would accept that; it provides some security in office.

Mr. LOVETT. That will be all.

Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. O'Connor.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. O'CONNOR. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the gentleman from Cambria if he feels that this bill secures the superintendents and assistant superintendents in office?

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman, this bill does everything but freeze the county superintendent and assistant in office. In my opinion under this bill your present county superintendents and their assistants and all county superintendents elected in the future are practically elected for life.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I take it from the gentleman's statement that he is not in favor of freezing these men into their positions for life, is that correct?

Mr. O'CONNOR. I am not, Mr. Speaker, I am opposed to this bill.

Mr. LOVETT. That is all.

Mr. Speaker, I feel that we are now going even a step farther in tenure under this bill. I therefore ask the Members of this House to vote this bill down.

Mr. STOCKHAM. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Westmoreland in his remarks mentioned tenure. Any question of tenure in this bill was deleted by the amendment which we offered yesterday. The idea of freezing the county superintendents in office is rather over-drawn. This does permit the security of the county superintendent in the action of carrying out his duty and allows in any event that an election may be had under the terms of the bill, but it also gives him the assurance that in the performance of his duty he will continue without further election. Provisions however have been made here whereby an action similar to that of the recall is had. I ask the House to vote for this bill as being good and judicious legislation.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 330, as follows:

An Act to amend sections eight nine and fourteen of the act approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (P. L. 389) entitled "An act to regulate and control the manufacture sale offering for sale giving away and use of weights and measures and of weighing and measuring devices in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania providing for the approval and disapproval of such weights measures and devises by the Bureau of Standards and prescribing penalties" providing for marking and changing penalties

Section 1 Sections eight nine and fourteen of the act approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (P. L. 389) entitled "An act to regulate and control the manufacture sale offering for sale giving away and use of weights and measures and of weighing and measuring devices in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania providing for the approval and disapproval of such weights measures and devices by the Bureau of Standards and prescribing penalties" are hereby amended to read as follows

Section 8 From and after one year after this act takes effect it shall be unlawful to manufacture offer or expose for sale or sell or give away for use in trade or commerce or to use in trade or commerce any weight or measure or weighing or measuring device [which does not have cast stamped etched or other otherwise marked thereon] unless it shall be conspicuously clearly and permanently marked for purposes of identification with the name initials or trade mark of the manufacturer and with the manufacturer's designation which positively identifies the pattern or the design of the device and in such manner as may be prescribed by the rules and regulations authorized by this act [the name of the manufacturer and the serial number of the approved type to which it belongs] Provided however That whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Bureau of Standards that any type of weight or measure or weighing or measuring device is such as to render it impracticable to mark it as required by this section the said bureau shall furnish a certificate to that effect to any manufacturer applying for the same and such weights and measures and weighing and measuring devices need not be marked as required by the provisions of this section

Section 9 It shall be unlawful to [cast stamp etch or otherwise mark upon] mark for purposes of identification in any manner any weight or measure or weighing or measuring device the type of which has not been approved as required by the provisions of this act any design or device simulating a serial number required by the provisions of section seven of this act

Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not [more] less than five hundred dollars or more than one thousand dollars ($1000) or by imprisonment for not [more] less than one year or more than two years or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court

Section 14 Any person copartnership association or corporation who or which shall violate any provision of this act shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding before any alderman magistrate or justice of the peace of the proper county or city be [punished] sentenced for the first offense [by a fine of not more than twenty-five dollars and upon conviction of the second offsense by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars and upon conviction for the third and each subsequent offense by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars In default of the payment of any fine as aforesaid any person convicted shall be sentenced to serve one day in jail of the propert county for each dollar of the fine or costs] to pay a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) or more than fifty dollars ($50.00) and costs of prosecution and in default of payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for ten days and for the second offense be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50.00) or more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) and costs of prosecution and in default of payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for twenty days and for the third offense shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) or more than two hundred dollars ($200.00) and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for thirty days

Any person violating any of the provisions of this act for a fourth or subsequent offense shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) or more than three hundred dollars ($300.00) or to undergo imprisonment for not more than sixty days or both

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 576, as follows:

An Act fixing the fees of the recorder of deeds in counties of the sixth seventh and eighth class

Section 1 The fees of the recorder of deeds in counties of the sixth seventh and eighth class shall be as follows

For recording and exemplifying deeds mortgages and other writing for every five words one cent The minimum rate for recording same shall be two dollars and fifty cents

For indexing deeds mortgages and other writings with more than four names fifteen cents extra for each additional name

For abstracting first description or parcel of land twenty cents for each additional description or parcel fifteen cents extra

For entering satisfactions assignments partial payments releases extensions and postponements on margin of mortgage record fifty cents

For taking acknowledgements fifty cents for first name and twenty-five cents for each additional name

For certifying deeds mortgages assignments and satisfaction of record to county commissioners fifty cents

The fee for services not herein specifically provided for shall be the same as for similar services

Section 2 All fees shall be exclusive of any State tax now provided for by law and said fees and State tax shall be payable in advance

Section 3 Section eight of the act approved the second day of April one thousand eight hundred sixty-eight (P. L. 3) entitled "An act to ascertain and appoint the fees to be received by the several officers of this Commonwealth" and any and all other acts or parts of acts are hereby repealed in so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this act

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, as this bill affects Wayne County I would like to ask the sponsor of the bill to explain it.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Lawrence, Mr. Brice, is requested by the gentleman from Wayne, Mr. Dix, to explain the bill.

Mr. BRICE. Mr. Speaker, I will explain it.

The original of this bill was enacted in 1868 and at that time provided for eight words for one cent. Now, this recorder who recorded it made it five words for one cent, and in the other section where it is changed it was ten cents for each name, now it is fifteen cents extra for each name; for abstracting first description of parcels of land, now in this bill it is twenty cents and prior to this bill it was ten cents; for entering satisfactions, assignments, partial payments, releases, extensions and postponements on margin of mortgage record fifty cents, whereas prior to this it was twenty-five cents. That is the change.

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, this bill affects the sixth, seventh and eighth class counties. My observation is that the Register's and Recorder's Offices are among the best offices in the county; far better than other offices. Very often where certain estates are settled up they secure a couple of thousand dollars extra, just from one will or from some large deed, which gives them a very large additional sum. These increases appear very modest, and so far as I am concerned I haven't a great deal of objection to them, but I do think even at the present time that our Registers and Recorders are very well taken care of in a financial way in the sixth, seventh and eighth class counties.

Mr. BRICE. Mr. Speaker, I just want to say a few words in favor of this bill. The Registers and Recorders Association of the State of Pennsylvania asked me to put this bill in and they tell me that there is not sufficient money coming into their offices now to carry on, and they have to go to the county commissioners to get money. Their idea is this, that they don't think that it is fair that other people in the county should have to pay for having the wills abstracted, but that the people pay themselves for having that work done.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

SENATE

THURSDAY, April 17, 1947.

The Senate met at 11:30 o'clock, a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore (M. Harvey Taylor) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. W. MURRAY YOUNG offered the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father, enable us to fully realize, each day, our God given responsibility. Ever lead us to put ourselves and our labors on the side of right, truth, and justice. We beseech Thee to strengthen us by a serene and sober optimism. May we never lose faith in Thee, our fellows, our country, nor ourselves. Help us to believe with all our hearts, minds and strength, that better and still better days are ahead for America and the world. Believing this, let us set out to make it all possible. For are we not the captains of our own souls, the masters of our own fate. If we believe in Thee, with sufficient sincerity, we may ask what we will and it shall be done unto us. Therefore, Eternal God, increase our faith so that we may be able to remove mountains which now form barriers to the highest and best in store for the State and Nation. Through Christ our Lord we pray. Amen

JOURNAL APPROVED

RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR HOUSE BILL No. 509

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows, considered and agreed to:

In the House of Representatives, April 17, 1947.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 509, Printer's No. 132, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Elwyn Training School at Elwyn in the County of Delaware, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, for a deficiency in the one thousand nine hundred forty-five, one thousand nine hundred forty-seven biennial appropriation.

be recalled from the Governor for further consideration.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. WALKER, from the Committee on Corporations, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 552, entitled:

An Act further prescribing the bonds required of foreign corporations contracting for public buildings, public works or projects.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. LETZLER read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 609, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the ninth day of June, one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 756) entitled "An act to provide for the health and safety of persons employed in and about bituminous coal mines of Pennsylvania and for the protection and preservation of property connected therewith," by further providing for the health and safety of persons employed in and about the bituminous coal mines of Pennsylvania.

Which was committed to the Committee on Mines and Mining.

Mr. TALLMAN read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 610, entitled:

An Act establishing a Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board Enforcement Officers' Retirement System; providing for payments upon retirement, death, disability, involuntary retirement, and of certain medical expenses from the State Employes' Retirement Fund, under the Administration of the State Employes' Retirement Board; providing for contributions by members of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board Enforcement Officers, and the Commonwealth; providing for the guarantee by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds; providing for the subrogation of the Commonwealth to the rights of the member or dependents against certain third parties; exempting annuities, allowances, returns, benefits, and rights from taxation and judicial processes; and providing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

Mr. WALKER read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 611, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the third day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1225), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," by making it unlawful for any person while hunting or trapping to carry any firearm with the safety off, except during the momentary interval of time necessary to permit the discharge of such firearms, and providing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on Forests and Waters, Game and Fish.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I desire to present to the Chair a resolution, and in doing so I would like to say for the information of the Senate that this resolution merely refers to the Joint State Government Commission the problem of working out the prudent investment theory for fiduciaries. For several years there have been bills in committees dealing with the prudent investment theory of fiduciary investments and this resolution refers the prudent investment theory to the Joint State Government Commission for further study and report back to the Legislature in the 1949 Session.

I present to the Chair the following resolution and move its immediate adoption.

DIRECTING THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO MAKE STUDY OF ADOPTING THE PRUDENT INVESTMENT RULE FOR FIDUCIARIES

Mr. WALKER offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, April 17, 1947.

Whereas, Senate Bill No. 388 relating to investments by fiduciaries under the so-called prudent investment rule has been introduced at this session of the General Assembly; and

Whereas, The passage of this bill would represent a departure from the long established law of the Commonwealth limiting investments by fiduciaries to certain enumerated types of investments; and

Whereas, The advisability of making such a change cannot be ascertained without a detailed and careful study into all phases of the question; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby requested to make a detailed, thorough and impartial study of the advisability of adopting the prudent investment rule for fiduciaries in this Commonwealth, to study in connection therewith all bills introduced at this session to accomplish this end and to make a report thereon for the consideration of the General Assembly at its next session.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The resolution is referred to the Committee on Banking.

INTERROGATION

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the Majority Leader.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Sorg, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SORG. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, will the Majority Leader furnish us with the numbers of the bills on first reading that have been amended in Committee, and therefore will not be the bills as they are in the pink? We have said nothing this morning about reading the bills, but we have no way of knowing over the weekend which of the bills on first reading have been amended because they are not out on the desks in white.

Mr. SORG. I will be glad to furnish them Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The list will be sent to the Minority Leader's office.

THE SPEAKER (Franklin H. Lichtenwalter) IN THE CHAIR

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman from Northumberland, Mr. Bower, for presiding.

INTERROGATION

Mr. ANDREWS. Again, Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the Majority Leader.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Elk permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SORG. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, will it be possible to have the list before the Members leave for their homes so that those who are interested in particular bills that have been amended may make every effort to get copies of them, in order that they may study them over the week-end. Sending the list to my office after the session would not serve the purpose because the Members would have left the city.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman request lists for the minority Members only?

Mr. ANDREWS. That is all we want, Mr. Speaker. We don't care whether you know anything about the bills over on that side or not.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, we assume that our Members do know what the bills are about.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the Majority Leader surmises quite rightly because they are the ones that put the amendments in, but over here we don't know what amendments you have put in.

The SPEAKER. The Chair might get into this little debate. We have sent down for a copy of the Reports from Committees. I believe that the Chair is properly informed that the Minority Leader receives daily a mimeographed copy of bills that have been reported from committees. That copy shows whether the bills have been reported out as committed or amended. The Chair might say, if the gentleman wishes it, that we will make up duplicate lists of those bills that have been amended and cooperate with the gentleman. Before the House adjourns the Chair is informed that the list will be available.

The first and second sections were separately read and agreed to.

The third section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. HELM. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

Amend Section 1515 by adding a sub-section 1515.1 to read as follows:

Section 1515.1 If the record of the medical or dental examination of any child examined under the School Health Act discloses a condition which requires medical, dental, or surgical treatment, and the parent or guardian states to the school authorities that he is financially unable to have a physician or dentist of his choice render such care, he shall be advised that the cost of such care will be provided if application is made to the appropriate county board of public assistance which shall authorize payment for necessary medical, dental, or surgical care as assistance as defined in the standards, rules, and regulations to be established by the Secretary of Public Assistance in consultation with the Secretary of Health and the Superintendent of Public Instruction and with the approval of the State Board of Public Assistance.

In instances where it appears that the parent or guardian was financially able to pay for the medical, dental, or surgical care for which payment was made on the authorization of a county board of assistance, the Department of Public Assistance shall have full recourse to recover the amounts thus expended from the parent or guardian liable for the support of such child as provided in the support law.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. Speaker, I noticed that the amendments to House Bill 1090 would to a certain extent take care of some of the features which were written in House Bill 725 which I recommitted to the State Government Committee on April 8 and of which I highly approve. However, it has always appeared to me, and has been my idea that after a physical or dental examination and after parents are notified as to a defect, that in turn the parents should make a report to the examiner as to the extent, if any, these defects or physical ailments have been corrected.

Now, I don't know how the Members of the House feel about that particular proposition but I do know this, that I have come across in our particular district on many occasions where these examinations have been made, the parents have been notified accordingly as to the examination and nothing has been done by the parents in a great many cases. So, in order to bring this thing to a proper conclusion I believe the best thing for me to do is to take the matter up with the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Helm, and see whether we cannot come down to some basis on that proposition while this bill is on second reading.

AMENDMENT WITHDRAWN

Mr. HELM. Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that we do not desire to take up controversial matters today, I will withdraw the amendments and ask that they be held over until Monday.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Armstrong withdraws his amendments. The Chair will rescind his decision on the first and second sections of the bill as having been agreed to if there is no objection. The Chair hears none.

The gentleman from Armstrong requests that the bill be passed over and not be called up at this time. The Chair hears no objection, and the bill is passed over.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1103, entitled:

An Act to amend sections two hundred seven and eight hundred nine of the act approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 364) entitled "An act relating to business corporations defining and providing for the organization merger consolidation reorganization winding up and dissolution of such corporations conferring certain rights powers duties and immunities upon them and their officers and shareholders prescribing the conditions on which such corporations may exercise their powers providing for the inclusion of certain existing corporations of the second class within the provisions of this act prescribing the terms and conditions upon which foreign business corporations may be admitted or may continue to do business within the Commonwealth conferring powers and imposing duties on the courts of common pleas and certain State departments commissions and officers authorizing certain State departments boards commissions or officers to collect fee for services required to be rendered by this act imposing pnalties and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to corporations" requiring the recording of corporation charters and amendments thereto.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. HELM offered the following amendments:

Amend sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 2, line 14, by inserting a bracket before and after the words "other than" and inserting immediately thereafter the following: " 'Private Trade School' or 'school' shall not include any school maintained or class conducted (i) for".

Amend sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 2, line 15, by inserting after the word "or" the following: "(ii)".

Amend sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 2, line 16, by inserting a bracket before the word "or".

Amend sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 3, line 1, by inserting a bracket after the word "required".

Amend sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 3, line 1, by striking out the word "or" and inserting in lieu thereof: "nor shall the terms include".

Amend sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 3, line 2, by striking out the word "and".

Amend sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 3, line 3, by inserting after the word "schools" "or degree granting institutions".

They were agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The second section was read and agreed to.

The title was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the title?

SENATE BILL No. 433.

An Act authorizing the Secretary of Property and Supplies to sell and convey a tract of land in Limerick Township Montgomery County Pennsylvania with the approval of the Governor Referred to the Committee on State Government.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Messrs. HELM and McMILLEN.

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 43.

In the House of Rpresentatives, April 17, 1947

Whereas, The dictates of common sense require, and experience has proven, that where large numbers of persons are in daily attendance within a given area, first-aid facilities for the treatment and comfort of persons suffering minor accidents or illness should be maintained; and

Whereas, Hundreds of persons, particularly during the legislative sessions, are in daily attendance in the capitol building as visitors, interested parties and guests; and

Whereas, Frequently among such persons there are those who meet with a minor accident or suffer an illness, and no facilities presently exist where such persons may seek emergency aid or comfort, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Department of Property and Supplies be directed to establish and maintain at a central location in the main capitol building a first-aid room with adequate first-aid equipment, supplies and comfort facilities, and that during the sessions of the General Assembly the services of a registered nurse in daily attendance be supplied.

Referred to the Commitee on Rules.

By Messrs. KRATZ and VAUGHAN

RESOLUTION No. 44.

In the House of Representatives, April 17, 1947

Whereas, The position of the United States as a potent force in international affairs is a fact which must be accepted and acted upon by the government and people of the United States, and

Whereas, The government of the United States, through all its branches, and great numbers of private citizens are aware of such fact and that crucial decisions involving the formulation of governmental foreign policies must be made and made authoritatively, carefully, and with dispatch, and

Whereas, Henry A. Wallace, former Vice President of the United States (among other high official positions), as a governmental official and now as a private citizen has seen fit at every opportunity to castigate the program on foreign policy in the process of formulation by our government's authorized representatives, being made in the course of day to day diplomatic exchanges and conferences to meet problems arising in a changing difficult world, and

Whereas, Mr. Wallace has, time after time, on international matters vitally affecting the safety and welfare of the American people, supported the positions of governments founded on tenets diametrically opposed to our principles of democracy and liberty, and

Whereas, His position cannot be defended as the practice of the doctrine of appeasement, for far too recent history has demonstrated the futility of such a position. The ugly fact therefore remains that Henry Wallace deliberately supports and serves a form of government opposed to personal freedom and to our time honored constitutional guarantys and that he is seeking to discredit and overthrow democracy in the United States and to replace it with communism; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby censure and condemn the attitude and utterances of Henry A. Wallace as treasonable and recommend to the Department of Justice of the United States that all applicable provisions of the Federal constitution and laws be invoked to suppress this threatening evil and to punish the wrongdoer; and be it further

Resolved, That duly certified copies of this resolution be transmitted to Henry A. Wallace and to the Attorney General of the United States.

Referred to the Committee on Rule

BILL ON SECOND READING

Mr. HELM. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1090, Printer's No. 297, on page 30 of today's calendar, Bills on Second Reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1090, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309), entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith," providing for medical examiners in lieu of medical inspectors, and prescribing their duties, making mandatory the employment of a school nurse and repealing provisions relating to to medical inspections and reports of medical inspectors.

The first and second sections were read separately and agreed to.

The third section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Messrs. HELM and WAGNER offered the following amendment:

Amend Section 1515 by adding a sub-section 1515.1 to read as follows:

Section 1515.1. If the record of the medical or dental examination of any child examined under the School Health Act discloses a condition which requires medical, dental, or surgical treatment, and the parent or guardian states to the school authorities that he is financially unable to have a physician or denties of his choice render such care, he shall be advised that the cost of such care will be provided if application is made to the appropriate county board of public assistance which shall authorize payment for necessary medical, dental, or surgical care as assistance as defined in the standards, rules, and regulations to be established by the Secretary of Public Assistance in consultation with the Secretary of Health and the Superintendent of Public Instruction and with the approval of the State Board of Public Assistance.

In instances where it appears that the parent or guardian was financially able to pay for the medical, dental, or surgical care for which payment was made on the authorization of a county board of assistance, the Department of Public Assistance shall have full recourse to recover the amounts thus expended from the parent or guardian liable for the support of such child as provided in the support law.

It was agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The title was read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. YETZER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Monday, April 21, 1947 at 4:30 p. m.

Vol. 30. HARRISBURG, PA., MONDAY, APRIL 21, 1947. No. 42.

SENATE

MONDAY, April 21, 1947

The Senate met at 4:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. W. MURRAY YOUNG, offered the following prayer:

Blessings and honor, dominion and power, be unto Thee O God, our Father, by Whose mercy we are permitted to greet the beauty of another Legislative day; at the alter of prayer accept our tribute of praise. Open our hearts to see the splendor of Thy law; make us seekers and lovers of truth and justice. Hide not Thy face from us, but give us all a glimpse of better things to come. May it please Thee to be with our churches and their priesthood, with the schools of learning in our fair land, and all their teachers and administrators. Let Thy spirit work in them that the things fair and profitable may become possible. Be with the childhood and the youth of our land; and as parents, may we be in haste to give them the best that we have and to do for them the best that we know. May it please Thee, O God, to be the centre and the theme of all our affections, convictions and purposes of life; through Christ our Lord, we pray, Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. TALLMAN and Mr. DOEHLA, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

Mr. LANE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, in view of the strong objections voiced by my constituents and in reply to my critics on the position I take on the so-called smoke control bill, otherwise identified as House Bill No. 7, Printer's No. 269, I want it specifically understood that I am not connected, directly or indirectly, with any coal company or corporation, and I have no personal interest whatsoever in this particular bill, with the exception of conscientiously representing my constituents.

I listened, with more than my usual interest, to the debate that took place in the House of Representatives on this particular measure, and I want everyone to know that I am for smoke control in Pittsburgh and Allegheny county, when such restrictions do not affect the welfare and well-being of the residents of the bituminous coal areas.

The economic structure of Washington and Greene counties is built almost entirely around the mining and sale of bituminous coal and any restriction, irregardless of the interpretation of same by persons in authority, in my opinion, is definitely detrimental to the welfare and economic well-being of the good citizens of my Senatorial District.

Coal-mining is a hazardous occupation, to say the least, and an efficient coal-miner can only acquire that skill by virtue of years and years of experience in the mines. The occupation, in most cases, is handed down from father to son, and the curtailment of the market for bituminous coal will most certainly work hardships upon those that are skilled in that particular line of endeavor.

I have read this bill a number of times and, even with the inclusion of the much discussed amendments, this legislative proposal is not satisfactory to me, and I also take the position that Pittsburgh is not really ready for smoke control. I do not have any statistics or figures as to the cost or to the amount of equipment which might be necessary to control smoke in the Pittsburgh area, but I do know that if this cost is very great the residents of that area are going to discontinue the use of high bituminus volatile coal and install other types of heating equipment, and I also doubt very much that the necessary amount of equipment to comply with the provisions of this bill is available in the entire state.

I respect and appreciate the position of those that are supporting this measure, because it vitally affects their particular community. However, in my opinion, it is a fantastic pipe-dream.

We, the elected representatives of the people, should seriously consider our position on this legislation because we are in reality holding the lot of the coal-mining industry in the palm of our hands. The coal-mining industry in Pennsylvania really needs encouragement, not discouragement or restrictions, as I have figures to prove that they have made money in but two years out of the past ten years, and that was during the war period, and we cannot take the position of "robbing Peter to pay Paul" to accomplish an objective, and I ask the entire membership, especially those from the coal-mining areas, whether it be anthracite or bituminous, to recall to their minds the time when we all hoped that there would be smoke rolling from the stacks of the steel mills and locomotives, and I want all of you from the coal-mining areas to recall the time when you sincerely hoped that the coal mines would work more than one or two days a week, and work the full five or six days, because it was only then that the residents of these areas had sufficient earning power to keep the economic cycle in circulation.

I have given this problem considerable thought and have arrived at the definite conclusion that, irregardless of the position taken by the leadership of both political parties, that I prefer to putting up with the smoke, dust, grime and "prosperity".

I know that I am going to be criticized by the public press, by members of my own party and by quite a number of the good citizens of Pittsburgh for the position I have taken, but I will gladly take that criticism because I feel that the position I take on this legislation is consistent with the welfare and the economic well-being of the good citizens of Western Pennsylvania. It has been said, many, many times, that Pittsburgh and Western Pennsylvania is the "workshop of the world" and I, for one, stand alone and declare that I am definitely in favor of encouraging that "workshop of the world" to remain in Westren Pennsylvania, and I trust that the members of this body will consider my remarks and assist me in defeating this fantastic pipedream.

Mr. President, in conclusion, I would like to ask Senator Crowe to either postpone the meeting of the Committee on Mines and Mining until Thursday, or, if possible, hold the meeting on Tuesday, as I find that I will be unable to attend the meeting scheduled for Wednesday, due to the public hearing to be held by the Senate Committee on Labor and Industry, and I would like to attend the Mines and Mining Committee meeting, as I have a series of amendments that I would like to submit to the committee membership for their consideration.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. HOLLAND read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 614, entitled:

An Act to further amend subsections (u) and (x) of section four of the act, approved the fifth day of December, one thousand nine hundred thirty-six (1937 P. L. 2897), entitled "An act establishing a system of unemployment compensation to be administered by the Department of Labor and Industry and its existing and newly created agencies with personnel (with certain exceptions) selected on a civil service basis; requiring employers to keep records and make reports, and certain employers to pay contributions based on payrolls to provide moneys for the payment of compensation to certain unemployed persons; providing procedure and administrative details for the determination, payment and collection of such contributions and the payment of such compensation; providing for cooperation with the Federal Government and its agencies; creating certain special funds in the custody of the State Treasurer; and prescribing penalties," providing that wages received by an individual under a minimum annual wage contract who has been discharged or suspended by his employer in a reduction of labor force shall not be considered wages within the meaning of the act.

Which was committed to the Committee on Labor and Industry.

Mr. LORD read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 615, entitled:

An Act making provisions for community property law; providing that the act shall apply to husbands and wives and their property subsequent to the effective date of the act; defining separate property and the community property of the husband and wife; providing for the management, control and disposition thereof, including the homestead; defining the ownership of funds on deposit in any bank or banking institution; providing for the rights and remedies of creditors; providing that either spouse may give or convey his or her community property to the other; providing for disposition of community property on dissolution of marriage; providing for the substitution of one spouse under certain conditions for the other through legal proceedings in the management, control and disposition of community property; providing for the administration and distribution of the interests of a deceased spouse in community property.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Messrs. HALUSKA and TALLMAN read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 616, entitled:

An Act to add clause fifty-six to section two thousand four hundred three of the act, approved the twenty-third day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one P. L. 932), entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class; and amending, revising, and consolidating the law relating thereto, "empowering city councils, by ordinance, to define and penalize disorderly conduct.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

Mr. T. NEWELL WOOD read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 617, entitled:

An Act to reenact and amend sections four hundred ninety-six, four hundred ninety-six point one, four hundred ninety-six point two, four hundred ninety-six point three, and four hundred ninety-six point four, of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 1278), entitled "An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto," authorizing eighth class counties to acquire, operate and lease aviation landing fields and airdromes; conferring power of eminent domain for such purposes; authorizing the appropriation of certain lands purchased at tax sales for such purposes and joint action with other political subdivisions in the operation and maintenance of such airfields and providing for the expenditure of funds for such purposes in cooperation with State, Federal or other public agencies.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 618, entitled:

An Act to add subsection D to section nine of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 382), entitled "An act providing for the incorporation as bodies corporate and politic of 'Authorities' for municipalities, counties and townships; prescribing the rights, powers and duties of such Authorities heretofore or hereafter incorporated; authorizing such Authorities to acquire, construct, improve, maintain and operate projects, and to borrow money and issue bonds therefor; providing for the payment of such bonds, and prescribing the rights of the holders thereof; conferring the right of eminent domain on such Authorities; authorizing such Authorities to enter into contracts with and to accept grants from the Federal Government or any agency thereof; and conferring exclusive jurisdiction on certain courts over rates," providing for the assumption of obligations by Authorities incidental to the assignment of certain airports.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

Messrs. ROSENFELD and DENT read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 619, entitled:

An Act to reenact and amend the act, approved the twenty-first day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 566), entitled "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for occupational disease contracted by an employe arising out of and in the course of employment; establishing an elective schedule of compensation; providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder; imposing duties on the Department of Labor and Industry, the Workmen's Compensation Board, Workmen's Compensation Referees, and deans of medical schools; creating a medical board to determine controverted medical issues; establishing an Occupational Disease Fund in custody of the State Workmen's Insurance Board; imposing upon the Commonwealth a part of the compensation payable for certain occupational diseases; making an appropriation; and prescribing penalties," further defining and extending the liability of an employer to pay damages for occupational diseases contracted by an employe arising out of and in the course of employment; modifying the procedure and determination of liability thereunder, making an additional appropriation; and prescribing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on Labor and Industry.

Messrs. RAHAUSER and TARR read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 620, entitled:

An Act to promote the welfare of the veterans of this Commonwealth; creating a State Veterans' Loan Authority as a body corporate and politic with power to guarantee bank loans to veterans to establish themselves in business or professions; authorizing and regulating the issuance of bonds by said Authority and providing for the payment of such bonds and the rights of the holders thereof, and providing that no debt of the Commonwealth shall be incurred in the exercise of any of the powers granted by this act; prescribing the powers and duties of said Authority and making an appropriation.

Which was committed to the Committee on Banking.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I am about to submit to the Chair a bill, but before doing so I should like to make a statement relative to this bill. The late Dr. Chase, of Philadelphia, left $1,000,000 to Temple University for research in cancer. There is to be about $25,000 of that available each year.

This bill intends to augment that fund for research in cancer to Temple University.

Mr. CHAPMAN read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 621, entitled:

An Act appropriating the sum of One Hundred and Seventy-five Thousand dollars ($175,000) for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven to the School of Medicine of Temple University, Philadelphia Pennsylvania, towards the maintenance and equipment of The Institute for Research into the Cause or Causes of Cancer and its Diagnosis, Prevention and Treatment.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. BERGER read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 622, entitled:

An Act to add section eight hundred thirty-seven point one to the act aprpoved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine (P. L. 872) entitled "An act to consolidate amend and revise the penal laws of the Commonwealth," by making it a felony to make, give, issue, receive or cause to be made, given, issued, or received, a false receipt, bill or statement of charges with intent to defraud, or with intent to enable the securing of funds from other parties based upon or as a result of such false instrument, and prescribing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. DiSILVESTRO asked and obtained unanimous consent to speak on a matter of personal privilege.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President and members of the Senate, last Thursday and Friday a committee of the House and Senate visited a number of state hospitals in the eastern and central parts of the state.

Among them were such fine institutions as Allentown State Hospital, our first stop, where Dr. Harry F. Hoffman is doing such a wonderful job. We went to Farview State Hospital in Wayne county, Clark's Summit State Hospital in Lackawanna county, Retreat State Hospital in Luzerne county, Danville State Hospital in Montour county and Laurelton State Village in Union county. A full report of conditions as found will be submitted by the chairman of our committee.

But there is one institution on which I feel I must speak to you at once, because there is a bill pending before us that has to do with the shocking conditions I found there.

Retreat State Hospital, in Luzerne county, is the institution. We found there an old antiquated wooden fire trap housing some eleven hundred men and women, most of whom are unable to care for themselves.

I now quote from the pamphlet "A Pictorial Report on Mental Institutions in Pennsylvania," page 42: "Chief drawback to the efficient operation of this institution is its inaccessibility. It can be reached only by a flatboat ferry over the Susquehanna River, from Route 11, or by a rough mountain trail, with grades as steep as twenty per cent. This little boat carried 97,525 passengers on 33,747 trips during the year ending May 31, 1946.

It also carried 12,186 tons of freight. During the year, it was idle for 45 days because of repairs, ice, and floods. During those periods the institution was virtually isolated."

According to the superintendent, Dr. Baskett, efforts have been made in the past to have a bridge built, but these efforts have been nullified, he said, because after everything had been approved, a certain judge had interfered because a friendly contractor had not received the contract.

We must not gamble with human life. I am certain that if a fire were to break out in this hospital most of its unfortunate inmates would be doomed. Their blood, gentlemen, would be on our hands, and I for one do not want to be responsible for what might happen to them.

There is a bill, presented by Senator T. Newell Wood, for the erection of such a bridge or road now before the Senate.

Action should be taken immediately and further, all those inmates should be distributed among other hospitals until such time as the proper measure for their safety have been completed.

Until this is done, the authorities who have these people in their care, and that include the members of the Senate and House can not be considered to have done their full duty.

These people are unable to help themselves. They depend on us. The are wards of the state. In event of trouble they wouldn't know how to take care of themselves—panic would ensue and the outcome would shock the state.

We have been lucky that there has been no difficulty until now—with the future we must not gamble.

Gentlemen of the Senate, I know when this subject of mental hospitals comes up there will be many phases concerning these institutions taken up on the floor.

I had the privilege of taking this trip and I found out from the different superintendents that the important phase of this mental institution program, that is, the rehabilitation program, has either been started or is in full swing in many of the hospitals but here and there it is a little spotty; so until the proper time I just wish to bring to the attention of this Senate a bill presented by Senator T. Newell Wood on which bill it is very important that we take action, and if we close this session of the Legislature without taking action I do not know how lucky we will be, because twenty years is a long time to be lucky in an institution like Retreat; it looks like a medieval dungeon. It seems that those who put that hospital there had the idea of just throwing those poor people into a hole away from humanity, just to keep them away from human beings. On a day like today the Susquehanna River is probably very choppy and it is almost impossible to cross over the river with the things that are necessary for these inmates. Their farm is right across the river. I know, if you talk with any of the members of that committee, they will confirm what I am telling you. It would be a difficult proposition to close this session without putting through the bill sponsored by Senator T. Newell Wood.

RESOLUTION

Mr. WATSON, offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

In the Senate, April 21, 1947.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That when the Senate adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, April 28, 1947, at four o'clock p. m.; and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, April 28, 1947, at four-thirty o'clock p. m.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

CALENDAR

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of House Bill No. 462, as follows:

An Act relating to Federal aid to political subdivision or municipality authority for the development of public airports

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 No political subdivision or municipality authority whether acting alone or jointly with another political subdivision or municipality authority or with the Commonwealth shall submit to the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics of the United States any project application under the provisions of section nine (a) of the Act of Congress approved the thirteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-six (Public Law 377 Seventy-ninth Congress) known and hereinafter designated as the "Federal Airport Act" or any amendment thereof or other Act of Congress hereafter adopted unless the project and the project application have been first approved by the Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission No political subdivision or municipality authority shall directly accept receive receipt for or disburse any funds granted by the United States under the Federal Airport Act or other law but it shall designate the Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission as its agent and in its behalf to accept receive receipt for and disburse such funds It shall enter into an agreement with the commission prescribing the terms and conditions of such agency in accordance with Federal laws rules and regulations and applicable laws of this Commonwealth Such moneys as are paid over by the United States government shall be retained by the Commonwealth or paid over to the political subdivision or municipality authority under such terms and conditions as may be imposed by the United States government in making such grant

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

BILL ON THIRD READING CALENDAR

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 72, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to further amend section three hundred twenty of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 1278), entitled "An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto," by providing for the payment of retirement allowances to widows of deceased county employes and for crediting employes with time spent in military service, in counties of the second class.

go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS POSTPONED

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 169, on third reading, entitled:

An Act authorizing the arbitration of death taxes when there are conflicting claims as to the domicile of the decedent and making uniform the law relating thereto be placed on the Postponed Calendar.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 170, on third reading, entitled:

An Act authorizing the compromise of death taxes when there are conflicting claims as to the domicile of the decedent and making uniform the law relating thereto be placed on the Postponed Calendar.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 204, on third reading, entitled:

An Act establishing a uniform time for appeals to the Superior and Supreme Courts and from the Superior to the Supreme Court in all proceedings and repealing inconsistent acts be placed on the Postponed Calendar.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 219, entitled:

An Act to add section eight hundred twelve to the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1333) entitled "An act concerning elections including general municipal special and primary elections the nomination of candidates primary and election expenses and election contests creating and defining membership of county boards of elections imposing duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth courts county boards of elections county commissioners imposing penalties for violation of the act and codifying revising and consolidating the laws relating thereto and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to elections" providing that where members of a political party are appointed or elected to represent the members of such party in an election district said members shall constitute a political committee for such district

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Farrell.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FARRELL. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. JASPAN. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia explain the nature of this bill.

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, this bill is to amend the election code by providing that when nomination petitions and nomination papers are presented to the County Board of Elections the genuineness of signatures—

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I think the gentleman from Philadelphia is discussing the wrong bill. I am referring to Senate Bill 219.

Mr. FARRELL. I beg the gentleman's pardon.

Senate Bill 219 provides that two members of one committee from a division, in themselves, may constitute a political committee within that division. The reason for this is to provide a method for the making of a substituted nomination in the event of death or withdrawal of a candidate for an election office elected at the primary elections.

I might say to Senator Jaspan that my colleague from Philadelphia, Senator Kephart, is very familiar with these bills, which are short bills and they are good bills, and he can explain them more thoroughly than I can.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, may I then interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Kephart.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KEPHART. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I desire to know what the practice now is in Philadelphia in the event of a vacancy in an election board

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, I imagine that Senator Jaspan probably is more able to answer that question than I am. I am afraid that I can not answer that question.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, under the circumstances I do not see how we could vote for this bill, it means nothing. We have laws on the statute books providing for the filling of vacancies and this bill is absolutely meaningless. Nobody has explained its purpose. I ask what the provisions now are under the law for filling vacancies and nobody knows. I would like to get some information.

The PRESIDENT. Is the Senator telling us or asking?

Mr. JASPAN. I am asking, if you please. Does anybody know what this bill actually does.

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, I think Senator Farrell explained the bill and gave all the explanation that was necessary. I can not go any further than Senator Farrell has gone.

REQUEST THAT BILL GO OVER IN ORDER

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I ask that Senate Bill 219 go over in its order until such time as we get a proper explanation.

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, I object.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr President, may I interrogate the gentleman from Lebanon, Senator Becker?

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Lebanon permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BECKER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, at the very outset I should like to say I am merely trying to learn something about this bill, I have no ulterior motive in mind, and I ask the gentleman from Lebanon to withdraw his objection, as probably overnight I can find some reason for this bill.

Mr. BECKER. Mr. President, I am not aware of the fact that I was one who objected. The President indicated objection had been made before I had evidenced any interest in what was happening at the time.

In other words, Senator Jaspan, I was not the one who objected. I may have made some gestures here, but the objection was announced long before I did so.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I now ask Senator Kephart to withdraw his objection until tomorrow.

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, this bill has been on the calendar for at least a week now, and I believe longer than that, and I think it ought to be acted on.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, if it has been on the calendar for a week, how is it the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Kephart, knows little or nothing about it? Certainly, coming from Philadelphia, he ought to know, and I am interested in what this bill stands for.

Mr. ROSENFELD. Mr. President, I think the purpose of this bill is to provide for a means of substituting an election officer by a political committee which is presently provided for under the law, but there is no political committee provided at the present time to substitute the name of a judge or inspector of election. At the present time a petition must be filed with the court and the court must then name the inspector. This will permit the division committeeman to act as a political body to substitute for a nominee who has either removed or died.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, if such is the case I am very much afraid it is a very dangerous bill, particularly as it concerns the votes as cast by our people. The right to vote is a very important right and a sacred right, and it should be protected at all events and when we leave the choice of election officers to two men to constitute a committee in any particular division, there is great danger. This bill, I repeat, is fraught with great danger. I would sooner take a chance with the court. In fact, I have respect for the court, and feel that is the only place where you can fill vacancies in the event a vacancy takes place at any particular polling place, but to put that power in the hands of two men, who may not have had the education and who may not have had the experience, there is no telling what would happen with the political machinery.

Therefore I am going to vote against this bill and ask my colleagues to vote against it.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, may the Senate be at ease for just a few minutes?

(The Senate was at ease)

Mr. DENT Mr. President, I have been unhappily surrounded by a group of Philadelphia lawyers, and, not being a lawyer myself, I suggest to the majority side that there is an honest difference of opinion between men representing the same districts, that is, in the same community, the city of Philadelphia, as to what this bill intends to do, and I am sure if the sponsor will allow the bill to go over in its order that we will resolve this difference and tomorrow be able to vote upon the bill.

As the question now stands, gentlemen, the Democratic caucus has approved the bill under one interpretation, but there has been a doubt cast now as to whether that interpretation of the bill is right.

So therefore, Mr. President, I would like to have permission of the sponsor to permit the bill to go over in its order until tomorrow.

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, I will gladly join in the request of the gentleman from Westmoreland that Senate Bill 219 go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. The bill has already passed third reading. Is it the desire of the gentleman from Westmoreland that it go over in its order on final passage?

Mr. DENT. That is right, Mr. President. I want to thank the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Farrell.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 219, on final passage reading, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 239, as follows:

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 350, as follows:

An Act to amend section sixteen of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of January one thousand eight hundred forty-nine (P. L. 678) entitled "An act authorizing the commissioners of the incorporated districts of the Northern Liberties and Kensington to open a street to be called Delaware avenue relative to the duties of assessors venders of mineral waters the Fire association of Philadelphia vacancies in the school boards in the county of Philadelphia to lost mortgages auditors of Philadelphia county rebuilding of the court house in Philadelphia to enable the commissioners of Philadelphia county to borrow money to settle certain accounts between Spring Garden and the Commonwealth and respecting the appointment of auditors" limiting appointive powers of judges in certain cases

Section 1 Section sixteen of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of January one thousand eight hundred forty-nine (P. L. 678) entitled "An act authorizing the commissioners of the incorporated districts of the Northern Liberties and Kensington to open a street to be called Delaware avenue relative to the duties of assessors venders of mineral waters the Fire association of Philadelphia vacancies in the school boards in the county of Philadelphia to lost mortgages auditors of Philadelphia county rebuilding of the court house in Philadelphia to enable the commissioners of Philadelphia county to borrow money to settle certain accounts between Spring Garden and the Commonwealth and respecting the appointment of auditors" is here amended to read as follows

Section 16 That from and after the passage of this act it shall not be lawful for [the judges] any judge of the several courts of this Commonwealth [or any one of said judges] to appoint as auditor master in chancery master in divorce examiner commissioner or appraiser any person related or connected with said [judges or any one or more of them] judge by ties of consanguinity or marriage

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I submit to the members of the Senate, if they want to do the honest thing, they would take out Section 16 entirely from this bill and do away with this provision entirely. As it is now this appears to be one of those bills, you scratch my back and I will scratch yours.

In other words, say in a court there are two judges and one may have a son and the other a son-in-law, who are lawyers, and this section would make it possible for the one judge to name the other's son as a master, examiner or commissioner, and the other might appoint the son-in-law.

In this town of Harrisburg we have just witnessed a major trial concerning one of the things that legislation like this has caused, and I refer to the Johnson case which was just tried.

I suggest if the Senate wants to do the honest thing it will eliminate all of Section 16 and not make it a courtesy to be entered into between judges sitting on the same bench in the same court.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

BILLS ON SECOND READING CALENDAR

BILL ON SECOND READING AMENDED

Agreeably to order.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispend with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 35, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirteen (P. L. 1024) entitled "An act to protect the public health and welfare by regulating the employment of females in certain establishments with respect to their hours of labor and the conditions of their employment by establishing certain sanitary regulations in the establishments in which they work by requiring certain abstracts and notices to be posted by providing for the enforcement of this act by the Commissioner of Labor and Industry and others by prescribing penalties for violations thereof by defining the procedure in prosecutions and by repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions thereof" providing for payment of time and one-half for overtime changing hours of labor and restrictions relative to age in certain employments and extending provisions to include additional persons

The first section was read and agreed to.

The second section was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. BERGER offered the following amendment:

Amend sec. 2 (Sec. 5), page 7, line 18, by inserting after the word "section]" the following: "Provided, That where the strict application of the night restrictions imposes an unnecessary hardship upon any establishment, the Department of Labor and Industry, with the approval of the Industrial Board may suspend the provisions of ths section as to females who are between the ages of seventeen and eighteen years and who are high school graduates employed in such establishments."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I may be wrong but it is my opinion that this bill originally was intended to reduce the age limit for women from twenty-one to eighteen, and now this amendement further reduces the age limit from twenty-one to seventeen. Am I right? I only caught that from the reading of the amendment.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, the amendment is intended to take care of females between the ages of seventeen end eighteen years, only when they have graduated from high school and are seeking or have obtained employment.

Mr. DENT. I am opposed to this bill, so anything I say now will be prejudiced.

However, I may say to you perhaps if you are seeking to help needy persons who have to work, in most instances the girls between seventeen and eighteen who want jobs cannot afford to go to high school. It is just a question of what you are trying to do with this legislation.

I believe this bill ought to be printed before we pass the amendment. I would like to see the bill kept on second reading, after the amendment has been included.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Potter.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Potter permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. BERGER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. MAHANY. Senator Berger, what is the purpose of this amendment.

Mr. BERGER. I think the amendment is clear, Senator Mahany; it permits the department to suspend the regulations of the paragraph which it amends, by permitting females between the ages of seventeen and eighteen, who are high school graduates, to be employed under the provisions of the act.

Mr. MAHANY. I do not see any need for such an amendment as this. I think it certainly would be discriminatory. Why pick out high school graduates to be covered by this amendment? Whether it would be for moral reasons or just what it would be for, I do not know, but I can not see why we should discriminate in favor of high school graduates as against non-high school graduates.

I will ask members to vote down the amendments.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I request that House Bill No. 35 go over in its order, for printing, so that the Senators may read the amendment and consider it.

The PRESIDENT. The amendment has not yet been acted on. Does the Senator from Potter desire that the Senate act upon the amendment?

Mr. BERGER. Yes, Mr. President.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. JASPAN and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—29

Becker,	Farrell,	Lord,	Wade,
Berger,	Geltz,	Mallery,	Walker,
Blass,	Hare,	Snowden,	Watson,
Chapman,	Heyburn,	Stevenson,	Wilson,
Crider,	Homsher,	Tallman,	Wolfe,
Crowe,	Kephart,	Taylor,	Wood, L. H.,
Doehla,	Letzler,	Tyler,	Wood, T. N.,
Donlan,

NAYS—16

Barr,	Haluska,	Leader,	Stiefel,
Carr,	Holland,	Mahany,	Tarr,
Dent,	Jaspan,	Rosenfeld,	Wagner,
DiSilvestro,	Lane,	Ruth,	Woodring,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The third, fourth and fifth sections and title were read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time, as amended.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading?

ANNOUNCEMENTS BY THE CHAIR

The PRESIDENT. The Chair would like to call to the attention of the Senators at this time that when a motion to adjourn is made, seconded and acted upon, that the Senate is not finally adjourned until announcement is made of the result of the vote by the Chair, and in order to give some aspect of order the Chair requests that the Senators keep their seats until that announcement is made.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I rise on a point of information.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Westmoreland will state his point of information.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, did I understand the Secretary to announce that there will be a meeting of the committee on Mines and Mining on Wednesday, April 23, 1947 at 10:30 a. m.?

The PRESIDENT. That is correct.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, in view of the hot issue as to smoke in Pittsburgh, and the misunderstanding that seems to prevail on this issue, it is going to be rather embarrassing to certain members of the committee if they can not attend that committee meeting, if they happen to be at the meeting of the Committee on Labor and Industry.

It is rather a peculiar situation that today we can not seem to act as we should act and are entitled to act, but our actions are already predicted for us in the daily newspapers.

I myself intend to vote to bring this bill out but I will not be there, so if the committee chairman will accept my proxy I will give it to him now.

The PRESIDENT. That would not be in order.

Mr. DENT. But, Mr. President, it does pose a problem that I believe ought to be taken into consideration Certain men on this side are vitally interested in this legislation, one way or another, and it places us in an embarrassing situation, inasmuch as no secrets in committee are kept any more.

The PRESIDENT. Unless the gentleman from Westmoreland desires to make a further statement, can not the matter be taken up after the session adjourns?

Mr. DENT. That is perfectly satisfactory, Mr. President.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr TALLMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until Tuesday, April 22, 1947, at 2:00 o'clock, p m., Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. WOLFE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned at 5:51 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time until Tuesday, April 22, 1947, at 2:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MONDAY, April 21, 1947.

The House met at 4:30 p. m.

The SPEAKER (Franklin H. Lichtenwalter) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. Lester C. Updegrove offered the following prayer:

Blessed heavenly Father, we would turn our hearts to Thee. We are comforted that Thy love springs from Thy compassion rather than from our merits. Be Thou the power within ourselves, that we may contribute to the abiding realities of a great state and nation. In every way enable us to be strong, unselfish, patriotic and fearless in the defense of that which is right and in the condemnation of that which is wrong. We ask it in our dear Redeemer's name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of Thursday, April 17, 1947.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of Thursday, April 17, 1947, when, on motion of Mr. DEMICH unanimously agreed to, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Professional Licensure for the purpose of further study and a possible hearing.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. O'DONNELL. Mr. Speaker, I am one of the cosponsors on House Bill No. 586, and I might say, if Mr. Turner has any suggestions with respect to the bill I would be glad to hear them on the floor. I think we can discuss this bill very well on the floor of the House here, because we have given every opportunity possible, and we have given every courtesy possible to everybody interested in the bill to give their views.

I did not attend all of the subcommittee meetings, but I am reliably informed that they lasted for many hours. I believe that we considered every phase and every suggestion with regard to accountants, public accountants and certified public accountants and the various Departments of the State that might be interested in the bill.

I, therefore, rise to oppose the motion made by Mr. Turner to recommit this bill.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I realize that what the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. O'Donnell, has said about this bill's having been considered for some time by the Committee is correct, because I just had an opportunity to talk to Mr. Krise, the Chairman of the Committee, and one of the sponsors of this bill.

For a long time in this House we have had measures which have affected this question of the registration of certified public accountants and public accountants, the question of the amount of training that is necessary and the question as to whether certain public accounting firms list themselves as certified public accountants. I might say that I have been deluged over the weekend by many certified public accountants and public accountants who live in my district. Some of them were opposed to the bill as it orginally stood and they are still opposed to it. Some of them were in favor of it as it originally stood and were opposed to the bill as amended. I am frank to say, as I said earlier this afternoon to a group interested in another bill, that it leaves us in a dilemma as to just what is the proper course to pursue.

When any professional group is unable among themselves to arrive at a proper determination of legislation, when any professional group is unable to find, at least in the majority of that group what is best for that group, it seems to me ultimately unfair to expect us Members of the House to determine by legislation what rules should govern that particular professional group.

I am given to understand that there are something like nine thousand public accountants in Pennsylvania;

I am given to understand that there are between 1700 and 1800 certified public accountants in Pennsylvania, and the argument used by public accountants is that the tail is wagging the dog; that the minority at times will impose upon the majority some legislation. The minority says that this is for the protection of their profession and for the protection of the public. As a professional man I am naturally very much interested in the protection of not only my own profession but as well in the protection of the public. So, I have seen this question come before this House from time to time and have seen battles seeking to get them out of committee to have them passed. My own thought has been that the things which ought to be done is to see if they can't work out in their profession something that they can agree upon, so that when it comes before the House we can ascertain just what that profession thinks about it. I think it is highly unfair for us to pass this House bill and ask us to vote upon it when we cannot know all of the angles and all of the problems involved.

I would like to say, Mr. Speaker, and I trust the gentleman will not rise to a point of order, that there is another bill, House Bill 703, and it seems to me if this bill is referred to Committee that that bill also should go back to Committee to give us a chance to understand it.

We have had a lot of ticklish problems before the Legislature from time to time, that are referred to the Joint State Government Commission. The Joint State Government Commisssion has gradually, it seems to me, emerged as an agency and has endeavored to study problems that we now have before us such as consumers' credit, to bring about a piece of legislation that has the stamp of approval of the industry.

It would seem to me that this is the kind of Legislation that should be referred to the Joint State Government Commission to study, but nevertheless that is something for the future. I, therefore, ask you to vote to recommit this bill to the Committee on Professional Licensure.

Mr. KRISE. Mr. Speaker, I hope that my voice is going to permit me to reply to the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, but I am opposed to recommit this bill back to the Committee on Professional Licensure because we have had it now for some six weeks in our hands. We have considered it from every possible angle, and when Mr. Turner says it is unfair for the House to vote upon these measures on this short notice, I might tell him that we have been studying this in Committee for many weeks, and that the bill as it now comes before the House is the nearest thing to a compromise between the certified public acountants and the public accountants that we could arrive at.

Let it be said right from the beginning, that irrespective of what bill would now come up before you, it would be opposed by the public accountants because the first statement made to me as Chairman of the Committee and as a co-sponsor of the bill, by the public accounting profession was that they wanted nothing, that their tactics were to completely kill the bill, for they did not want any licensing arrangement.

Let me just digress a moment here to state that this is not a licensing bill; it is only a certification bill and does not change the status quo one iota from the present operation. We are presently licensing certified public accountants under the Law of 1899. That continued up until the Justice Department in 1942 gave us a ruling that the Board had no authority to accept a prerequisite requirement to the examination. That has thrown some confusion into the Board. All that House Bill No. 586 does today is to set up a requirement, an experience requirement, the only change from the present status quo. An individual today takes his examination without either educational or experience requirement and after he has taken that examination he has two years experience either with a certified public accountant or a public acountant, or in business for himself as a public accountant, and then his certification becomes operative. Whether he has a certificate or whether he has no certificate does not stop him from practicing as a public accountant. The only recognition that we give to an accountant today is that we say to one group "You have now qualified by education and experience and by having passed an examination to go out and say to the world, 'you are capable of conducting an audit, you are capable of operating as a public accountant.' "

If the public wants to hire an individual who is not certified they have that opportunity. If so, we are not stopping any individual today. I can understand why this nine thousand group which my friend from Delaware refers to would not want anything of this kind. I can understand why some twenty thousand just ordinary bookkeepers wouldn't want this certificate. They are all on a parity. Yet I think you all realize that there is a difference in accounting. We start to study accounting and there is no limit to where we can go. All this bill does is that we say that one group has completed a certain amount of study and education. They are setting themselves apart as being capable of doing the work.

If this bill is sent back to Committee you would have the same confusion that you have had for years. Nothing can be gained by sending it back. Let us keep it on the floor and vote on it either as a good or bad bill.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker it is my understanding, that the people who want the bill to go back want it to go back for a hearing, and it would seem to me that in view of what the Chairman of the committee has said, and what has already been said upon this floor that there are certain matters which should be ironed out at a hearing rather than an extended debate upon the floor. I would think that the House could save a great deal of time by sending this bill back for a hearing.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Krise.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Clearfield permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KRISE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, has the gentleman had any requests for a public hearing before this time.

Mr. KRISE. Yes, we have, Mr. Speaker. We have had several requests for a hearing, and in consultation with the representative of the C. P. A. We have talked it over with them and asked if there was anyting additional that they could submit in a hearing which they had not already submitted. We asked them to submit briefs representing the various branches of the accounting profession. That has all been given study, so I can see nothing that would come up at a public hearing in which two or three thousand accountants would get together and tell exactly the same story we have now.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, of course, I may not have the background of what has passed before in committee between the Chairman and the representatives. I only know that the representatives of the public accountants who contacted me over the week-end told me what they wanted was a public hearing; that they have asked for a hearing but have never secured it. I don't know anything about the controversy between them, and I am only stating that in fairness to the men who have spoken to me.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to call the attention of the House to the fact that the Cairman of the Committee on Professional Licensure has in his file a letter from a well known firm which begins:

> "We represent the Pennsylvania Society of Public Accountants. Our client is of the opinion that the filing of a brief with your Committee with respect to House Bill No. 586 will serve no useful purpose. Hundreds of our members believe that there should be a hearing."

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the nays appear to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, fifty Members voting in the affirmative, and seventy-eight in the negative, the question was determined in the negative, and the motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The second section was read and agreed to.

The third section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. CHUDOFF offered the following amendment:

Amend sec. 3, page 5, lines 8 to 10, by striking out all of said lines.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. O'DONNELL. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the sponsors of the last two amendments to supply the sponsors for the bill with a copy of the amendments. Mr. Charles Smith of Philadelphia has submitted an amendment to which we have agreed. And may me have the benefit of the amendments submitted by the other two gentlemen from Philadelphia?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentlemen from Philadelphia, Messrs. Scanlon and Chudoff supply the sponsors of the bill with a copy of the amendments which they have offered?

Mr. SCANLON. Mr. Speaker, I think that the gentleman from Philadelphia is familiar with the amendments that I have offered. When they are read he will know what they are. I submitted them in Committee.

Mr. O'DONNELL. Mr. Speaker, section 8, which Mr. Chudoff from Philadelphia would like to see amended, reads as follows:

"Authorizing the board, giving certain powers and limiting powers also of the board." Then the subdivision reads: "To become a member of the Association of Certified Public Accountant Examiners or a similar organization"—

The SPEAKER. The Chair might remind the gentleman, that he referred to section 8. We are now amending section 3.

Mr. O'DONNELL. Mr. Speaker, I mean subdivision eight:

> "To become a member of the Association of Certified Public Accountant Examiners or a similar organization and to pay such dues as said association shall establish and to send delegates to the annual meeting of the association and to defray their expenses."

I might say in regard to that subsection,—excuse me, I am talking on another phase, it is subdivision 9 that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Chudoff, seeks to amend, and that is, "to adopt, promulgate and enforce such administrative rules and regulations not inconsistent with this act or other acts as are necessary and proper to carry into effect the provisions of this act." That is the limitation and also certain powers given to the board who will conduct these examinations, grade papers and do everything to carry out the purpose of this act. If we strike out subdivision 9, I think that we are really killing the bill. I, therefore, rise to oppose the amendment to subdivision 9 of section 3 as has been presented.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I had hoped that we might have a public hearing on this bill so that I might have appeared before the Committee on Professional Licensure and explained to them the purpose of my amendment. This amendment will take away from the board the right to promulgate and enforce such administrative rules and regulations not inconsistent with the act.

The present Board made so many rules that the Justice Department, or the Attorney General's Office, ordered them to stop making these rules. I am afraid, that we are going to have the same thing over again. I don't know whether the Members of the House know, but the board has not even given the results of the last CPA examination to those who took it, although they promised that they would give the results by the first of April. These rules and regulations today that they are setting up are wiping out and probably will wipe out the purpose of this act.

Therefore, I think this section should be stricken from the act to make it properly workable.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The fourth section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 4, page 5, line 11, by striking out the letter "A" and inserting in lieu thereof: Except as hereinafter provided a

Amend Sec. 4, page 7, by inserting between lines 13 and 14 the following:

The board may in its discretion issue a certificate to any honorably discharged veteran who shall have served in the armed forces of the United States during any period of World War II prior to the termination of hostilities as declared by the President of the United States without regards to his compliance with either of the experience requirements prescribed herein.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. KRISE. Mr. Speaker, I am heartily in sympathy with the amendment because it takes care of certain soldier boys and we ask for support of the amendment.

The amendments were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the sections as amended?

Mr. SCANLON offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 4, page 5, lines 11 to 19, both inclusive, by striking out the words "A certificate" in line 11, and all of lines 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18 and 19.

Amend Sec. 4, page 6, lines 1 to 20, both inclusive by striking out all of said lines.

Amend Sec. 4, page 7, lines 1 to 11, both inclusive, by striking out all of said lines, and inserting in lieu thereof:

(a) Any person shall be eligible to take the examination as in this act provided who is a citizen of the United States, a resident of the State of Pennsylvania, or who maintains an office in the State for the practice of public accounting, and who is over the age of twenty-one years of good moral character, who has had at least one year of practical accounting experience

(b) That in lieu of the requirements as to education and examination by the board for the examination of public accountants, the board shall accept in the case of applicants who have reached the age of forty years, evidence of ten years practical public experience in the application of accountancy, principles and auditing procedures satisfactory to the State Board for Examination of Public Accountants, subject to review by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and shall grant to those qualified a certificate of Certified Public Accountant.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. O'DONNELL. Mr. Speaker, I might say that I have had some difficulty in following the amendments, but after realizing that it was an amendment submitted prior to this time in subcommittee and also in the general committee, and realizing the effect of that amendment to this bill, I must say that I as co-sponsor oppose this amendment because it will have the effect of nullifying this bill if enacted into law.

The amendment was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the sponsor whether amendments have been offered to correct line 14 on page 5 of this bill.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria desires to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. O'Donnell. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. O'DONNELL. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia whether an amendment has been offered as yet to correct line 14 on page 5.

Mr. O'DONNELL. Mr. Speaker, just a few minutes ago I discovered that there was a typographical error appearing on page 5. I have an amendment which I will present which I think will cure that typographical error.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman if he is going to amend section four, when he is going to amend it.

Mr. O'DONNELL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to offer the following amendment to section 4 on page 5, line 14.

Amend Sec. 4, page 5, line 14 by striking out the words "BY SERVING"

Amend Sec. 4, page 5, line 14, by inserting after the word "requirements" "by serving"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. ERB. Mr. Speaker, I desire to have House Bill 1020, Printer's No. 359, passed over today for further study as there are some points I would like to have clarified before this bill comes up for second reading tomorrow.

The SPEAKER. The Chair might say that the gentleman from Somerset has already called up the bill.

Mr. ERB. Well, Mr. Speaker, I was on the floor.

The SPEAKER. The proper action for the gentleman to take, if he does not wish to comply with the request of the sponsor, would be to move to place it on the second reading postponed calendar.

Mr. WAGNER. No, Mr. Speaker, I am opposed to such a motion.

Mr. ERB. Mr. Speaker, that is what I would like to do.

The SPEAKER. The Chair understands that the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Erb, desires to move that House Bill No. 1020 be placed on the second reading postponed calendar, is that correct?

Mr. ERB. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

MOTION TO POSTPONE

Mr. ERB. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar?

On the question.

Will the House agreed to the motion?

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. Speaker, I object to the motion made by the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Erb, for the reason that if there is any additional information on this bill be certainly will be able to get the information he desires before the bill comes up on the third reading and final passage calendar. I have no objection to cooperating with the gentleman after this bill goes over on second reading but I do object to any motion delaying our action on this bill today.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Somerset, Mr. Wagner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Somerset permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WAGNER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, do I understand correctly that before this bill will be called up for a vote on final passage, that the gentleman will extend the courtesy of a day or so to the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Erb?

Mr. WAGNER. I will do that, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SORG. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

MOTION TO POSTPONE WITHDRAWN

Mr. ERB. Mr. Speaker, I then withdraw my motion.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Blair Mr. Erb withdraws his motion.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. SORG asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, just for the sake of the record, I desire to say on behalf of the Members who have voted for this measure and who have probably read very carefully the provisions of the bill, that as the record stands it would perhaps look as if this were a measure directed at the G. I. Taxicab drivers of Philadelphia. As I read it, it does not so state. As a matter of fact, it is simply an amendment to that provision which imposes a penalty for violation of the Public Utility Company law, where there are already in existence provisions calling for the payment of a fine. This particular measure merely calls for the subjection to a fine of a violator in any category, whether it be by airplane or motor carrier or any other means under the existing law, and if there is a default in the payment of the fine, the violator shall be subjected to commitment to jail.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

House Bill No. 537, Printer's No. 334,

was passed over at the request of Mr. FLEMING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 582, as follows:

An Act to further amend section eight hundred three of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" increasing per diem compensation and mileage of school directors for attendance at conventions

Section 1 Section eight hundred three of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" as amended by the act approved the thirty-first day of March one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (P. L. 71) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 803 It shall be the duty of school directors in each county of this Commonwealth to attend such annual convention of school directors called by the county superintendent and each school director attending such convention shall receive for his necessary expenses the sum of [four dollars ($4.00)] six dollars ($6) per day for each day's attendance and mileage at the rate of [four] six cents per mile for the distance necessary to be traveled in going to and from such convention once each year Said amount shall be paid by an order drawn on the treasurer of the school district in which he acts as school director Provided however That no school director shall be paid for more than two days at any annual convention

Mr. DENNISON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary for the purpose of possible study.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 642, as follows:

An Act to further amend section five hundred sixty-three of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribed penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" by providing for the revision of the budget of school districts of the second third and fourth classes during the fiscal year

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania enacts as follows

Section 1 Section five hundred sixty-three of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" as last amended by section three of the act approved the thirteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 605) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 563 The board of school directors of each school district of the second third or fourth class shall annually at least thirty days prior to the adoption of the annual budget prepare a proposed budget of the amount of fund that will be required by the school district in its several departments for the following fiscal year Such proposed budget shall be prepared on a uniform form prepared and furnished as hereinafter provided and shall be appointed to the several classes of expenditures of the district as the board of school directors thereof may determine Final action shall not be taken on any proposed budget in which the estimated expenditures exceed two thousand dollars ($2000) until after ten days' public notice Provided however That nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent any school district whose total estimated expenditures do not exceed two thousand dollars ($2000) from holding a public hearing The proposed budget shall be printed or otherwise made available for public inspection to all persons who may interest themselves at least twenty days prior to the date set for the adoption of the budget The board of school directors after making such revisions and changes therein as appear advisable shall adopt the budget and the necessary appropriation measure required to put it into effect Within fifteen days after the adoption of the budget the board of school directors shall file a copy of the same in the office of the Department of Public Instruction In all school districts under the direction of a county superintendent the county board of school directors shall inspect the annual budget and shall render such advice and assistance regarding the same as may seem proper before the said budget shall be signed and forwarded to the department by the county superintendent

The board of school directors may during any fiscal year make additional appropriations or increase existing appropriations to meet emergencies such as epidemics floods fire or other catastrophies the funds therefor to be provided from unexpended balances in existing appropriations from unappropriated revenues if any or from temporary loans Such temporary loans when made shall be approved by a two-thirds vote of the board of school directors

The board of school directors shall have power to authorize the transfer [within the same fund] of any unencumbered balance or any portion thereof from one [spending agency] class of expenditure or item to another but such action shall be taken only during the last nine months of the fiscal year [and except as hereinbefore otherwise provided no moneys apportioned to any class of expenditures shall be used for purposes other than designated for said class in said budget] The total amount of such budget shall not exceed the amount of funds including the proposed annual tax levy and State appropriation available for school purposes in that distrist

The uniform budget forms required by this act shall be prepared by the Department of Public Instruction which shall issue said forms and distribute them annually as needed to the school districts

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective the first day of July one thousand nine hundred forty-seven

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally

In addition to the foregoing it shall be unlawful for any minor under eighteen years of age to be employed or permitted to work in any occupation dangerous to the life or limb or injurious to the health or morals of the said minor as such occupations shall from time to time after public hearing thereon be determined and declared by the Industrial Board of the Department of Labor and Industry Provided That if it should be hereafter held by the courts of this Commonwealth that the power herein sought to be granted to the said board is for any reason invalid such holding shall not be taken in any case to affect or impair the remaining provisions of this section

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate one of the sponsors of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Layer, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LAYER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FLEMING. I would like to inquire if this bill lowers or raises the age of pin boys in bowling alleys.

Mr. LAYER. Mr. Speaker, this bill increases the age from fourteen years old to sixteen years old.

Mr. FLEMING. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman a lawyer?

The SPEAKER. Is the gentleman addressing his question to the Chair?

Mr. ANDREW. To either one, Mr. Speaker. I would like a legal opinion from some reputable lawyer as to the effect of this bill because various people have raised the same question as to what the effect of it was.

Mr. SORG. Will the gentleman withdraw his statement about reputable lawyers. I am sure there are quite a few of them.

Mr. Speaker, I desire to inform the gentleman that at present there is a law permitting the employment of pin boys fourteen years old and upwards. I understand, however, that the temporary provisions will soon expire or be repealed by this particular legislation. In the event that such action should take place this bill will be necessary to permit reemployment of pin boys from sixteen years of age and upwards.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I understand the gentleman to say if the boy was under sixteen, working part time on Saturday, he could not be a pin boy under this bill.

Mr. SORG. If he were under sixteen years of age under this bill he could not.

Mr. ANDRWES. Either part time or full time, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. SORG. Either way, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

NOT VOTING—2

Hall, Trout,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 752, entitled:

An Act to authorize the revival of judgments entered in favor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by filing a suggestion of nonpayment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I should like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Waterhouse, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I should like to know from the gentleman from Erie the purpose of this bill.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. This bill will save the Commonwealth approximately one hundred thousand dollars per year. It merely changes the method of renewing or reviving the judgments which are taken when the recipients of public assistance are on the roll. As you know, any person who applies for public assistance and has property automatically has to give a lien against that property. This lien is taken for two thousand dollars for each; in other words, a couple would be four thousand dollars, and at the end of five years this judgment if it remains unpaid must be revived. Now, it has to be done through an attorney and so forth and so on. This way it can only be done by sci. fa. of suggestion of nonpayment.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I would like to know from the gentleman whether this would wipe out the affidavit of defense by the defendant that could be filed by the defendant to a sci. fa. to revive a judgment.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. I understand it would not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I should like to know from the gentleman whether this would affect any other judgment taken by the Commonwealth, for instance the Department of Revenue or any other department?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. This judgment would not be changed in any way.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, this might be considered a lawyer's bill. It has always been the law in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that in order to bind real estate by judgment within five years of the date of the original judgment the plaintiff would have to file a sci. fa. to revive the judgment, which writ is issued by the Prothonotaries of the several courts of the Commonwealth and served by the Sheriff. The defendant can then file an affidavit of defense to having the sci. fa. revived, and if payment of the judgment has been made that is set up in the affidavit of defense.

If this bill is passed it would take away from the defendent in a Public Assistance judgment the right to file an affidavit of defense; it simply would give a judgment to the plaintiff for five more years against the real estate of the defendant without any defense thereto.

Mr. SORG. I desire, Mr. Speaker, to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Chudoff.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CHUDOFF. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SORG. Does the gentleman mean to infer, Mr. Speaker, that providing the general procedure is followed the defendant will have no remedy to remove the judgment from the record in the event of payment?

Mr. CHUDOFF. I did not say that, Mr. Speaker. It would preclude it in the event that the Department of Public Assistance files an affidavit of defense to a sci. fa., which right it now has.

Mr. SORG. The gentleman does admit then, Mr. Speaker, that a defendant would have the right to have the judgment removed in the event of payment.

Mr. CHUDOFF. The defendant might have a right to take a rule to strike off the judgment, but that is an equitable right and the court might resist that right for laches.

Mr. SORG. Will the gentleman state the cost of a proceeding to revive a judgment in Philadelphia?

Mr. CHUDOFF. Well, the writ I believe is two dollars and twenty-five cents and the Sheriff's costs depend upon the Sheriff's mileage fees. The average cost of reviving a judgment in Philadelphia by sci. fa. is about seven dollars at the present time.

Mr. SORG. And who is liable, Mr. Speaker, for those costs?

Mr. CHUDOFF. That passes on with the defendent's judgment, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SORG. Therefore to revive the judgment producing a lien by recipitents of assistance under the present law it is absolutely necessary to impose additional costs to at least the extent of seven dollars on the defendent?

Mr. CHUDOFF. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SORG. I recommend this bill as a savings not only to the Commonwealth but to the recipitents as well.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Sorg.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Elk permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SORG. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker, I should like to state to the gentleman that I admit this is a good bill in so far as the original defendant is concerned, but does not the present bill apply to the terre tenants?

Mr. SORG. Yes, Mr. Speaker, it does.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Does the gentleman not think that the bill should be amended to eliminate the terre tenant?

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I had given that no previous thought. I do feel, however, that the same logic that would apply to the original defendant would apply also to the terre tenant. As a matter of fact, Mr. Speaker, the effect would be to save costs either to the original defendant or to the terre tenants themselves.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Is it not true, Mr. Speaker, that the terre tenant has judgment entered against him under this bill without notice as required by the law today?

Mr. SORG. I will accept the gentleman's word for that Mr. Speaker, because I haven't the knowledge to answer his question.

Mr. O'CONNOR. The bill provides that the judgment can be revived against the original defendant and the terre tenant merely by suggestion on the record, by revival of the municipal lien. I believe that part is unfair; I think the first part is all right. Would the gentleman object to holding it over?

Mr. SORG. I would not. Mr. Speaker, I ask that this bill be passed over temporarily.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the Chair will rescind its decision that this bill was agreed to on third reading. The Chair hears none.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

House Bill No. 752, Printer's No. 345,

was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. BROWN. Did the Chair put the motion to pass the the bill over?

The SPEAKER. It was done by unanimous consent. Does the gentleman object?

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I don't object to passing the bill over, but I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Sorg.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Sorg, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SORG. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I understood the gentleman to say that this applied only to judgments entered by the Department of Assistance?

Mr. SORG. Any claims by the Commonwealth, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWN. All claims by the Commonwealth?

Mr. SORG. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWN. Well, Mr. Speaker, since the bill has been pased over, would the gentleman object if this bill be given to the Attorney General or some competent lawyer for study?

Mr. SORG. Does the gentleman ask me for a job, Mr. Speaker?

I am perfectly agreeable to having the bill passed over temporarily. I do resent the idea that it should be referred to a competent lawyer, with the accent on "competent", but I would like to observe to the gentleman that it has already been referred to the Attorney General and approved by that Department.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 779, as follows:

An Act to amend section forty of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 1237) entitled "An act affecting marital relations prescribing grounds and regulating proceedings for divorce and the annulment of bigamous marriages and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" providing for a rule upon respondent to furnish a bill of particulars in certain cases

Section 1 Section forty of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 1237) entitled "An act affecting marital relations prescribing grounds and regulating proceedings for divorce and the annulment of bigamous marriages and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 40 Bill of Particulars In any suit or action in divorce it shall be lawful for the respondent at any time after the return of the subpoena to enter a rule upon the libellant to furnish a bill of particulars of the cause of action as set forth in the libellant's petition filed and if the same be not furnished by the libellant within thirty days after service of notice of the rule entered unless the court shall upon cause shown extend the time the court shall enter judgment of non pros

In any suit or action in divorce in which the respondent's answer alleges that libellant has committed adultery desertion cruel and barbarous treatment or indignities to the person of the respondent the court may on petition by the libellant grant a rule upon the respondent to furnish a bill af particulars relating to such allegations as set forth in the respondent's answer and if the same be not furnished by the respondent within thirty days after entry of the rule or such other time as the court shall fix the respondent shall not be permitted to introduce evidence in proof of such allegations

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

House Bill No. 949, Printer's No. 354,

House Bill No. 955, Printer's No. 356 and

House Bill No. 964, Printer's No. 357,

were passed over at the request of Mr. SORG.

There being no objection

House Bill No. 1022, Printer's No. 360,

was passed over at the request of Mr. BRUSCH.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1084, as follows:

An Act to abolish the Pennsylvania Post-War Planning Commission and to repeal the act by which it was created

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The Pennsylvania Post-War Planning Commission is hereby abolished and the terms of all present members thereof terminatetd as of the effective date of this act

Section 2 The act approved the twenty-eight day of April one thousand nine hundred forty-three (P. L. 90) entitled "An act relating to post-war planning creating a Post-War Planning Commission and defining its powers and duties conferring powers and duties upon State administrative departments boards and commissions political subdivisions and other agencies and making an appropriation" is hereby repealed

Section 3 The provisions of this act shall become effective on the thirty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred forty seven

On the question,

Will the House agree to this bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I regret that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Cohen, is not here to lay a wreath upon a once noble and defended institution. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Cohen, struggled with the present Speaker and the present Majority Leader to convince them that the Post-war Planning Commission needed killing. In the course of a celebrated debate on the floor of the House in May, along the first part, the gentleman from Philadelphia said,

> "Now, Mr. Speaker, if there is a Post-War Planning Commission, I think it is high time that we know where it is, what it does, and when does it expect to tell us what they plan for Pennsylvania".

And then a gentleman on the other side of the House arose and told us about a billion dollar program that the Post-War Planning Commission had framed for Pennsylvania, and His Excellency the Governor in his message told what a noble institution the Post-War Planning Commission was.

The gentleman from Philadelphia in the debate,—I have forgotten whether the Speaker was the present Majority Leader, but the gentleman from Philadelphia said,

> "You see, Mr. Speaker, we have turned over to the Post-War Planning Commission plans for the program in Pennsylvania which we are told in the next ten years indicates a possible expenditure of over one billion dollars."

How they stressed that subject. Then the gentleman from Philadelphia concluded, I am afraid, Mr. Speaker, that there is no such thing as a Post-War Planning Commission" and there are several gentlemen on the other side of the House that rose to tell us there was such a thing as a Post-War Planning Commission and it never, never, never should be changed.

Now, Mr. Speaker, we find them slaying their own institution with simply a tear on the doorstep, and that's why we weep. We are glad it is going, but it is we who are shedding the tears.

Mr. DAGUE. Mr. Speaker, I am happy to hear that at long last the minority can vote in accord with us in regard to something touching on the Post-War Planning Commission. However, in abolishing this Commission the majority is evidencing its aim not to allow temporary governmental agencies the right to exist once their services become unnecessary.

The Post-War Planning Commission was created as an advisory agency to the Governor for the purpose of considering postwar needs of the Commonwealth. During its term the Commission has carried out its functions commendably. Naturally, no mere Commission can cure all the economic conditions which might beset a State; however, this Commission has done much to offset the postwar economic dislocations and the result of their efforts will be experienced for many years to come. The remaining work of the Commission is largely of routine nature and can easily be handled by the Planning Board.

As to the General $200,000 appropriation of the 1943 session of the General Assembly to the Commission and as to the $250,000 appropriation of the 1945 session, the Commission has spent a mere $188,000. This expenditure has, to name a few items, yielded surveys and recommendations on the unemployment compensation system; the State fiscal policy and taxation; agriculture; penal, mental, medical-surgical institutions; local government and finance; also conservation in Pennsylvania.

Out of the million dollar appropriation of the 1945 session to the Commission for work projects, 76.6 per cent of the total appropriation has been allocated to 56 counties on 261 grants. Every dollar of these grants will produce $138.82 in construction, and the total will mean an estimated man years of employment of 29,578.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

NOT VOTING—2

Hall, Trout,

The majority erquired by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 38, entitled:

An Act to further amend sections one and two of the act approved the thirty-first day of May one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three (P. L. 188) entitled "An act designating the days and half days to be observed as legal holidays and for the payment acceptance and protesting of bills notes drafts checks and other negotiable paper on such days" by making Saturdays bank holidays under certain conditions and repealing inconsistent laws.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, inasmuch as it is late now, does the Majority Leader desire to pass this bill over until tomorrow?

Mr. SORG. If the gentleman so desires, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. It doesn't make any difference to me, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection the bill will be passed over.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

Senate Bill No. 38, Printer's No. 145,

was passed over at the request of Mr. SORG.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 148, as follows:

An Act to amend the act approved the fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1703) entitled "An act relating to criminal prosecutions limiting the effect of demurrers by defendants at the close of the cases of the Commonwealth" providing for the disposition of cases where evidence has been improperly admitted and the court has failed to sustain the demurrer at the close of the Commonwealth's case

Section 1 The act approved the fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1703) entitled "An act relating to criminal prosecutions limiting the effect of demurrers by defendants at the close of the cases of the Commonwealth" is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof a new section to read as follows

Section 2 Whenever at the close of the Commonwealth's case the defendant files a demurrer to the evidence submitted by the Commonwealth and the court overrules the demurrer and on disposition of the case following motion for a new trial or in arrest of judgment it appears that the court over objection had erroneously admitted evidence in the record without which the demurrer should have been sustained then the court shall enter an order sustaining the demurrer nunc pro tunc or direct that a verdict of not guilty be entered of record for the defendant

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall apply to all criminal actions now pending as well as those hereafter begun

This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Hall, Trout,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up House Bill No. 314, Printer's No. 330, on page 21 of today's calendar, bills on third reading, which was passed over temporarily.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 314, as follows:

An Act to further amend sections five and six of the act approved the twentieth day of May one thonsand nine hundred fifteen (P. L. 566) entitled "An act requiring cities of the first class to establish a pension fund for employes of said cities and all county or other public employes if any paid by appropriation of the city councils thereof and out of the treasury of said cities and regulating the administration and the payment of such pensions" by requiring all city county or other public employes whether paid a per diem wage or otherwise to become members of the pensions system of such city and removing optional rate of contribution

Section 1 Section five of the act approved the twentieth day of May one thousand nine hundred fifteen (P. L. 566) entitled "An act requiring cities of the first class to establish a pension fund for employes of said cities and all county or other public employes if any paid by appropriation of the city councils thereof and out of the treasury of said cities and regulating the administration and the payment of such pensions" as last amended by the act approved the eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 443) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 5 The city county or other public employes if any herein mentioned shall after the passage of this act pay unto the board of pensions monthly an amount equal to two per centum of their monthly salaries or wages—in no event however except as herein provided shall such employe be required to pay at a rate greater than four dollars a month—which shall be applied to the purposes of this act Whenever two per centum of the monthly salary or wages of any such employe shall exceed the sum of four dollars a month [and] then such employe [after signifying his or her consent in writing to the board of pensions] shall [be permitted to] pay unto the board of pensions four per centum of the portion of his or her salary or other compensation which is over and above the amount of salary or other compensation which is sufficient to require the monthly payment of four dollars a month at the rate of two per centum of such salary or other compensation and he or she shall thereafter be required to pay such increased monthly rate without regard to the limit of four dollars a month [which is herein imposed upon compulsory payments] Provided That such additional monthly payments shall not exceed eight dollars a month and the total monthly payment shall not exceed twelve dollars a month [Payments at a rate of more than four dollars a month shall not be made prior to September first one thousand nine hundred forty-five but shall begin immediately thereafter for all employes who on that date are members of the pension fund and who are eligible and have consented to make such increased monthly payments On and after September first one thousand nine hundred forty-five any employe who shall enter the pension fund and whose salary is sufficient to make him or her eligible to make monthly payments of more than four dollars a month shall at the time of entrance into the pension fund elect in writing whether his or her monthly payments shall be four dollars a month or at the increased rate hereinbefore provided Any employe who is a member of the pension fund on September first one thousand nine hundred forty-five and whose salary or other compensation is such as to require a monthly payment of four dollars or less unto the pension fund shall continue to make such payment but if and when his or her salary or other compensation shall be increased to an extent making such employe to make monthly payments of more than four dollars then such employe on the beginning date of such increased salary or compensation shall elect in writing whether his or her monthly payment shall be four dollars a month or at the increased rate hereinbefore provided] Payment of the monthly amount or contribution herein mentioned shall cease and be discontinued at the time the beneficiary receives the pension herein provided if such beneficiary has so contributed to the pension fund during a period of twenty years If at the time the beneficiary receives the pension herein provided he or she shall not have been a contributor to the pension fund during a period of twenty years such persons shall be required to pay unto the board of pensions an amount equal to four per centum of his or her monthly pension until such time as his or her contribution shall have extended during a period of twenty years If for any cause an employe contributing to the pension fund shall cease to be an employe of any such cities of the first class or other county or public employes paid out of the treasury of such cities before said employe becomes entitled to the pension conferred by this act the total amount of the contributions paid into the pension fund by such employe shall be refunded to him in full, without interest Provided however If any such employe shall have returned to him or her the amount contributed as aforesaid and shall afterward re-enter such public employment said employe shall not be entitled to the pension designated until twenty years after the said reemployment unless he or she shall return to the pension fund the amount withdrawn in which even the period of twenty years shall be computed from the time said employe first entered the such public service In the event of the death of any employe before the said employe becomes entitled to the pension aforesaid the said total amount of contributions aforesaid shall be paid over to the state of said deceased employe

Section 2 Section six of said act as amended by the act approved the fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred seventeen (P. L. 689) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 6 [Should any] Every person holding a position in said cities of the first class or any county or other public employes [if any] paid out of the treasury of such cities as aforesaid [be paid a per diem wage or a salary at a rate of three hundred and sixty dollars each year or less he or she] shall [not] be compelled to pay or contribute toward the pension fund herein provided for [but shall have the option or choice of so doing and in that event only becoming entitled to the pension provided by this act]

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

Fixing salaries or compensation of officers teachers or other appointees of the board of school directors

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective on the first day of July one thousand nine hundred forty-seven

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LOVETT. May I ask the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, what difference there is in procedure at the present time from what it will be under this bill?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Susquehanna Mr. Wescott permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WESCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to yield to the Chairman of the Education Committee, Mr. Sollenberger.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the gentleman explain the difference in the method of appointing teachers under this bill as compared with the present act.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman I would state that at the present time they are chosen in three different ways, two of which are not the best. The first is oft times the superintendent or supervising principal presents the list of teachers to the board, and of course without much discussion they are all accepted without knowing too much of what they should know of the prospective teachers.

The second way is that the board oftimes presents the names and, of course, they have the power to elect the teacher over the superintendent's or supervising principal's opposition, or we might say they might be able to do so, and that is not good.

Under this bill it would be possible for the superintendent or the county, district or supervising principal along with a committee from the board of directors to study the list of teachers and from that list choose the teachers that both these groups feel will be the best teachers.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, under the present bill would the gentleman say that it would be possible that the committee could consist of all the board members?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Indeed the wording of the bill is such that every board member may be and can be on that committee, or it may be what they term a teacher's committee in many boards. That would be a certain number of board members, chosen by the president of the board to act for the teachers for the entire board. It may be either one.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the gentleman under the present law is it not necessary that a teacher have qualifications as a teacher before she makes application for a position as a teacher?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman, may I state that there could be the emergency certificates that we spoke about the other day, or there could be the war-time emergency or the regular qualified teacher, but in any case the teacher must have some type of certification, unless it would be for a substitute teacher. It is quite possible, that a teacher may be employed for an indefinite time without what we term proper qualification, or we might say temporary certification.

Mr. LOVETT. May I ask the gentleman as a school man what objection he would have to placing before the school board all of the teachers' names who have applied for a position.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, the names of all teachers may be placed before the board but this would say that those chosen by the two groups would dwell on the hiring of teachers that they think should be the ones that should be hired, instead of possibly a greater number that they have no intention of hiring. There is nothing to prevent the discussion of the merits of any teacher whose name comes before the board or the superintendent.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman.

After the very well given explanation I am not too clear in my mind that the bill is necessary at all, but due to the fact that all of the board members can be members of this committee to select from this list, I can't find any opposition to the bill, providing that the board itself will see to it that all of their members will have a right to serve on the committee and take into consideration the names of all teachers who have made application. If they do that I certainly do not find any fault with this legislation.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays weer taken and were as follows:

Vol. 30. HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, APRIL 22, 1947. No. 43.

SENATE

TUESDAY, April 22, 1947

The Senate met at 2:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. W. MURRAY YOUNG offered the following prayer:

Hear our prayer, O Jehovah, God, and give ear to our supplication. May the beauty of the Lord God be upon us and may life become stronger and richer as the days come and go. Be pleased, O God, to make the questions of duty clear to our reason, and help us to accept the wisest persuasions of our God-disciplined understanding. Enlarge our trust in that better self, of which we are capable, and which beckons us on toward the goal of our high calling from Thee, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen!

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. TALLMAN and Mr. WALKER, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, today we witnessed in the forum thousands of teachers coming from all parts of the state, at their own expense, fighting not merely for themselves but for a continuation of the school system of Pennsylvania on a better basis. Regardless of how we approach the problem, we must realize that in America we work under a profit system. We like to talk about free enterprise but under the capitalistic system without profit one cannot survive. For instance, the man who makes this microphone if it cost him $50 to make and if he sells it for $50 he immediately says "I either have to increase the sales price or decrease the cost of production because if I do not have a profit I can not stay in business."

Mr. President, that is what the teachers of Pennsylvania have said to us today. They come here and say "we who teach, make it possible for the survival of free enterprise in the capitalistic system in America, and we are a part of this system, but we too have something to sell, we have to sell our services, and if we receive for those services a mere pittance, when we take back to our homes each month our salaries and we pay the grocer, the butcher, the landlord, we find, as was demonstrated today, that we are working at a loss." Some must go into other fields to make up the differences, so that they can merely pay, gentlemen, pay for the mere right to live, not a profit. How can you expect a teacher to teach in the public schools of Pennsylvania, with a love for our system, when they do not enjoy the system.

I say to you that we have super-patriots in our school system in Pennsylvania because they, at a loss, hold up their pride and tell the pupils of the great system and of the great principles here in America.

I want to ask those of you who know, where was the Pennsylvania Manufacturers Association today? Why were they not at that hearing? Other people were represented —the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Parent Teachers' organizations—but the Pennsylvania Manufacturers, who conduct in Pennsylvania the biggest suite of rooms, lobbying in the Penn Harris day after day, who are spending money by the thousands entertaining and trying to buy votes and, I might say, supplying liquor that is not even bought in the Pennsylvania state stores, because the brands they have been furnishing, it was told to me the other night by one legislator who was invited, who said "I have never seen the brand they gave me to drink bought in any Pennsylvania state liquor store." Maybe Senator Barr is right when he says in the Pennsylvania state stores today they are selling a very poor grade, I am not here to talk on liquor, but I might say that every case of liquor the Pennsylvania Manufacturers bring into Pennsylvania, the State of Pennsylvania loses $50 in taxes.

After all is said, and I quote from Mr. Buchell, President of the Virginia Bank of Richmond, Virginia, education today is the basis of the profit system, because, as the pupil is taught in school, as his mind is developed, that puts him in a better position to go out into a mechanized world, in the factories, which by his productivity, makes more profit for the manufacturers.

And I say to the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Association, who are always worrying about communism coming into America, that if communism comes into America, it will come into America because our school system has collapsed because of not paying sufficient salaries to keep the teachers in the schools, so they will not have any other place. There is the bulkward of all foreign ideologies in our schools. And if they are sincere they should have been, they the recipients, they who are making more profit by our educational system, they should have been at that hearing, telling what they are willing to do in the form of taxation to take our teachers and place them in the profit system that they enjoy immensely.

I say to you it is disgraceful that this Manufacturers' Association, who are using a suite of rooms in the Penn Harris to entertain and to give liquor and other things to influence votes, are not interested in the public school system of Pennsylvania, and I hereby call upon the Manager of the Penn Harris to cancel their reservations and give their rooms to Americans who are willing to pay their own way to come to Harrisburg and fight for the things that make America great, our public school system.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 41, as follows:

An Act to further amend section eight of the act approved the nineteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 1356) entitled "An act to regulate the sale and delivery of solid fuel as herein defined providing for appointment of licensed weighmasters prescribing their powers and duties authorizing substitute licensed weighmasters imposing certain duties on the Department of Internal Affairs and providing penalties" increasing the penalties for violations thereof

Section 1 Section eight of the act approved the nineteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 1356) entitled "An act to regulate the sale and delivery of solid fuel as herein defined providing for appointment of licensed weighmasters prescribing their powers and duties authorizing substitute licensed weighmasters imposing certain duties on the Department of Internal Affairs and providing penalties" as amended by the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-one (P. L. 152) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 8 Any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced for the first offense to pay a fine of not less than [twenty-five dollars ($25.00)] one hundred dollars ($100) or more than [fifty dollars ($50.00)] two hundred dollars ($200) and costs of prosecution and in default of payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for [ten] twenty days and for the second offense be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than [fifty dollars ($50.00)] two hundred dollars ($200) or more than [one hundred dollars ($100.00)] three hundred dollars ($300) and costs of prosecution and in default of payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for [twenty] sixty days and for the third offense shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than three hundred dollars ($300.00) or more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for ninety days

Any person violating any of the provisions of this act for a fourth or subsequent offense shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than [one hundred dollars ($100.00)] three hundred dollars ($300) or more than [three hundred dollars ($300.00)] five hundred dollars ($500) and suffer imprisonment for not less than six months or more than one year

In cities of the first class all hearings shall be held before a magistrate who shall hear such purported violations for one month only and thereafter another magistrate shall be assigned to hear such cases until all magistrates of such city have been assigned to such hearings It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that there be a rotation of magistrates assigned to such hearings in the same manner as that provided by section eleven of the "Magistrates' Court Act of 1937" approved the fifteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. One thousand seven hundred forty-three)

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended, lie over for printing on final passage.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 317, as follows:

An Act to reenact and amend the title and the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 375) entitled "An act conferring upon the councils of cities of the first class the power and devolving upon them the duty of fixing and determining the salaries wages and other compensation payable out of the treasury of such cities from and after the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and forty-six of all public officers clerks and other public employes except the salaries of elected officers whose salaries are fixed by law and except the salaries wages or other compensation of officers clerks and employes of the courts are fixed by law or by the courts" by vesting in city council of cities of the first class the power to fix the salaries wages or other compensation of employes of the courts

Section 1 The title of the act aproved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 375) entitled "An act conferring upon the councils of cities of the first class the power and devolving upon them the duty of fixing and determining the salaries wages and other compensation payable out of the treasury of such cities from and after the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and forty-six of all public officers clerks and other public employes except the salaries of elected officers whose salaries are fixed by law and except the salaries wages or other compensation of officers clerks and employes of the courts which are fixed by law or by the courts" is hereby amended to read as follows

An Act conferring upon the councils of cities of the first class the power and devolving upon them the duty of fixing and determining the salaries wages and other compensation payable out of the treasury of such cities from and after the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and forty-six of all public officers clerks and other public employes except the salaries of elected officers whose salaries are fixed by law [and except the salaries wages or other compensation of officers clerks and employes of the courts which are fixed by law or by the courts]

Section 2 Sections one and two of said act are hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1 That from and after the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and forty-six the salaries wages and other compensation of all public officers clerks and employes including all officers clerks and employes whose salaries were heretofore fixed by law or by the courts payable out of the treasury of any city of the first class shall be fixed and determined by the council of such city by ordinance except such salaries of elected officers which are or may be fixed by law [and the salaries wages and other compensation of officers clerks and employes of the courts which are or may be fixed by law or by the courts]

Section 2 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency it being the intent and purpose of this act to establish a uniform and complete system except as aforesaid of the fixing and determination of all salaries wages or other compensation of public officers clerks and employes payable out of the treasury of such cities thereby unifying and co-ordinating as far as may be practicable that power and duty with the power to raise revenue by taxation and otherwise

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, last week, my colleague, Senator Woodring, cleverly treated the passage of House Bills 402 and 135 as a twin delivery. Both political bills, of course. I, however, term them as twin killings, if I may use the vernacular of the baseball diamond. You remember the combinations of Tinker, Evers and Chance of the old Chicago Cubs, and Barry, Collins and McInnis of the Athletics, who were adept in double plays. Triple plays or killings are unusual in baseball, but can very well happen in the legislative halls. And so tonight with the present bill before us a triple killing is in sight.

Seriously, House Bill 317, doomed to death on various occasions, has been given another shot in the arm, and may be properly treated as a political bill, and is passed on to us under the guise of home rule for Philadelphia. Home rule covers a multitude of sins, and is in this case merely a veneer to conceal the true significance of this bill. This bill on the surface has for its purpose the vesting in City Council of cities of first class the power to fix the salaries, wages, or other compensation of employes of the courts.

May I refresh your memories and inquire why in 1943 you enacted legislation empowering the judges of the Municipal Court to fix salaries of probation officers and other employes of the Municipal Court. Home rule apparently meant little or nothing to you then. You felt it was dangerous to trifle with the courts.

May I again refresh your memories and ask you why in 1945 you enacted legislation empowering City Council to fix salaries of all county employes, excepting elected officers and court employes. Did you cry home rule then? Again you felt it was dangerous to trifle with the courts, and hence excepted court employes from the provisions of the Act. Apparently home rule meant nothing to you then. You did not dare to trifle with the courts. Why the sudden reversal of attitude on your yart at the present time? The judges of Philadelphia are still opposed to this particular bill and so are the court employes.

Does it require much analysis, Mr. President, or deep thinking, to come to the inescapable conclusion that this bill is politically inspired? It is obviously a means of clubbing or stampeding judges into making political appointments. Yes, there are some juicy plums in the courts, and some of our thoughtless and greedy politicians are viewing them with hungry eyes. There is little hope for the courts when people who have little regard for public welfare are ready to strangle the courts with their tentacles, poisoned indeed.

One councilman told me that he is eager to get rid of two court employes who have outlived their political usefulness and replace them with younger men who are active politically, but he can not do anything about them under present conditions. However, if this bill becomes law, he can force their dismissal, notwithstanding their worth to the court. You may multiply this twofold, threefold and fourfold, and the whole scheme is unfolded before your very eyes.

If the officials of Philadelphia are truly interested in home rule, why not insist upon the passage of the city and county consolidation bill? If they were really interested in home rule why not press for the passage of House Bill 743, as introduced by Mr. Lee of the House of Representatives, and who is one of the Republican stalwarts, from the most Republican legislative district in the city of Philadelphia? House Bill 743 is a very simple one—what it calls for is home rule and that is what we have this bill here today for, under the guise of home rule. House Bill 743 is a bill to carry into effect Section 1 of Article 15 of the Constitution, giving cities of the first class the right and power to frame, adopt and amend their own charters and to exercise the power and authority of local self-government. Is there any reason why this bill still remains in the committee to which it was referred? We know the answer—political reasons.

These two proposed projects, one the city-county consolidation and House Bill 743, are sponsored and backed by our leading newspapers in the city of Philadelphia and civic groups, but the political machine fears it because of the wide latitude given to the people to govern themselves. The political leaders in Philadelphia would not risk a change in the complexion of our manner of government in Philadelphia. Political expediency is more important than public welfare. Yet they have the effrontery to shout home rule with respect to the bill before us.

Mr. President, frankly, under the present set-up in Philadelphia, I would hesitate to give them unlimited home rule, excepting as advocated by our Philadelphia newspapers and civic groups in Philadelphia. Our Philadelphia officials have convinced me beyond a doubt that they are not capable of handling the affairs of the city efficiently and capably.

Let me give you an idea as to the mismanagement of the city's affairs by those now in power.

First, in 1939, we gave the city of Philadelphia home rule with respect to the operation of the gas works. What happened? There were two increases in gas rates approved by our Gas Commission without any independent findings, and this was done at a time, mind you, when the profits of the gas company reached an all-time high. To add insudt to injury, our city council, representing us in the city of Philadelphia, approved a $4,000,000 loan for the benefit of the gas company, a private utility running the gas works for the city.

Further, the Philadelphia Electric Company, another utility, during the past year earned more money than ever, and the sum exceeded the allowable return, but the city of Philadelphia stood idly by, although two million consumers were affected.

Further, the city of Philadelphia has leased its Broad Street subway at a rental that does not even pay the carrying charges, mind you, does not even pay the carrying charges. Trolley service has been poor and inadequate, and no complaints have been lodged by the city against the company. The city, however, has spent millions of dollars to expand the lines and increase the facilities of the Philadelphia Transportation Company.

Many sections of our city today, Mr. President, ar without sewage systems, and many populated districts are without recreational facilities.

Philadelphians, as you know, have been promised pure water for years, but the fact is they are still drinking chlorine cocktails.

As to the welfare, health and safety of its citizens, as compared with other large cities, Philadelphia stands practically at the very bottom of the list—hard to believe, but nevertheless the truth.

To cite further instances of mismanagement on the part of the city officials would be futile at the present time. However, this much is certain, that very little has been accomplished for the general welfare of the people. Excuse me please, Mr. President, something was done by our city council rather recently. They felt that they had to show some interest in the public welfare and therefore there was an ordinance passed to exterminate all pigeons and anybody apprehended feeding pigeons was fined $5. Imagine, the city of Philadelphia passed an ordinance to exterminate pigeons and if you are caught feeding them you are fined $5—poor Independence Square, poor Washington Square, poor Franklin Square, where the kids assemble every day every week, and feed the pigeons. This is the type of legislation we get from city council of Philadelphia. That is great stuff, I say.

In view of present circumstances, Mr. President, it therefore becomes increasingly important that we permit the citizens of Philadelphia to decide for themselves as to what type of government they wish and, further, to decide upon the question of home rule, and we can set the ball or the machinery in motion by passing House Bill 743, a very simple bill, but you know our political leaders and officials in Philadelphia would not dare to have it passed or use any pressure to have it passed. They could also pass the city-county consolidation bill. For the benefit and information of those who do not know, we have two forms of government in Philadelphia, a county government and a city government. Where else can that happen; where else does it apply?

Meanwhile, Mr. President, in closing, I say with all the emphasis at my command, vote down House Bill 317, which I call a politically inspired bill. Let us not strangel the judges or the administration of justice for the benefit of a few.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I just desire to develop one fact. In my opinion, and according to political science, House Bill 317 is not tenable, for the following reasons: when we say in Philadelphia there is a Court of Common Pleas In and For Philadelphia County that is a misnomer, because the state of Pennsylvania is divided into judicial districts and, therefore, each court is a branch of the state government and not a part of the city machinery.

If we pass this bill that will mean that employes of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania will be subjected to influence and dictation by city officials, because city officials will be deciding upon the salaries of state employes.

This contradiction, in my opinion, is very dangerous and will detract from the importance of our courts, and for that reason I desire to appeal to all those members of the State Senate, who are interested in protection of our city government, to vote against this measure.

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, if we go back into the history of this legislation, we find that the Legislature had the power to fix the compensation of the clerks of these courts, not the judges; the legislature fixed the maximum and, a few years ago, since the maximum was not high enough, a bill was passed for the term of the emergency only, to increase that compensation so that now it is about $800 above the maximum. All this bill does is authorize city council to do it. That legislation will expire, because the emergency is over, and if something is not done the clerks of the courts and the judicial employes will be receiving less than they now receive.

This bill will permit city council to pay those employes the same as they have been paid in the past under this emergency situation, and it will not be taking anything away from the judges that they had before, because the judges did not fix their salaries; the legislature fixed their salaries.

This bill is merely a transfer from the legislative body to city council of this legislative power, and that is the proper place for the power to reside, because city council fixes the tax rate and raises the funds out of which these employes are paid. They are the ones, just like the Legislature, which raises the funds by which state employes are paid, they in Philadelphia raise the funds for these employes to be paid, and it is only proper that they should fix these salaries.

Another reason for council to fix salaries is so that there will be no discrimination between similar grades of positions. Council has worked out a program, a scale, for those things and if the whole business is in the hands of city council, there will be no discrimination between different employes, whether they belong in the judicial branch of the government, whether they belong in the legislative branch of the government, or whether they belong in the administrative branch of the government. There is no reason why a janitor should be paid one salary if he takes care of the mayor's office, and a different salary if he takes care of a judge's office. They should both be paid on the same scale. This bill will permit that. It is a home rule bill and it is a sound bill from every standpoint of good government.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, may I remind my friend from Philadelphia that some of the employes of the municipal court who were paid from city funds, their salaries were fixed by the judges, and in 1943, when my friend from Philadelphia, Senator Kephart, was a member of this Senate, he voted the right that the judges should fix the salaries of employes in the municipal court. Possibly he may have forgotten, in the rush and bustle of business, but nevertheless that is the fact, and it is recorded in the statute books of 1943.

With respect to being a home rule bill, I believe in home rule, but this puts me in mind of the mountain being in labor and bringing forth a mouse. If Philadelphia is really interested in home rule—and Mr. Kephart can walk out if he so sees fit, but I have a little more regard when he is on the floor—I will say this much, let him use the same effort to put over House Bill 743, which is a home rule bill in every respect, and if he does not like that, let him follow the pattern of another bill I have here, known as House Bill 545, which is applicable to third class cities, introduced by House Representative Rose on March 4, 1947, and which passed the House by an overwhelming majority and today reposes very quietly but soundly in the hands of the Committee on Local Government.

So if you want home rule let us have it and let us put through a bill that spells home rule and not bits from time to time under the pretext of home rule when, as a matter of fact they are politically inspired. Can you explain why councilmen in Philadelphia and other officials are eager to stampede the judges into firing men and hiring others? As long as council can fix salaries they are put into the strong and dangerous position of interfering with the administration of government.

I say that this bill is unsound and unfair and it has been hatched in the minds of ward-heelers.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, April 22, 1947

The House met at 1 p. m.

The SPEAKER (Franklin H. Lichtenwalter) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The guest Chaplain, Rev. Ralph D. Althouse, Pastor of Solomon's Reformed Church, Macungie, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, Who hast taught us in Thy Holy Word that the nations that will not serve Thee shall perish; we acknowledge Thy eternal wisdom shown to us so clearly in Thy righteous law and standard; we realize our dependence upon Thee for life and all its blessings, and our obligations to serve and glorify Thee in our bodies and spirits which are Thine.

We praise Thy Holy Name for the manifold blessings of Thy Providence and grace; for our birth and education under the influence of Thy Word; for the civil and religious liberty we enjoy; for the ministrations of Thy Spirit; for the comfort of our homes; and for all the tender relationships of life; and while we enjoy these many tokens of Thy favor, we beseech Thee to pardon our many sins and failures, and grant that we may show our thankfulness by a sincere obedience to Thy Holy laws and always be mindful of Thy Presence as a Holy safeguard against wrong.

Bless our land with honorable industry, sound learning, and pure living. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion, from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way. Defend our liberties and fashion into one united people the multitudes in our land of many kindreds and tongues. Guide and direct us in all our ways that there may be justice at home and peace among all the nations of the earth. In the time of prosperity, temper our self-confidence with thankfulness, and in time of trouble and adversity, let our trust in Thee remain firm.

Bless those placed in authority over us: the President of the United States; the Governor of this Commonwealth; this legislative assembly. Empower them to see Thy light and by walking in that light, receive might and the will to do the right. We pray in the Name of Thy Dear Son, Amen.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. LAYER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. LAYER. Mr. Speaker, on March 26, 1947, immediately following the yeas and nays on House Bill Number 659 and before the official count was announced, I arose, addressed the Speaker, was recognized, asked certain questions and was given answers by the Speaker of the House.

In reading over the official record (Legislative Journal) of March 26, 1947, I failed to find those remarks; I also failed to find any record of a vote to expunge these same remarks from the record.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House omitting something from the official record can, as we all appreciate, have serious complications; and by the same token if something can be omitted, something can be added that perhaps was never intended or said.

Could you tell me, Mr. Speaker, how those remarks that I made on March 26, 1947, might be properly included in the record.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would inform the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Layer, that he was unaware of the fact that certain matters had been deleted or were not being placed in the official record, as a matter of policy over a period of Legislative Sessions. When the gentleman from Delaware called to the attention of the Speaker the other day that there had been an omission in the official record of his remarks the Speaker asked the Official Reporter to get for him from his record, transcribed from the official record, the remarks made by the gentleman that particular day, and after seeing the remarks and reading the transcribed record the Speaker informed the Official Reporter to place in the record the remarks of the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Layer. These were properly placed in the record as of April 21, 1947.

Mr. LAYER. I thank you, Mr. Speaker.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 647, entitled:

An Act to add section one thousand two hundred forty-two point one to the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local of any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" making special provision for reimbursement of school districts under certain circumstances

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 849, entitled:

An Act providing referendums to ascertain the will of electors on the question of baseball and football on Sundays and for the enactment of licensing ordinances and resolutions in accordance herewith

The first section was read and agreed to.

The second section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Messrs. SCANLON and ROOT offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 2, page 2, line 13, by striking out the word "two" and inserting in lieu thereof: "one".

Amend Sec. 2, page 2, line 13, by striking out the word "seven' and inserting in lieu thereof: "eight".

They were agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The third section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Messrs. SCANLON and ROOT offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 3, page 3, line 12, by striking out the word "two" and inserting in lieu thereof: "one".

Amend Sec. 3, page 3, line 13, by striking out the word "seven" and inserting in lieu thereof: "eight".

They were agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The fourth section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Messrs SCANLON and ROOT offered the following amendment:

Amend Sec. 4, page 4, line 4, by striking out the words "to seven o'clock" and inserting in lieu thereof: "from one o'clock post meridian to eight o'clock".

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, will we have an opportunity to vote on these amendments on second reading?

The SPEAKER. To what amendments does the gentleman refer?

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, the sections changing the time from 6 to 8 o'clock to 7 to 8. The extension of time from 7 to 8 is not satisfactory.

The SPEAKER. If there be no objections the Chair rescinds its action as to the House agreeing to the amendment to Section 4 and the Chair now recognizes the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Sproul.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, as I understand the amendments they increase the hours of privilege on sports from 1 o'clock until 8 o'clock. While there may have been some interference with the church services in the time 2 o'clock, I am personally willing to pass that over, but extending the time from 6 to 8 o'clock, I believe the church services will be very materially interfered with in the evening, especially when the crowds are coming from the parks, and I would like the Members of the House to vote down the amendments.

Mr. SCANLON. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman from Delaware has the wrong impression as to what the intent of the amendments is. It does not make the law mandatory; it gives every municipality a chance by referendum to increase the hours from 7 to 8. It does not make it mandatory.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, I am aware of the fact that the bill is not mandatory, but I personally do not care to see the provisions of the bill furnish an opportunity to vote to extend the time from 6 to 8 o'clock. So I feel again that this House should vote "no" on these amendments.

Mr. SCANLON. Mr. Speaker, we had an experience in Philadelphia last year where 35,000 people who were attending a double header had to stop playing at 7 o'clock due to the fact that the law said so. It is my opinon that if the gentlemen from Delaware or from any other county do not desire to have a referendum, it is perfectly okeh, but if we in Philadelphia or any other county desire to ask our people to vote for their own way, I do not see anything wrong with that, and I ask the Members of this House to support the amendments.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, I do not like to take the time of the House but there are other municipalities, even though I have been and am a sportsman myself, having played baseball, I do feel that the time covered by these amendments between 6 and 8 o'clock should be reserved for people attending church services and that is the reason I oppose this amendment both as it affects the City of Philadelphia and any other place.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Scanlon.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SCANLON. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, if this is enacted into law, would that automatically extend the hours in those communities that have already by referendum approved Sunday baseball?

Mr. SCANLON. Mr. Speaker, it is my understanding, in answer to the gentleman from Allegheny, that it would not make it mandatory. There would have to be a referendum in every community.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman probably has answered my question correctly but I did not quite understand. The point that I wished to bring out, is, for example, if the city of Johnstown has approved Sunday baseball, say four or five years ago, under this bill, if it were enacted into law, would the Johnstown Baseball Club or any other baseball club have the right to play until 8 p. m. standard time?

Mr. SCANLON. Positively no, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FLEMING. That is all.

Mr. Speaker, I would not want to cast any reflection on Mr. Scanlon's legal knowledge but I would like to have an answer on that from some attorney in the House. The Minority Floor Leader said some time ago a "competent" attorney. I know that the Speaker's personal attorney, the Majority Floor Leader, is a competent attorney, and I therefore would like to interrogate him.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny desires to interrogate the Chair's attorney, the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Sorg. Will the gentleman from Elk permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SORG. I shall Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire from the gentleman from Elk if this bill is passed would a municipality that has already approved Sunday baseball automatically get its hours extended to 8 p. m., as provided in this act?

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, my off-hand opinion is that it would not automatically extend the hours.

Mr. FLEMING. I thank the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire if we are voting on the amendments to section 4, or all the amendments.

The SPEAKER. We are voting on the amendments to section 4. The amendments to the other sections have already been approved.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, section 4 would not correspond to the other sections of the bill.

The SPEAKER. We are voting on the amendments to section 4.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Scanlon and Mr. Chudoff, and were as follows:

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

Senate Bill No. 114, Printer's No. 21,

was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 293, entitled:

An Act to further amend sections one thousand three one thousand one hundred three one thousand one hundred seven and one thousand eight hundred two of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 1206) entitled "An act concerning twonships of the first class amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" further regulating the powers and duties of township auditors and controllers and the letting of contracts

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state it.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, is there any limit of time in which a Senate Bill must be called up when it appears on the second reading calendar?

The SPEAKER. There is no limit. The Rule only applies to House Bills.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I thank you, Mr. Speaker.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 313, entitled:

An Act to reenact, amend and revise the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. L. 103), as amended, entitled "An act concerning townships of the second class; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto."

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. ANDREWS. I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria will state it.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know whether there is actually any Member on the floor of this House who has read Senate Bill 313, either in whole or in part.

The SPEAKER. The Chair might suggest anyone who has read this bill in whole or in part will please rise, while they receive applause. The Chair recognizes the gentlemen from Delaware, Mr. Layer and Mr. Sproul.

Mr. ANDREWS. I wouldn't have believed it possible, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Also the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Yester. The Chair does not wish to slight any of the minority members.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the Minority Leader, the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ANDREWS. I shall Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, I was wondering if the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, will tell this House how much he has read of this bill.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I got as far as the 63rd page.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Cambria got a little farther than I did. I got to page 55. I thank the gentleman from Cambria.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 641, as follows:

An Act fixing the salary of county controllers in counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth, classes and repealing parts of acts inconsistent therewith.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the final passage postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

PHILADELPHIA COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC EDUCATION WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is happy to welcome a delegation of the Citizens Committee on Public Education of Philadelphia, who are the guests of the Members from Philadelphia.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would request the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, to preside at this time during the third reading calendar. The Chair might say that this is an excellent manner to subdue the opposition. The Chair might also state that if any of the bills are controversial they will be passed over.

Mr. ANDREWS IN THE CHAIR

QUESTION OF INQUIRY

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Sepaker, I rise to a question of inquiry.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I want to know where is the opposition.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. If the gentleman from Delaware wants to stir up anything we will inform him very soon where the opposition rests.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that they are doing nothing else but resting.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 364, as follows:

An Act to further amend subsection (a) of section two hundred ten of the act approved the ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. All other acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, this is the bill that we discussed yesterday under a motion to recommit. At that time I was of the opinion that the bill should be recommitted to Committee on Professional Licensure for further study and possible hearing. I felt that this bill did not meet the requirements either of the accountants or the certified public accountants. As I have seen in the print of the bill that was before us yesterday, there was so much stricken out that I was inclined to think that it did not meet the approval of at least some of the certified public accountants who had contacted me to support House Bill 586 without any amendments. I know that it does not meet the approval of those public accountants who have been laboring with this question.

As I see the bill, it does not, therefore, give to either of these groups what they want, and as I further see the bill, in fact the only practical thing that it does grant is an internship, if you want to call it that, of a period of service of two years on the part of a person who desires to become a certified public accountant before he can receive a certificate. The objection to that, as it has been given to me, is this, that if, for instance, a man might be a professor of accounting in the University of Pennsylvania, or he might have, served for ten years in the Revenue Department of the state of Pennsylvania or in the Internal Revenue Department or some other taxing unit of the United States Government, yet before he could become a certified public accountant he would have to surrender his job and spend two years at a very low salary in the office of a certified public accountant.

That is about all that this bill, as it seems to me, actually covers, a period of what I said would be an internship or a period of service in the office of a certified public accountant.

I am therefore, Mr. Speaker, of the opinion as I said yesterday, that this is a matter that ought to have gone back to Committee. It is a matter that ought to be compromised between these groups. I have friends from both groups who have gotten in contact with me. I have told them that I felt this measure was one that they should get together on and compromise on. I have heard from both groups that they have tried to compromise and could not get together, but in these days when we are talking about the need of concilation in other fields, I feel that this perhaps is one field in which they should get together. Therefore I say again that I am of the opinion, and I am more confirmed than I was yesterday, when I said that it should have gone to Committee. This House felt otherwise. I have nothing further that I can do about it except to call to your attention the fact that I don't feel that it meets the desires of either group.

Mr. O'DONNELL. Mr. Speaker, I have listened to the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, and I would like to reassure him that both sides, public accountant and certified public accountant groups—their positions were carefully considered, their arguments were weighed and given due deliberation and consideration, and this is the bill that was produced.

With respect to the clerkship to be served afterwards, that is not the way I read the act. If a man has the ability he can go into business for himself or form a partnership with another, or else have a two year clerkship working for himself in public practice is sufficient to meet the requirements of the act.

I might say with respect to professors who are in school, it may seem to be a hardship to them, but if they want to go into public practice it is only fair to the people who are looking for a person with the title of C. P. A. to know that that individual must have some public experience and practice. I might say that from my experience most of the professors teaching public accounting in these schools consider their teaching positions as only temporary, and it is no hardship with respect to them.

I also might say with respect to the Revenue Department employes', that each and every one, unless they happen to be superior officers are waiting the day when they can go into business for themselves. I don't know any person who came to me with respect to their positions who felt they were going to be legislated against by this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

NOT VOTING—3

Cooper,	Hall,	Trout,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 678, entitled:

An Act to amend, or further amend, Sections five hundred six, seven hundred one, seven hundred sixteen, and clause (q) of Section seven hundred thirty-one of the act approved the third day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1225), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," by reducing the penalty for the unlawful possession of live fawn deer; requiring the payment of a fee for raccoon possession permits; and making it unlawful to aid or assist in the purchase or sale of wild game.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend sec. 4, page 8, line 10, by striking out the words "fifteenth day of May" and inserting in lieu thereof twenty-fourth day of June.

Amend sec. 4, page 8, line 11, by striking out the words "forty-five (Pamphlet Laws 517)" and inserting in lieu thereof "thirty-nine (P. L. 810)".

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the House give unanimous consent to the offering of amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for pr.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 703, as follows:

An Act for the protection of the public and the prevention of fraud by prohibiting any person individually or in association or partnership with another person or persons to practice as an accountant auditor certified public accountant under a false assumed fictitious or trade name prohibiting any corporation organized or registered after the effective date of this act from engaging in the practice as such and fixing the time when such practice by existing corporations shall entirely cease in this Commonwealth and providing penalties

Section 1 For the protection of the public and the prevention of fraud it shall hereafter be unlawful for any person individually or in association or partnership with another person or persons to practice or hold himself or herself out of the public as engaged or legally authorized to engage in practice as an accountant certified public accountant auditor or public accountant under a false fictitious or assumed name or under the name of a former associate associates partner or partners of such business or profession who is no longer actually associated with such practice by reason of death or otherwise Nothing contained in this act shall be construed as prohibiting the use of a trade partnership association or company name if such name includes only the name or names of associates or partners actually engaged in practice under such name

Section 2 In the case of the dissolution of a partnership caused by the death of a partner and in the case of the death of an individual the name of the deceased partner or of such individual may be used by the surviving partner or partners of the employes of such individual for a period not exceeding three years in order to assist in the orderly liquidation of the estate of such deceased partner or individual

Section 3 No corporation shall hereafter be organized or registered in this Commonwealth to engage in practice as an accountant certified public accountant auditor or public accountant nor shall any person permit or aid any corporation in the doing of any act in violation of the provisions of this act

Section 4 Any corporation organized or registered in this Commonwealth to engage in the practice as an accountant certified public accountant auditor or public accountant prior to the time when this act was finally enacted may continue to engage in such practice until the first day of January one thousand nine hundred forty-nine but no such corporation so organized or registered shall be permitted to engage in such practice after said first day of January one thousand nine hundred forty-nine

Section 5 Any person firm or corporation violating the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) or imprisonment not exceeding three months or both at the discretion of the court

Section 6 The provisions of this act shall be severable and if any of its provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional the decision so holding shall not be construed to affect the validity of any of the remaining provisions of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provisions not been included therein

Section 7 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment except sections one and two thereof which shall become effective the first day of January one thousand nine hundred forty-nine

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

House Bill No. 1022, Printer's No. 360,

was passed over at the request of Mr. SORG.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1050, as follows:

An Act to protect consumers in the purchase for fuel purpose of the hard coal known as anthracite providing for and regulating the sale offering for sale resale delivery and shipment of anthracite according to a standard provided for in this act requiring producers and dealers and persons engaged in the sale and resale of anthracite from storage yards or otherwise to consumers to keep certain records conferring powers on the Anthracite Committee and its agents and providing penalties

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Legislative Purpose Short Title This act is enacted by the General Assembly in the exercise of the police power of the Commonwealth for the protection of consumers and purchasers for resale wherever located in the purchase for fuel purposes of the hard coal known as anthracite. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Anthracite Standards Law

Section 2 Definitions The following words and phrases as used in this act shall be construed to mean

(a) "Anthracite" the hard coal mined in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

(b) "Anthracite Committee" the Anthracite Committee of the Department of Commerce of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania constituted and organized in accordance with the provisions of the Commerce Law approved May 10 1939 (P. L. 111) as amended May 5 1945 (P. L. 432) to administer the Production Control Plan for the Anthracite Industry

(c) "Producer" a person association partnership or corporation or his or its legal representative engaged in operating a preparation plant and in the sale delivery or shipment to market therefrom of anthracite for fuel purposes

(d) "Dealer" a person association partnership or corporation or his or its legal representative purchasing anthracite for resale to consumers for fuel purposes and who maintains a place for the storage of anthracite

(e) "Preparation Plant" a breaker washery or other plant where run-of-mine anthracite from mine and strippings or anthracite from refuse banks is processed by crushing washing screening and the removal of impurities to make the same suitable as a fuel

(f) "Sizes" include the sizes of anthracite commonly known as broken egg stove nut pea buckwheat and rice the sizings for which are set forth in the definition of "Standard Anthracite" "Sizes" does not include and this act shall not be construed to apply to anthracite of smaller sizes than those herein enumerated

(g) "Standard Anthracite" anthracite which does not exceed the following specifications as to undersize and ash or slate and bone content

Size of Anthracite	Test Mesh Round		Undersize Maximum	Ash Content Maximum	Maximum Percentage
	Though	Over			Slate	Bone
Broken	4⅜"	3¼"-3"	15%	11%	or 1½%	2%
Egg	3¼"-3"	2 7/16"	15%	11%	or 1½%	2%
Stove	2 7/16"	1 5/8"	15%	11%	or 2%	3%
Nut	1 5/8"	13/16"	15%	11%	or 3%	4%

NOT VOTING—3

Cooper,	Hall,	Trout,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1067, as follows:

An Act to amend section one thousand two hundred six of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" by further providing for leaves of absence of professional employes because of illness or physical disability

Section 1 Section one thousand two hundred six of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" as last amended by the act approved the twentieth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (P. L. 1012) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 1206 When a board of school directors is compelled to close any school or schools on account of contagious disease the destruction or damage of the school building by fire or other causes the school district shall be liable for the salaries of the teachers of said school or schools for the terms for which they were engaged Whenever a teacher is prevented from following his or her occupation as a teacher during any period of the school term for any of the reasons in this section specified the school district shall be liable for the salary of such teacher for such period at the rate of compensation stipulated in the contract between the district and the teacher in addition to the time actually occupied in teaching by such teacher

Whenever a teacher is prevented by sickness or some other unavoidable circumstance from following his or her occupation the school district may at the discretion of the directors make such payments of compensation during the period of absence from duty as the exigencies of the case may seem to warrant Provided That in the case of sickness no payments shall be made unless such teacher shall have furnished to the board of school directors a certificate from a physician stating the nature of the sickness and certifying that he or she was unable to perform duties as a teacher

No professional employe who is absent from duty because of illness or physical disability shall be dismissed nor shall the contract of any such professional employe be terminated because of said illness or physical disability providing such balance from duty does not exceed a period of one calendar year from the first day of absence

[All contracts with teachers shall hereafter contain a covenant providing for their payment in cases arising under the circumstances described in this section and at the same rate as is specified for the time actually engaged in teaching]

[Payments of salaries heretofore or hereafter made for the school year ending June thirtieth one thousand nine hundred and nineteen or any portion thereof in conformity with the provisions of this act are hereby declared to be valid and effectual in law and binding upon the school district]

Section 2 The provisions of this act are severable and if any of its provisions shall be held unconstitutional the decision of the court shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions of this act It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provisions not been included herein

Section 3 This act shall become effective on the first Monday of July one thousand nine hundred forty-seven

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to announce that there will be a Republican Caucus in the New House Caucus Room immediately upon adjournment. It is very important, all Republican Members take note.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state it.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, the Chair having announced a Republican Caucus after the Session, does that mean that the meeting of the Committee on Judiciary will be postponed?

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman for calling that matter to his attention. The Chair will confer with the Chairman of the Judiciary Committee.

FORMER MEMBERS WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is very pleased this afternoon to welcome a former Member of the House from Philadelphia, Mr. Skale.

The Chair also welcomes another former Member from Philadelphia, Mr. Ominsky.

The Chair welcomes another former Member of the House, the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Brumbaugh.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEES TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. McKINNEY asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Judiciary to meet during the session of the House.

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, April 23, 1947

The Senate met at 2:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore (M. Harvey Taylor) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. In the absence of the Chaplain, today's session will be opened with prayer by the Reverend George E. Johnson, Pastor of the Reverend Benjamin F. Stevens Memorial Methodist Church, of Harrisburg.

REVEREND JOHNSON. Our Heavenly Father, we reverently pause in Thy presence, with gratitude in our hearts for the many evidences of Thy loving kindness and tender mercies all around us. We are grateful for the high privilege of living and serving in an age of obvious needs. Help us to sense our personal and individual responsibility as law-maker and citizen, that we may give a good account of our stewardship. Give us convictions that are born of the heart, and seasoned with reason and justice, tempered with kindness and mercy, that we may not fail man nor God. Give us a sense of high courage to stand for that which is right, as Thou dost lead us to see the right. May our faith in God be unfaltering. May our lives find their supreme example in Him who is himself "The Way, The Truth, and The Life," and who has promised the abundance of life to those who put their trust in Him.

May Thy Blessing rest upon this Commonwealth, the Governor, this Senate, and all who share authority and responsibility with him, upon our Nation and the nations of the world, that together we may forge an enduring peace and prosperity for all peoples, with the mercy and justice of Our Lord at its heart. All of which we ask in His name. Amen!

He also, from the Committee on Public Health and Welfare, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 570, entitled:

An Act to further amend sections one, four, five, and six of the act, approved the seventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-three (P. L. 151) entitled "An act defining and regulating the business of dry cleaning and dyeing; providing for the maintenance, construction, and inspection of dry cleaning and dyeing buildings and establishments; providing for enforcing the act, and penalties for violation thereof" by repealing exemptions from certain provisions of said act and providing for regulation of Class 1 and Class II dry cleaning and dyeing plants.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WILSON, from the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations, reported as committed, House Bill No. 1215, entitled:

A Joint Resolution ratifying the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States relative to the terms of the President of the United States.

NAYS—0.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 506, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 1278) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" providing for fixing the number and compensation of all appointed officers deputies assistants clerks and other persons whose compensation is paid out of the county treasury whether employed by the county the courts or by any judge thereof creating a salary board in each county defining its powers and duties providing for appeals and repealing inconsistent acts

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

(During the calling of the roll the following occurred:)

Mr. ROSENFELD. I desire to be recorded as voting "no."

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The vote of the gentleman from Philadelphia will be so recorded.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I desire to make my position clear with respect to Senate Bill 506. Yesterday I voted "no" on Senate Bill 317, which more or less parallels this bill; having voted "no" on that bill, I wish to be recorded as voting "no" on this bill.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will be so recorded.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President. Senate Bill 506 lacks uniformity, because it excludes Philadelphia from its provisions, and for that reason I cast my vote in the negative.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The vote of the gentleman from Philadelphia will be so recorded.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I did not realize we were acting on Senate Bill 506. I have a statement I wanted to make on that bill.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. There is nothing before the Senate now excepting announcement of the roll call.

Mr. BARR. Then, Mr. President, I would ask that the roll be called again, if there is any parliamentary way of doing it.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Until the gentleman from Allegheny finds such a method and so advises the Chair, the only matter before the Senate is announcement of the roll call.

Mr. BARR. Just a minute, don't give me that bum's rush. May we be at ease?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair recognized the gentleman from Allegheny and asked for what reason he wished to be recognized. At the present time there is nothing before the Senate excepting—

Mr. DENT. Mr. President—

The PRESIDING OFFICER. May I finish my sentence? There is nothing before the Senate excepting announcement of the roll call.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Westmoreland.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire to know how I am recorded as voting.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman is not recorded as voting on the measure.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire to be recorded as voting "no", for the following reason:

On page 35 of this bill, Senate Bill 506, Printer's No. 198, you will find Section 307, and I wish the members of the Senate would read that section, or follow me while I read it:

Section 307 deals with appeals and states, "If after decision is made any officer or his deputy or any judge of any court is of the opinion that the number of his deputies, assistants clerks, or other employes is too few, or the compensation provided for any of them is too low, he may appeal from the action of the board to the court of Common Pleas of the county, which will hear and determine such appeal as promptly as possible. The decision of the court shall be final."

This bill starts out to create a uniform salary board. It ends up by giving into the hands of the court the absolute power to set salaries and wages and numbers of employes for any of the several elective offices and it puts into the hands of the court the final decision as to the compensation or the number of employes of the court itself, if you please. The court can very easily take the position that its employes are not being paid the compensation that the court feels they ought to be paid or the court may say that it does not have the number of employes that the court feels it ought to have. And who hears the appeal—the court itself. Who makes the final decision—the court itself.

I say to the gentleman of the Senate that this vote may have been taken a little hastily, and perhaps all the members do not realize exactly what the bill does; it starts out to do one thing but, unfortunately, it ends up doing exactly the opposite, because it gives into the hands of the Court of Common Please a power never intended to be put there and it makes the court, in the final analysis, the salary board of the county.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I want to explain my vote, and in so doing I am going to insist, as long as you are in the Chair, that every name be called, the names of all fifty Senators, because I do not like steam-roller tactics.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman has a right to ask for a roll call at any time.

Mr. BARR. Just a few moments ago, I was called to the phone by the Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners of our county, he called my attention to Section 307, and he told me that this bill first started out to be a uniform act for the counties, but everything good that was done on every other page is removed by section 307 on page 35. There is no salary board left in any county of this Commonwealth with this provision in the bill. In other words, the court is the dictator of all the salaries in each and every office in every county of this state, with the exception of Philadelphia county, which has a different type of salary board and which, as I understand it, is in the hands of city council.

Mr. President and members of the Senate, the courts have always been the worst offenders before each and every salary board. They seem, with their robes, to think that they need and should have more employes and at higher salaries than any other elective office in any county.

This provision, in which you say the decision of the court shall be final, in my opinion, makes the President Judge of the Common Pleas court in each of the various counties the entire salary board.

I want my vote recorded as "no" and I would ask my colleagues on this side to check and see how their votes have been recorded and I ask that they each be recorded as voting "no."

And again I reiterate, Mr. President, I do not like the steam-roller tactics employed by the gentleman who is in the Chair.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I rise on a parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Lehigh will state his parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, has the vote been announced.

The PRESIDING OFFCIER. The vote has not yet been announced.

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 506

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 506 passed third reading.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I second the motion

The PRESIDING OFFICER How did the Senator vote?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

BILLS OVER IN ORDER

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 506, on third reading, go over in its order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair at this time wishes to advise the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Barr, that if he is obliged to leave the Senate floor and desires the Senate to be at ease during his absence, the Chair will be very glad to have the Senate at ease during his absence.

The Presiding Officer further reminds the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Barr, that there are no steam-roller tactics adopted; the procedure we have used has been in force for a number of years.

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that House Bill No. 35, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirteen (P. L. 1024) entitled "An act to protect the public health and welfare by regulating the employment of females in certain establishments with respect to their hours of labor and the conditions of their employment by establishing certain sanitary regulations in the establishments in which they work by requiring certain abstracts and notices to be posted by providing for the enforcement of this act by the Commissioner of Labor and Industry and others by prescribing penalties for violations thereof by defining the procedure in prosecutions and by repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions thereof" providing for payment of time and one-half for overtime changing hours of labor and restrictions relative to age in certain employments and extending provisions to include additional persons.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 72, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to further amend section three hundred twenty of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 1278) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" by providing for the payment of retirement allowances to widows of deceased county employes and for crediting employes with time spent in military service in counties of the second class.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 218, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to further amend the first paragraph of section nine hundred seventy-six of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1333) entitled "An act concerning elections including general municipal special and primary elections the nomination of candidates primary and election expenses and election contests creating and defining membership of county boards of elections imposing duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth courts county boards of elections county commissioners imposing penalties for violation of the act and codifying revising and consolidating the laws relating thereto and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to elections" by further providing procedure for rejection of nomination petitions papers or certificates.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 263, as follows:

An Act to further amend section two and amend sections three and five of the act approved the eighteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 1303)

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 492, as follows:

An Act to amend Section 2 of the act approved the third day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. L. 227) entitled "An act authorizing stock corporations with certain exceptions to make provision for and to issue shares of capital stock of any class or classes or to change shares of authorized or outstanding capital stock of any class into one or more classes with or without nominal or par value and with such designations terms relative rights powers privileges preferences limitations restrictions and qualifications as may be specified regulating such corporations and the liabilities of their directors making other provisions relating to the capital and capital stock of such corporations and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith" by empowering subject to certain conditions the boards of directors of corporations to issue out of the authorized but unissued shares of capital stock the kinds and classes of shares so authorized regulating the creation and issuance of preferred or special stock in series and designating the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between different series and empowering subject to certain conditions the boards of directors of corporations as respects the authorized but unissued shares of preferred or special stock of the corporation to divide the same into series and subject to certain conditions and limitations to fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of any series so established

Section 1 Section 2 of the act approved the third day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. L. 227) entitled "An act authorizing stock corporations with certain exceptions to make provision for and to issue shares of capital stock of any class or classes or to change shares of authorized or outstanding capital stock of any class into one or more classes with or without nominal or par value and with such designations terms relative rights powers privileges preferences limitations restrictions and qualifications as may be specified regulating such corporations and the liabilities of their directors making other provisions relating to the capital and capital stock of such corporations and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 2 (a) Any such corporation heretofore or hereafter created by incorporation reorganization or consolidation having a capital stock consisting of shares either with or without nominal or par value or both may at any time authorize and issue in whole or in part capital stock of any class or kind with or without nominal or par value or change or convert any or all of the shares of its authorized or outstanding capital stock into one or more classes and kinds either with or without nominal or par value with such designations terms relative rights privileges limitations preferences and voting powers or prohibitions restrictions or qualifications of the voting and other rights and powers as may be specified as to the shares of any given class or kind in the same manner and by the same stock vote as may now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for increasing the capital stock of such corporation Provided however That in any case where shares without nominal or par value shall be provided for a stated capital shall be fixed the amount of which shall be set forth in such proceedings which stated capital shall be governed by and be subject to the provisions of this act Such proceedings may as an incident to such change or conversion increase or decrease the capital stock which such corporation is authorized to issue or the aggregate par value of or stated capital applicable to its outstanding shares of stock may alter or adjust the division of its authorized capital stock as between outstanding stock and authorized stock unissued or make any similar adjustment of the capital structure or share structure of such corporation Provided that no such change or alteration in the value of the aggregate par value of the outstanding stock shall be valid in law unless notices to all persons interested shall be given as now required by law where it is proposed to increase or reduce the capital stock of any corporation

(b) As to shares authorized by such stock vote but unissued unless the charter or by-laws otherwise provide the board of directors shall have the power by resolution duly adopted to issue from time to time in whole or in part the kinds or classes of shares so authorized

(c) If the charter so provides the shares of any preferred or special class may be divided into and issued in series If the shares of any such class are to be issued in series then each series shall be so designated as to distinguish the shares thereof from the shares of all other series and classes Any or all of the series of any such class and the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between different series may be fixed and determined by the character provided that all shares of the same class shall be identical except as to the following relative rights and preferences in respect of any or all of which there may be variations between different series namely the rate of dividend the price at and the terms and conditions on which shares may be redeemed the amounts payable upon shares in event of voluntary or involuntary liquidation sinking fund provisions for the redemption or purchase of shares and the terms and conditions on which shares may be converted in the event the shares of any series are issued with the privilege of conversion Different series of the same class of shares shall not be construed to constitute different classes of shares for the purpose of voting by classes

(d) If the charter shall expressly vest authority in the board of directors then to the extent that the charter shall not have established series and fixed and determined the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between series the board of directors shall have authority by resolution to divide any or all such classes into series and within the limitations set forth in subdivision (c) of this section fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of any series so established Such authority of the board of directors shall be subject to such limitations if any as are stated in the charter and shall always be subject to the limitation that the board of directors shall not create a sinking fund in respect of any series unless provision for a sinking fund at least as beneficial to all issued and outstanding shares of the same class shall either then exist or be at the same time created

(e) Prior to the issue of any shares of a series established by resolution adopted by the board of directors the corporation shall present to the Department of State a statement in duplicate executed under the seal of the corporation signed and verified by two duly authorized officers thereof and setting forth

(1) The name of the corporation

(2) The resolution establishing and designating the series and fixing and determining the relative rights and preferences thereof

(3) The date and the manner of the adoption of such resolution

If the Department of State find that such statement conforms to law and the charter of the corporation and when all fees have been paid as required by law it shall endorse its approval thereon shall file the statement and shall issue to the corporation or its representative a copy of the approved statement Upon the filing of such statement by the Department of State and upon compliance with the requisite provisions of any law regulating the issue of securities by the corporation the resolution establishing and designating the series and fixing and determining the relative rights and preferences thereof shall become effective

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 575, as follows:

An Act concerning the ascertainment of principal and income and the apportionment of receipts and expenses among tenants and remaindermen

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Definition of Terms "Principal" as used in this act means any realty or personalty which has been so set aside or limited by the owner thereof or a person thereto legally empowered that it and any substitutions for it are to remain in trust perpetually or are eventually to be conveyed delivered or paid to a person while the return therefrom or use thereof or any part of such return or use is in the meantime to be taken or received by or held for accumulation for the same or another person

"Income" as used in this act means the return derived from principal

"Tenant" as used in this act means the person to whom income is presently or currently payable or for whom it is accumulated or who is entitled to the beneficial use of the principal presently and for a time prior to its distribution

"Remainderman" as used in this act means the person ultimately entitled to the principal whether named or designated by the terms of the transaction by which the principal was established or determined by operation of law

"Trustee" as used in this act includes the original trustee of any trust to which the principal may be subject and also any succeeding or added trustee

Section 2 Application of the Act Powers of Settlor This act shall govern the ascertainment of income and principal and the apportionment of receipts and expenses between tenants and remaindermen in all cases where a principal has been established with or unless otherwise stated hereinafter without the interposition of a trust provided that the person establishing the principal may himself direct the manner of ascertainment of income and principal and the apportionment of receipts and expenses or grant discretion to the trustee or other person to do so and such provision and direction where not otherwise contrary to law shall control notwithstanding this act

Section 3 Income and Principal Disposition

(1) All receipts of money or other property paid or delivered as rent of realty or hire of personalty or dividends on corporate shares payable other than in shares of the corporation itself of the same kind and rank as the shares on which such dividend is paid or interest on money loaned or interest on or the rental or use value of property wrongfully withheld or tortiously damaged or otherwise in return for the use of principal shall be deemed income unless otherwise expressly provided in this act

(2) All receipts of money or other property paid or delivered as the consideration for the sale or other transfer not a leasing or letting of property forming a part of the principal or as a repayment of loans or in liquidation of the assets of a corporation or as the proceeds of property taken in eminent domain proceedings where separate awards to tenant and remainderman are not made or as proceeds of insurance upon property forming a part of the principal except where such insurance has been issued for the benefit of either tenant or remainderman alone or otherwise as a refund or replacement or change in form of principal shall be deemed principal unless otherwise expressly provided in this act Any profit or loss resulting from any change in form of principal shall enure to or fall upon principal unless otherwise expressly provided in this act

(3) All income after payment of expenses properly chargeable to it shall be paid and delivered to the tenant or retained by him if already in his possession or held for accumulation where legally so directed by the terms of the transaction by which the principal was established while the principal shall be held for ultimate distribution as determined by the terms of the transaction by which is was established or by law

(4) Nothing in this Section 3 shall apply to property in the nature of wasting assets such as timber minerals coal stone oil gas or other natural resources or to property subject to depletion such as leaseholds patents copyrights and royalty rights but this Section 3 shall apply to the shares of corporations which own such property

Section 4 Apportionment of Income Whenever a tenant shall have the right to income from perodic payments which shall include rent interest on loans and annuities but shall not include dividends on corporate shares and such right shall cease and determine by death or in any other manner at a time other than the date when such periodic payments should be paid he or his personal representative shall be entitled to that portion of any such income next payable which amounts to the same percentage thereof as the time elapsed from the last due date of such periodic payments to and including the day of the determination of his right is of the total period during which some income would normally accrue The remaining income shall be paid to the person next entitled to income by the terms of the transaction by which the principal was established But no action shall be brought by the trustee or tenant to recover such apportioned income or any portion thereof until after the day on which it would have become due to the tenant but for the determination of the right of the tenant entitled thereto The provisions of this section shall apply whether an ultimate remainderman is specifically named or not Likewise when the right of the first tenant accrues at a time other than a payment date of such periodic payments he shall only receive that portion of such income which amounts to the same percentage thereof as the time during which he has been so entitled is of the total period during which such income would normally accrue and the balance shall be a part of the principal

Section 5 Corporate Dividends and Share Rights

(1) All dividends on shares of a corporation forming a part of the principal which are payable in the shares of the corporation itself of the same kind and rank as the shares on which such dividend is paid shall be deemed principal Subject to the provisions of this section all dividends payable otherwise than in such shares of the corporation itself including ordinary and extraordinary dividends and dividends payable in shares or other securities or obligations of corporations other than the declaring corporation shall be deemed income Where the trustee shall have the option of receiving a dividend either in cash or in the shares of the declaring corporation it shall be consideded as a cash dividend and deemed income irrespective of the choice made by the trustee

(2) All rights to subscribe to the shares or other securities or obligations of a corporation accruing on account of the ownership of shares or other securities in such corporation and the proceeds of any sale of such rights shall be deemed principal All rights to subscribe to the shares or other securities or obligations of a corporation accruing on account of the ownership of shares or other securities in another corporation and the proceeds of any sale of such rights shall be deemed income

(3) Where the assets of a corporation are liquidated wholly or partially amounts paid upon corporate shares as cash dividends declared before such liquidation began or as arrears of cumulative preferred or guaranteed dividends shall be deemed income all other amounts paid upon corporate shares on disbursement of the corporate assets to the stockholders shall be deemed principal All disbursements of corporate assets to the stockholders whenever made which are designated by the corporation as a return of capital or division of corporate property shall be deemed principal Any profit or loss resulting from the sale or liquidation of corporate shares shall enure to or fall upon principal

(4) Where a corporation is a party to a merger consolidation or reorganization or otherwise acquires the assets of another corporation or where the capital structure of a corporation is changed either with or without merger consolidation and the securities of the surviving succeeding reorganized or acquiring corporation with or without cash or other properties are issued to the shareholders of the original corporation in like proportion to or in substitution for their shares in the original corporation and prior to the effective date of such merger consolidation or reorganization there were arrearages of cumulative preferred or guaranteed dividends and such arrearages are eliminated in the merger consolidation or reorganization so much of the securities and cash and other properties received as is designated by the corporation as a payment in settlement of such arrearages shall be allocated to such arrearages and the balance of the securities and cash and other properties received shall be deemed principal in case the corporation does not so designate the securities received in like proportion to or in substitution for shares upon which there were such arrearages of cumulative preferred or guaranteed dividends at their value as of the effective date of such merger and the cash and other properties received shall be allocated first to principal in the amount of the inventory value of the said shares of the original corporation or in default thereof of their market value at the time the principal was established or of their cost where purchased later second to the arrearages of cumulative preferred or guaranteed dividends or in satisfaction thereof if less than such amount and third the balance if any to principal

(5) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section where a corporation is a party to a merger consolidation or reorganization or otherwise acquires the assets of another corporation and shares of stock of whatsoever character or whatsoever class or classes of the surviving succeeding reorganized or acquiring corporation with or without cash or other securities or properties are issued to the shareholders of a corporation which is a party to such merger consolidation reorganization or acquisition of assets in like proportion to or in substitution for their shares in such corporation all shares of stock so issued and also all cash and other securities and properties which may be so issued shall be principal

(6) In applying this section the date when a dividend accrues to the person who is entitled to it shall be held to be the date specified by the corporation as the one on which the stockholders entitled thereto are determined or in default thereof the date of declaration of the dividend

Section 6 Premium and Discount Bonds Where any part of the principal consists of bonds or other obligations for the payment of money they shall be deemed principal at their inventory value or in default thereof at their market value at the time the principal was established or at their cost where purchased later regardless of their par or maturity value and upon their respective maturities or upon their sale any loss or gain realized thereon shall fall upon or enure to the principal provided however that the scheduled increment in value of bonds issued on a discount basis and subject to definite appreciation in value on a fixed schedule shall constitute income as of each date on which an increment occurs and shall be made available as income for such disposition as is provided by the terms of the transaction under which the principal was established by transferring from the principal on each such date an amount equivalent to the increment then occurring

Section 7 Principal Used in Business

(1) Whenever a trustee or a tenant is authorized by the terms of the transaction by which the principal was established or by law to use any part of the principal in the continuance of a business which the original owner of the property comprising the principal had been carrying on the net profits of such business attributable to such principal shall be deemed income

(2) Where such business consists of buying and selling property the net profits for any period shall be ascertained by deducting from the gross proceeds during and the inventory value of the property at the end of such period the expenses during and the inventory value of the property at the beginning of such period

(3) Where such business does not consist of buying and selling property the net income shall be computed in accordance with the customary practice of such business but not in such way as to decrease the principal

(4) Any increase in the value of the principal used in such business shall be deemed principal and all losses in any one calendar year after the income from such business for that year has been exhausted shall fall upon principal

Section 8 Principal Comprising Animals Where any part of the principal consists of animals employed in business the provisions of Section 7 shall apply and in other cases where the animals are held as a part of the principal partly or wholly because of the offspring or increase which they are expected to produce all offspring or increase shall be deemed principal to the extent necessary to maintain the original number of such animals and the remainder shall be deemed income and in all other cases such offspring or increase shall be deemed income

Section 9 Disposition of Natural Resources Where any part of the principal consists of property in lands from which may be taken timber minerals coal stone oil gas or other natural resources and the trustee or tenant is authorized by the terms of the transaction by which the principal was established or by order of court to sell lease or otherwise develop such natural resources or where such natural resources have been leased or developed prior to the transaction by which the principal was established and no provision is made for the disposition of the net proceeds thereof after the payment of expenses and carrying charges on such property one-third of the net proceeds if received as rent or payment on a lease or as royalties shall be deemed income and the remaining two-thirds thereof shall be deemed principal to be invested to produce income provided that if a surviving spouse of the person establishing the principal shall be the sole tenant he shall be intitled to such proportion of the net proceeds as he would be entitled to under the intestate laws if the person establishing the principal were to die intestate at the time of the receipt of such proceeds a resident of the Commonwealth and owing such proceeds but this shall not include the $10,000 allowance Such proceeds if received as consideration for the permanent severance of such natural resources from the land payable otherwise than as rents or royalties shall be deemed principal to be invested to produce income

Nothing in this section shall be construed to abrogate or extend any right which may otherwise have accrued by law to a tenant to develop or work such natural resources for his own use

Section 10 Interest-Bearing Obligations in Default

(1) Whenever the interest on an interest-bearing obligation owned by a trust shall be in default in whole or in part and the obligation shall be converted into money or property which can be fairly apportioned or both before the principal is finally distributed then the tenant or in case of his death his personal representative shall be entitled to share in the net proceeds received from the property as delayed income to the extent hereinafter stated

(2) Such delayed income shall be the difference between the net proceeds received from the convrsion and the amount which had it been placed at simple interest at the rate of four per centum per annum for the period during which such interest was in default in whole or in part would have produced the net proceeds at the time of conversion In no event shall delayed income exceed the defaulted interest upon the obligation The net proceeds shall consist of the gross proceeds including property other than money received from the conversion less any expenses incurred in converting and preserving the asset and less all carrying charges which have been paid out of principal pending conversion but shall not include net income received pending conversion

(3) The tenant shall be entitled to receive from time to time and to keep the net income from any form or property or obligation into which such interest-bearing obligation may be converted until it is finally converted into money or property which can be fairly apportioned or both and his share of the delayed income shall be reduced by the amount of income received and by the value of any beneficial use of the property which he may have had

(4) In case of successive tenants the delayed income shall be divided among them or their representatives according to the length of the period for which each was entitled to income

Section 11 Expenses Trust Estates

(1) All ordinary expenses and charges incurred in connection with the trust estate or with its administration and management shall be paid out of income but such expenses where incurred in disposing of or as carrying charges on unproductive estate shall be paid out of principal and where incurred in disposing of or as carrying charges on underproductive estate shall be paid out of principal to the extent that the income from the property shall not be equal to such expenses

(2) Trustees' compensation compensation of assistants and court costs and attorneys' and other fees may be apportioned between income and principal as the court may direct

(3) All other expenses including cost of investing or reinvesting principal and other costs incurred in maintaining or defending any action to protect the trust or the property or assure the title thereof unless due to the fault or cause of the tenant and costs of or assessments for improvements to property forming part of the principal shall be paid out of principal Any tax levied by any authority Federal State or foreign upon profit or gain defined as principal under the term of subsection (2) of section 3 shall be paid out of principal notwithstanding said tax may be denominated a tax upon income by the taxing authority

(4) Interest and penalties on inheritance and estate taxes levied by any authority Federal State or foreign shall be paid out of principal to the extent that such interest and penalties are in excess of the rate of return which has been or shall be realized from the estate during the time that such interest and penalty have accrued

(5) Expenses paid out of income according to subsection (1) hereof which represent regularly recurring charges shall be considered to have accrued from day to day and shall be apportioned on that basis whenever the right of the tenant begins or ends at some date other than the payment date of the expenses Where the expenses to be paid out of income are of unusual amount the trustee may distribute them throughout an entire year or part thereof or throughout a series of years After such distribution where the right of the tenant ends during the period the expenses shall be apportioned between tenant and remainderman on the basis of such distribution

Section 12 Expenses Non-trust Estates

(1) The provisions of Section 11 so far as applicable shall govern the apportionment of expenses between tenants and remaindermen where no trust has been created subject however to any legal agreement of the parties or any specific direction of the taxing or other statutes but where either tenant or remainderman has incurred an expense for the benefit of his own estate and without the consent or agreement of the other he shall pay such expense in full

(2) The special taxes or assessments for an improvement representing an addition of value to property forming part of the principal shall be paid by the tenant where such improvement cannot reasonably be expected to outlast the estate of the tenant In all other cases a portion thereof only shall be paid by the tenant while the remainder shall be paid by the remainderman Such portion shall be ascertained by taking that percentage of the total which is found by dividing the present value of the tenant's estate by the present value of an estate of the same form as that of the tenant except that it is limited for a period corresponding to the reasonably expected duration of the improvement The computation of present values of the estates shall be made on the expectancy basis set forth in the American experience tables of mortality and no other evidence of duration or expectancy shall be considered

Section 13 Short Title This act may be cited as the Principal and Income Act of 1947

Section 14 Repeal The act approved the third day of May one thousand nine hundred and forty-five (P. L. 416) entitled "An act concerning the ascertainment of principal and income and the apportionment of receipts and expenses among tenants and remaindermen and to make uniform the law with reference thereto" and Section twenty-two of the act approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (P. RESOLUTION

TRIBUTE TO THE REVEREND FATHER WILLIAM A. ROACH, A HERO OF THE TEXAS CITY DISASTER, AND CONDOLENCE TO HIS FAMILY

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. HEYBURN, offered the following resolution which was twice read, as follows:

In the Senate, April 23, 1947

The sons of Pennsylvania have gone forth in their State, their Nation and the world to accomplish great and glorious deeds and to perform heroic acts since the very beginning of our Commonwealth's history. To the famed list of Pennsylvania's immortals there has been added the name of another who fell as a hero—ignoring terror and sudden death—he gave his life in the service of his fellow men.

On Wednesday, April 19, 1947, from out of the great southwest, in our sister state of Texas, came the word of a heartbreaking, peacetime disaster that brought grief to our Nation and stunned those of us in the Keystone State. Texas City's harbor area had been leveled, hundreds were dead and hundreds were injured, in a series of incredible blasts that turned the port into the holocaust of a roaring inferno.

Into this fire-swept maelstrom, a veritable charnel house which had just moments before been a happy, thriving, prospering area, sped the Reverend Father William A. Roach, a 38-year-old priest, who was pastor of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, Texas City, Texas. He was safely in his rectory, some distance from the waterfront, when he heard and felt the impact of the first terrible concussion. Totally disregarding personal danger, he dashed to his automobile and drove to the scene of disaster, He knew when he arrived at the dock area that other blasts were imminent because explosives were being loaded there. He also knew that among the dead and dying were many of his parishioners and as the leader of his flock there was none but him to administer the last rites.

Without a second thought he shouldered his way past guards and police to reach his people. As he went from one to the other his mere presence stilled their cries and moans of anguish and gave them comfort and new courage. He pushed on and on to carry his mission to them all, heroically ignoring the calls of those who sought to warn him back to safety, for he was in the service of his people and they needed him. He was oblivious to danger.

The second blast came. A terrible silence followed. Sixty feet from where the heroic priest had been kneeling beside one of his flock rescue workers found him. His limbs were torn and his skull was fractured. Rushed to a Galveston hospital, he died an hour later. The courage, fortitude and devotion which he showed have forever enshrined him in the hearts of those people in whose service he laid down his life.

Father Roach was a Pennsylvanian and a Delaware Countain. His parents are William F. and Mabel Roach of 215 East Third Street, Media, Pennsylvania, He was a twin brother of the Reverend Father John Roach. Together as boys they had attended the Holy Spirit School in Sharon Hill and Upper Darby High School. They both went into the study of the priesthood together and studied at seminaries in Little Rock, Arkansas, and LaPort. Texas. During summer vacations they returned to the family home in Media to work with their father. They returned to Media again, after attaining the priesthood, to say their first Masses in May, 1939. Then they went on to conduct their own churches. Father John became director of Catholic charities for the Galveston diocese and Father William became known as "The Builder of Churches," for the conducted campaigns to build five churches in Texas, with his latest duties as pastor of the Texas City Church.

Now Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the Senate of Pennsylvania take this means of paying tribute to this heroic son of the Commonwealth, and

Be It Further Resolved that in evidence of the deep sympathy of the Senate, the Secretary thereof shall transmit a copy of this Resolution to the bereaved family of the Reverend Father William A. Roach, his parents, his twin brother, and to his two brothers, Leo, of Drexel Hill, Pennsylvania, and James, of Media, Pennsylvania, and his sister Mary, of Media, Pennsylvania.
